

KLOPPENBORG SETS 'B' MARK

O'Neill high's Don Kloppenborg Friday established a new state record in class B shotput competition. He chucked the 12-pound ball 47 feet 10 inches—a foot farther than the previous record established last year.

Broken Bow won the Ord relays with 99 points. O'Neill and Ord shared runnerup honors with 46 points each. Eight schools were entered in B. Others were Fullerton, Burwell, Atkinson and Ainsworth. Class D top honors went to Palmer with 91 points. St. Joe, of Atkinson, was second with 82½.

Illness of Don Calkins, a consistent O'Neill point-getter, cost the Eagles a better show. Calkins participated only in the broadjump but usually runs the 220, 440 and is anchor man on the relay team.

Besides establishing the new shot record, Big Don Kloppenborg placed second in the discus, fourth in the high hurdles, fourth in the low hurdles, and ran the last leg of the mile relay, in which OHS finished third.

Kloppenborg, Ted Lindberg, Clifford Dick and Junior Worth qualified for the state track meet. Lindberg finished second in the high jump, clearing at 5 feet 9 inches, and leaped 19 feet 7 inches to place second in the broadjump. Dick won the mile race in 5 minutes 3.3 seconds. Worth placed second in the half-mile run, clocking 2 minutes 10 seconds.

This week Kloppenborg received word that Coach Bill Glassford has included him among 35 freshmen to accompany the University of Nebraska varsity to Curtis for early grid workouts next fall.

Don will matriculate at the "U" in September. Because of wartime conditions, Big Seven conference freshmen will be eligible to play with the varsity during the 1951 season.

Kloppenborg was a bulwark in the O'Neill line last fall, landed a berth on the all-Holt county grid team, is a good student and Coach Marvin Miller describes him as a "grand competitor."

Bob Tushla, of St. Joe, won first in 4 events to pace the Bluejays. He is a 175-pound senior and an outstanding student. Tushla copped the 220, time 25.1 seconds; 440, time 55 seconds; broadjump, 200 feet ½ inch; shotput (12-lb.), 45 feet.

Tom Slattery, of St. Joe, placed second in 3 class 4 events.

'Golden Nugget Inn' Banquet Theme

PAGE—A social event of the year—the Page high school junior-senior banquet—was held Saturday evening, April 28, in the school gymnasium. The theme was "The Gay Nineties." The gym was parted off with many different colors of streamers to represent a tavern which was called "Golden Nugget Inn." Chandeliers and lanterns hung from the ceiling and at one corner of the room was a bar.

Thirty-nine guests were seated around card tables about the room. The program: "Guest Night" (welcome), by Bessie Hartman; "At the Border" (response), by Margie Finch; "Yesterdays," by Miss Shaul; "Daily Doings," by Gene Braddock; "At the Barber Shop," by a quartette; yodels, "Jeanie with the Light Brown Hair," by Maxine Park; "Peggy O'Neill," by Nancy Heiss; "Sum Total," revelations, by Bessie Hartman, and farewell, by Roxana Simmons.

The menu: fruit cocktail, jello salad, peas, roast beef, mashed potatoes, gravy, relishes, rolls, cookies, ice cream topped with strawberries.

The meal was prepared by the junior mothers. Three girls and 3 boys from the sophomore class waited tables. The girls—Ruth Parks, Lois Miller and Audrey Braddock—wore short crepe paper dresses with hose and sandals. The boys—Jerry Terrill, Lionel Ickes and Ronnie Park—wore bow ties, black mustaches, and their hair was parted in the middle.

During the program Jane Simmons and Jim Ballantyne were crowned queen and king. They were selected by vote of the entire high school.

340 Pupils Appear in 3 Operettas

A capacity crowd enjoyed the 3 grade school operettas presented by the grade music department of the O'Neill public school at the high school auditorium on April 27.

The entire grade enrollment of 340 pupils participated in the 1-act operettas.

The kindergarten, under the direction of Mrs. Harry Petersen, included several numbers by the rhythm band, and a short operetta entitled, "The Three Bears and Goldilocks."

The other 2 operettas were directed by Miss Rosemary Vondracek, supervisor of vocal music. She was assisted by the grade teachers. "Cowboys and Indians" was given by grades 1 to 5 and "Mountain Music" by grades 6, 7 and 8.

After the performance, Mrs. Robert Kurtz, in behalf of a number of parents of the grade school children, presented Miss Vondracek with a necklace and earring set in appreciation of her efforts in improving the quality of the grade school music program.
