Contract for Surfacing Highway 14 Near Neligh—

A contract for bituminous surfacing highway Nebraska 14 from the Boone-Antelope county line north to the existing blacktop near Neligh was awarded last week by the state highway department.

Missouri Valley Construction company, of Omaha, made the low bid on the project and will receive $291,071.05 for the work. In all, 12.4 miles of highway will be improved. About 10 miles of the work will be on number 14. Over a mile and a half of highway between Raeville and 14 will be improved and highway Nebraska 53 will be improved for nearly a mile west of Elgin.

The surfacing on No. 14 will be from seven to nine inches thick and will all be 24 feet wide, except in Elgin where the blacktopping will be 36 feet wide extending to the existing concrete curbs and gutters.

Bad Weather Hurts Cattle Receipts

The weather tended to hold down the volume at the Thursday, March 8, sale held at the O'Neill Livestock Market. There were, however, several hundred head of cattle and five hundred hogs on the market.

One hundred ninety to 240 pound butchers were quoted from $21.25 to $21.60; 240 to 300 pounders, $20.50 to $21.25; there was only a limited showing of heavier butchers.

Light sows, 250 to 325 pounders, sold from $20.00 to $20.40; heavier sows, 325 to 400 pounds, $19.00 to $20.20.

The cattle market was steady with the week before.

Light steers calves, 400 pounders, hit a high of $44.00 and sold on down to $38.00; depending upon the quality; heifer calves were quoted from $36.00 to $40.00; yearling steers, from $28.00 to $33.00; yearling heifers, from $26.00 to $31.00.

There were 25 head of 2-year-old springers sold by the head. These brought $245 and $250 each.

Canners and cutters were quoted from $18.00 to $20.00; better cows, $20.00 to $23.00; and some good cows got as high as $26.00.

Barn Is Burned on Bristow Farm—

BRISTOW — Fire destroyed a barn and some hay on the Louis Scheinost farm, three and three-quarters miles northwest of Bristow, early Friday morning. The place is farmed by Walter Boettcher.

Because of extremely cold weather Mr. Boettcher had placed an electric brooder heater in the barn to protect a sow and litter. It is believed the brooder started the blaze.

Mr. Boettcher estimated his loss at $300 to $400.

Mr. Scheinost carried some insurance on the barn.
