

Lester W. Roberts Burial At Stuart

STUART — Funeral services were conducted at 1:30 p. m. on Sunday, January 14, at the Stuart Community church for Lester W. Roberts, 70, who died at his home in West Plains, Mo., on Wednesday, January 10.

He had suffered from heart trouble for several years.

Lester Wilson Roberts was born in Dunlap, Kans., on October 11, 1880, where he grew to manhood. On October 8, 1900, he was united in marriage to Ida Mae Gleason, of Council Grove, Kans. To this union four children were born. They made their home in Dunlap for about three years and then moved to Stuart where Mr. Roberts engaged in farming.

After farming at Stuart for eight years Mr. Roberts moved to Lead, S. D., where he worked for the Homestake mine for 10 years before moving to West Plains, Mo., where he bought a ranch.

At West Plains he met his second wife, Ella Robinson, and they were married on April 28, 1944. They have made their home at West Plains the last six years.

Survivors include: Widow—Ella; daughter—Irene Fagan, of Portland, Ore.; sons—Wilson Scott, of the Philippine Islands, and Fillmore Robert, of Igloo, S. D.; brother—Leonard, of Stuart. One daughter, Ruby, died when 1-year-old.

Rev. Orin Graff, pastor of the Community church, officiated in the burial rites.

Pallbearers were Clarence Johnson, Donald Krotter, O. A. Hendrickson, Fred Stracke, W. K. Smith, all of Stuart, and Elvin Coker, of O'Neill.

Hear Financial Report on Bazaar—

EWING—The Women's Society of Christian Service of the Ewing Methodist church met on Wednesday afternoon, January 10, at the church parlors.

Mrs. Henry Fleming had charge of the devotionals. The theme: "What Is That in Thine Hand?"

The president, Mrs. Earl Billings, presided at the business session. Committee gave final reports on the bazaar and other financial affairs of the society. This was followed by routine business.

The lesson for the afternoon, "Our Responsibility Toward the Giver of All Gifts," was also presented by Mrs. Fleming.

At the close of the meeting, a luncheon was served by the hostesses of the afternoon, Mrs. William Spence and Mrs. Leland Welke. Table decorations carried out a New Year's scheme.

Bernelda Engler Enters Convent—

STUART—Miss Bernelda Engler accompanied Miss Dorothy Bartlett to Grand Island Friday, January 12. From there she went to Lincoln to visit her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Engler.

On Sunday she left Lincoln for Atchinson, Kans., where she will enter the Convent of Mount St. Scholastica.

Miss Engler is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Engler. She graduated from Stuart high school with the class of 1949 and attended college at Yankton, S. D., last year.

New Officers Are Presented Gifts—

The Elkhorn extension club met at the home of Mrs. Roy Lowry Tuesday, January 9.

The lesson on "New Fabrics" was given.

Regular dues and council dues were paid. Also, each member contributed 50 cents toward the polio fund.

The guessing game was won by Mrs. Harry Graham.

Mrs. Bob Cook presented the new officers with a small gift.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Parker Tuesday, February 13. — Mrs. Florence Schultz, reporter.

Minnesotans Here—

Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Wadsworth and children, of Spicer, Minn., visited with Mrs. Florence Schultz over the weekend.

REAL ESTATE SELLING BEGINS 2 P. M.

Good 1,520-Acre North-Holt County Ranch

LOCATION OF LAND —

Fourteen miles north of O'Neill, Nebr., on U. S. Highway 281, 4½ miles west to east edge of ranch (or 5½ miles to set of buildings); or 10 miles north and 10 miles east of Atkinson, Nebr., on the new county road connecting Highways 281 and 11; or 8½ miles south of the Spencer, Nebr., hydro dam and 4½ miles west. Rebuilding of Highway 281 and completion of new east-west county road provides good road facilities.

DESCRIPTION OF LAND —

Entire ranch is fenced and cross-fenced, all fences are three-wire except one, which is woven wire. Four pastures and each is watered by springs and streams that flow into Eagle creek. About 140 acres are under cultivation. Balance—about 1,380 acres—is about equally divided for hay or pasture. Land is rolling, lots of winter protection for livestock, soil is sandy loam and grass is hardy. This is a fine layout for a cattle raiser, and in the past has been known as the McNulty Ranch. Produced very good small grain crop and good corn crop in 1950.

TERMS & CONDITIONS —

Real estate will be sold as a unit. Abstract showing merchantable title will be furnished. Possession will be given on March 1, 1951. Twenty-five percent of bid payable day of sale; balance on delivery of deed and possession on or before March 1, 1951. Land will positively be sold to highest bidder.
