Visit Service Sons in Texas—

Mr. and Mrs. Harden Anspach and daughter, Miss Wauneta, and Mrs. Frank Clements left Friday for a trip to Sheppard air force base, Wichita Falls, Tex., where their sons, Pvt. Keith Anspach and Pvt. Robert ("Bob") Clements, are stationed.

At noon Saturday they arrived to see the boys marching in formation. Both boys had spotted the Holt county license. As this was a surprise visit, the boys anxiously scanned the premises for their visitors while marching. They were dismissed at 4 o'clock. Don Gibson, another O'Neill boy, joined them. They were together until Sunday.

The Anspachs and Mrs. Clements arrived home Monday evening.

Make Child's Pajamas—

The Elkhorn project club met at the home of Mrs. Ray Lawrence Tuesday, March 11, with Mrs. Dave Loy assisting hostess. Mrs. Bob Cook and Mrs. Elizabeth Howard, leaders, demonstrated and served the "One Dish" meal.

Three new members were voted into the club.

It was agreed at a previous meeting that each member make a pair of child's pajamas for the Mother Jewel home at York. The pajamas are to be completed by the May meeting.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Clarence Hicks April 10. — By Florence Schultz, news reporter.

Shower for Miss Froelich—

Miss Jane Froelich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Froelich, was guest-of-honor Saturday at a pre-nuptial miscellaneous shower. The hostesses were Mrs. C. J. Gatz and Miss Bernadette Brennan. It was held at the latter's home because of the storm. There were 16 guests present.

Miss Froelich will be married Saturday, April 21, to William Montgomery, of Omaha, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Montgomery, of Norfolk.

Mrs. Lizzie McKim Rites at Clearwater

CLEARWATER—Funeral services for Mrs. Lizzie McKim, 72, were conducted at the Methodist church on Wednesday afternoon, March 14. Rev. H. G. Langley, of Oakdale, was in charge of the services and was assisted by Rev. A. Majorins, resident pastor. Hymns were sung by Mrs. Max Hemenway and Mrs. Lyle Rice with Mrs. Amos Switzer at the piano. "Out of the Ivory Palaces," "The Old Rugged Cross" and "Face to Face."

Pallbearers for Mrs. McKim were Herbert Schuster, Charles Curtright, John Miller, Glen Miller, Roy Stevens and Lyle Stevens.

Interment was made in the Clearwater cemetery beside the grave of her husband. The altar was banked with many floral offerings.

Lizzie Jesamine Anderson, daughter of Linton and Addie Anderson, was born at Clearwater on October 21, 1878, and passed away at her home in Clearwater March 10, 1951. She grew to womanhood at Clearwater and on January 15, 1896, she was united in marriage to Lisbon C. McKim. Her husband, two children and one brother preceded her in death.

Survivors include: Daughters—Mrs. Anabell Shoemaker, of Boise, Ida.; Mrs. Opal Englehart, of Cering; five sons—Dr. V. C. McKim, of Fresno, Calif.; George W., of Albuquerque, N. M.; Clinton, of Rulo; Lyle C. and Orville, both of O'Neill; 72 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren; brother—John Anderson, of Clearwater.

Part of their married life was spent on a farm near Clearwater, and in the year 1906, the family homesteaded nine miles south of Inman. In the year 1911, they moved to a farm 25 miles northeast of O'Neill. Following the death of her husband in 1934, she moved to her present home where she has since resided.

Mrs. McKim was an active member of the WSCS and also the American Legion auxiliary. This organization attended the funeral in a group.
