Two Dishes Easy on Purse and Palate

BY EDNA MILES

WITH soaring food prices threatening to pop the lid off the food budget each week, dishes that combine economy, nutrition and taste appeal find an important spot in the meal-planner's book. Macaroni, spaghetti and egg noodle dishes fit this category and because they lend themselves to wide variation with sauces, cheese, leftover meat, fish and vegetables, may be repeated often without loss of savor.

This spaghetti with white clam sauce is a quickie, too. Less than 15 minutes preparation should do it.

Spaghetti With White Clam Sauce (four servings)

Two tablespoons chopped fresh parsley, 1 chopped clove garlic, 1 chopped onion, ¼ cup olive oil, 1½ teaspoons salt, ¼ teaspoon pepper, 1 large can minced clams, 1 package thin spaghetti. Brown parsley, onion and garlic in hot olive oil until ingredients are cooked. Season with salt and pepper. Add clams and simmer for about 5 minutes. Don't overcook or clams will become hard. Drop spaghetti in boiling salted water. Keep water boiling. Stir occasionally. When tender, run cold water into hot water. Drain and serve with sauce.

Macaroni and Cheese Supreme (six servings)

One pound jumbo macaroni, 2 tablespoons butter, 2 tablespoons flour, 2 cups milk, ½ teaspoon pepper, 1 teaspoon salt, ½ pound American cheddar cheese, ½ cup buttered bread crumbs. Cook macaroni in boiling salted water. Drain and place in casserole. Melt butter in sauce pan, add flour and blend. Add milk and stir slowly until sauce thickens. Season. Flake cheese and scatter over macaroni. Cover the top with buttered bread crumbs. Pour sauce over all and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 30 minutes.

Mrs. Edward Campbell will enter St. Catherine's hospital in Omaha Sunday for a check-up.

bach, has been assisting at the Snyder home.
