150 Walther Leaguers in Spring Rally Here

On Sunday, April 29, the young people of Christ Lutheran church of O'Neill, acted as hosts to the annual spring rally and banquet of zone N-6, North Nebraska Walther league.

The program began with registration at 3:45 p.m. of 150 young people from surrounding towns: Ainsworth, Atkinson, Chambers, Clearwater, Elgin, Neligh, Osmond, Pierce, Plainview, Spencer and Venus.

The registration was followed by a business meeting at 4:30 conducted by the zone president, Leonard Warneke, of Osmond. The group was addressed by the district president, Roland Luedtke, of Omaha, who spoke on current projects and affairs of Lutheran youth.

Immediately following the business meeting, the leaguers and 50 guests were served a banquet dinner by the members of Christ Lutheran ladies aid. During the banquet, Reverend Krueger, of Pierce, was toastmaster. Vocal selections were rendered by John Bowen, of O'Neill, and Karen Garwood, of Atkinson. Short addresses were presented by: Rev. P. J. Wirth, of Orchard, who spoke on "Harmony in the Home"; Reverend Krueger, who spoke on "Care of Young Men in the Armed Forces"; and Rev. Donald Christiansen, who spoke on "The Meaning of the Walther League Symbol." The pastor of Christ Lutheran church, Rev. R. W. Olson, delivered the opening and closing prayer and served as songleader for group singing.

At 7:30 the young people present were favored with a program. Vocal selections were presented by John Bowen and Donna Crabb, both of O'Neill, and Karen Garwood, of Atkinson; instrumental selections, by Elizabeth Schaffer, Ted Lindberg, Duane Booth and Eddie Bridges, all of O'Neill. Two films entitled: "In His Name" and "No Other God" were also shown.

The program concluded with a vesper service at 9 conducted by Rev. Claude Ankney, of St. Pauls Lutheran church, Chambers. Reverend Ankney based his sermon on Exodus 32:26 and had as his theme: "Who Is On the Lord's Side?" Mrs. Blaine Garwood, of Atkinson, served as pianist.

Return to Council Bluffs—

Robert Pitcher, of Council Bluffs, Ia., spent the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle M. Green. Mrs. Pitcher and daughter, who had been visiting with the Greens, returned to Council Bluffs with him Sunday.
