

Former Pastor Addresses Grads

CHAMBERS — Muddy road conditions did not keep people from attending commencement exercises at the high school auditorium Friday evening, May 18. The hall was filled to capacity when the 16 members of the Chambers graduating class received their diplomas.

Rev. L. A. Dale, of Pratt, Kans., formerly pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church and superintendent of the Chambers school, gave the address. His subject: "Your Heritage, Your Country and God."

The following scholarships were presented by Supt. L. J. Eckel: First—the State Teachers college scholarship, to Armenta Glesed; second—the church school scholarship, to Bob Leiswald; third—the junior college scholarship, to Joan Clemens.

The processional was played on the piano by Mrs. Lela Corcoran, invocation was pronounced by Rev. C. D. Ankeny; a girls' trio, composed of Kay Eisenhauer, Rose Marie Gibson and Vivian Harley, sang; Neva Jarman was heard in a solo; Vivian Harley and Rose Marie Gibson sang: "When You Come to the End of a Perfect Day."

The salutatory address was given by Bob Leiswald, and the valedictory address by Armenta Glesed. Others taking part in the program were Joan Clemens, Dolores Wilkenson, James Butts, Alston Rasmussen and Jim Jarman.

Presentation of credits was made by Prin. Nick Schmidt. The diplomas were presented by C. E. Wintermote, president of the board of education. Reverend Ankeny pronounced the benediction.

Shirley Johnson, Eugene Hamik Wed

STUART—St. Boniface Catholic church was the scene of a pretty wedding on Tuesday, May 15, when Miss Shirley Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson, of Newport, became the bride of Eugene Hamik, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hamik, of Stuart.

The double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. A. J. Paschang.

The bride was attired in a white net over satin gown fashioned with a lace trimmed yoke. Three tiers of lace trimmed the skirt which ended in a long train. Her lace trimmed veil fell from a crown trimmed with seed pearls.

She carried an orchid with a white pearl rosary.

Mrs. Fritz Kohle, cousin of the bride, served as matron-of-honor. She wore a pale green net gown, with headpiece and mits to match and carried a fan of red roses.

Miss Vita Marie Weichman, cousin of the bride, and Miss Dolores Carr, of Rushville, friend of the bride, served as bridesmaids. Miss Weichman wore a yellow net gown with matching headpiece and mits and carried a fan of pink carnations. Miss Carr wore an orchid taffeta gown with headpiece and mits to match and carried a fan of yellow carnations.

Kristine Wewel served as flower-girl and wore a gown of dotted Swiss fashioned similar to the bride's. She carried a bouquet of sweet peas and carnations.

The bridegroom and his attendants, Al Hamik, cousin of the bride and bridegroom, and Paul Johnson, brother of the bride, wore light suits with white carnation boutonnières.

Charles Krobot, nephew of the bridegroom, carried the rings on a white satin pillow. Bud Krobot, Harry Bliner and John Weichman were ushers.

The mothers of the bride and the bridegroom wore navy blue dresses with corsages of pink and white carnations.

A wedding breakfast was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Kohle by Mrs. Bud Krobot and Mrs. Harry Milner, sisters of the bridegroom.

Dinner was served to about 50 guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hamik. Rita Hamik, Kathy Seger and Leola Jane Weichman served the dinner.

Mrs. C. F. Gillette, of Chambers, aunt of the bride, baked the wedding cake. Mrs. Hamik is a graduate of Newport high school with the class of 1948. For the past year she has been employed at Berneise's beauty shop in Stuart.

Mr. Hamik has been at home on his parents' farm.

They will make their home on a farm north of Stuart.
