

Grid Hopefuls Hunt for Water Hydrants

EWING—At the Ewing public school, a meeting was called of all possible candidates for the 1951 football squad. There was a large representation of 8th, 9th, 10th and 11th present.

The project of locating the long-concealed waterpipes was presented. There are six hydrants on the field. Use of water would make it possible to sod the field.

The following boys have assisted in this project: Stanley Allen, Tom Christon, Roy Stamp, Gene Tomjack, Jim Good, Bob Pruden, Keith Gibson, Joe Thoenel, Richard Kurgeweit, Don Pruden, Vernon Rockey, Leo Woepel, Duane Hobbs and Don Wright, Ronnie Wright and Roger Woepel.

Since Ewing does not have a community park, these boys have started what they hope to be a beauty spot.
