

Church Notices

METHODIST (O'Neill)
Rev. V. R. Bell, pastor
Church school, 10 a. m., Neil Dawes, general superintendent.
Worship service, 11 a. m., sermon, special music.
Methodist Youth Fellowship, 7:30 p. m.
The Young Adult Fellowship met Tuesday evening for a regular session and party in the church parlors. Mr. and Mrs. Neil Dawes and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crook were the hosts.
The choir will practice tonight (Thursday). Mrs. Harold Lindberg is entertaining the choir after practice.
The Dorcas Circle will meet Friday afternoon at the parsonage.
The official board of the church voted last Thursday evening to proceed with the addition to be built onto the church.
We invite you to worship with us.

COMMUNITY (Stuart)
Rev. Orin Graf, pastor
Unified service, 10 a. m., every Sunday.
Sermon Sunday, January 21: "Potter's Clay," Jeremiah 18.
January 21 is also communion day.

WESLEYAN METHODIST (Atkinson)
Revs. Asa and Edna Wood, pastors
Sunday-school, 10 a. m.
Worship hour, 11 a. m.
WYPS, 7 p. m.
Evangelistic message, 8 p. m.
The Sunday-school will be observing temperance day. While Americans are once more being called upon to sacrifice their sons, and the boys themselves are compelled to give their all for peace; do you want them to have beer or Bibles?
Prayer meeting, Thursday, 8 p. m.
Was there ever a time when the Christian people should pray more than today? Be a prayer-partner and help lift the burden which is too heavy for one man alone. Prayer is a shield to the soul, a sacrifice to God, and a scourge to Satan.
"The wings of prayer carry high and far. Lord teach us to pray."

Ladies Suprised—
A surprise party was held Friday evening, January 12, at the home of Mrs. Merle Spangler honoring the birthday anniversaries of Mrs. Albert Derrickson and Mrs. Arden Laursen.

ASSEMBLY OF GOD (O'Neill)
Rev. Wayne Hall, pastor
In these days of uncertainty and fear of the future, the Word that came to Jonah, the prophet who was running from God, is appropriate. We read: "What meanest thou, O sleeper? Arise, call upon thy God, it so be that God will think upon us, that we perish not." Jonah 1:8.
The CA rally will be at Wood Lake Friday, January 19, at 7:30 p. m. (MST). The president of the local CA bands of this section will bring sermonettes. Let's all go that can.
Sunday-school, 10 a. m.; worship, 11 a. m., classes for every age; the young people's meeting, 7:30 p. m., evening service, 8 o'clock.
The midweek prayer and Bible study is at 8 p. m. on Wednesdays.
The hope for America is faith in Christ to save from sin.
We welcome you to our services.

WESLEYAN METHODIST
Rev. Melvin Grosenbach, pastor
Thursday, January 18, 8 p. m.
We are playing the recording of Kenneth Goff's account of "Communism to Christ" that he gave in O'Neill last week.
January 21: Sunday-school, 10 a. m.; worship, 11 a. m.; evening service, 7:30. We have a well-rounded program for Sunday evenings. The first-half hour is given for testimonies. The young people have the next half hour and the pastor closes the service with a message from the Bible.
January 24 and 25: Rev. and Mrs. A. L. Nabholz are to be with us for quarterly meeting. A message each night at 8 p. m. followed by business.
You are invited to our services. Communism is anti-God. You can be a force against communism by being a Christian.

CENTER UNION (O'Neill)
Rev. Melvin Grosenbach, pastor
January 21: Worship, 10 a. m.; Sunday-school, 11 a. m.; evening service, 7:30.
Young peoples' service is followed by Bible study. You will enjoy the free discussion of the Bible in this service.
January 26, 27 and 28. Rev. Earl Newton, returned missionary from China, the Mexico border and Central America, will be with us for this three-day convention. He will have 16 - mm films from all three countries and many interesting news items from the missionary field. Watch next week for the announcement of these services more in detail.
You are invited to our services.
