Ansley Woman Hurt in Crash

Mrs. L. T. Wilkinson, of Ansley, suffered a broken knee cap in an auto accident in a residential street intersection Tuesday afternoon. She was removed to an Omaha hospital.

The car in which she was riding struck a car driven by Mrs. Carroll W. Stewart.

Mrs. Stewart and her 2 small children escaped without serious injury.

The accident occurred at the corner of Sixth and Adams street. Mrs. Stewart was traveling south and was beyond the middle of the intersection when the Wilkinson machine struck the near-rear end of the Stewart car, turning it around completely.

Mrs. Stewart and her children suffered minor bruises. Mrs. Hazel Boatman, passenger in the Wilkinson car, was injured in the right eye. Mr. Wilkinson was unhurt. He was driving east.

County Sheriff Leo S. Tomjack investigated.

Armenta Glead, Donald Prill Wed

Chambers—The Methodist church at Chambers was the scene of the afternoon wedding Sunday, May 27, of Miss Armenta Glead, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Glead, and Donald J. Prill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Prill, of Page.

Rev. L. R. Hansberry performed the ceremony in the presence of 80 guests.

Baskets of white and lavender lilies with a latticework of pink and white decorated the church.

Mrs. Lela Corcoran, cousin of the bride, played the wedding music and accompanied the soloist, Miss Kay Eisenhower, who sang "I Love Thee" and "O Promise Me."

For the wedding the bride chose a gown of white slipper satin with a marquisette yoke trimmed in chautilly lace. The fitted bodice was completed with long sleeves ending in points over her hands. The full, gathered skirt tapered in an aisle-wide train.

Her double-tier fingertip veil was held in place by a tiara of orange blossoms. She carried a white satin Bible marked with a book bouquet of red roses and streamers, also a hand-made handkerchief which belonged to her aunt, the late Jennie C. Adams.

The maid of honor was Miss Margaret Prill, sister of the bridegroom. She wore a pink embroidered organdy floor-length dress. The junior bridesmaid, Miss Dorine Glead, sister of the bride, wore a pastel green formal. Each wore identical headdresses and carried a Colonial bouquet fashioned of pink carnations.

Robert Prill served his brother as best man and Ralph and Eugene Adams, cousins of the bride, were ushers.

Dale Adams, the ringbearer, carried the rings on a white satin pillow during the double-ring ceremony.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents following the ceremony.

Serving were Miss Genevieve Nachtman and Angie Spath. The couple will make their home after June 1 at Wakefield.
