The president of the library board, A. H. Marquardt, and the librarian, Mrs. Harold Harris, wish to say thank you to the Auxiliary for their gift to the library, which was chosen as their community project for 1951.

Ralph I. Shrader to Church Parley

EWING—Ralph I. Shrader, an elder of the United Presbyterian church at Ewing, is attending the 93d general assembly of the United Presbyterian denomination which is meeting in Des Moines, Ia.

Important matters which will include the report of the committee on union with the synod of the Associate Reformed church, which stayed out of the union of the associate and associated Reformed churches to form the United Presbyterian denomination in 1856. A recorded message from the retiring moderator, who has returned to his mission work in South Sudan, will give a report on his coverage of the church during the past year. It is rumored that this message will urge immediate union with the northern body of the Presbyterian family. The report of the assembly committee to raise a million dollars for the relocation of the Pittsburgh-Xenia seminary, will be heard on Saturday. Announcement will be made of the new location. Reports will be heard covering the work of the board and agencies of the church.

Joellyn Eacher to Fine Arts Course

EWING—Joellyn Eacher, of Ewing, is one of 300 high school students who have been accepted for the annual all-state fine arts course June 7-23 at the University of Nebraska.
