Unique Celebration for E. A. Chichesters

PAGE—Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Chichester observed their golden wedding anniversary Tuesday, January 16. Because of their failing health, there was no open house reception. A good neighbor observance of the event was planned by friends. A group met with them for a no-host dinner. The men sawed and hauled wood to their home and got feed for their stock. The ladies spent the afternoon quilting. Mr. and Mrs. Chichester were married at Wayne on January 16, 1901. The couple has four children—Mrs. Charles Hacken-smith, of Kentucky; Morlin, of Idaho; Raymond, of California, and Albert Alden, of Page. Mr. and Mrs. Chichester were honored at a pre-golden wedding anniversary celebrated at their home one half mile south of Page, Friday, July 14, 1950, by members of their family and close friends. At that time their son, Morlin, and family and Raymond and family were able to be present.
