Miss Betty Bollwitt Becomes Bride of John Kaczor, Ewing

EWING — St. Peter's Catholic church, of Ewing, was the scene of a beautiful wedding Thursday morning, June 7, at 8 o'clock, when Betty Bollwitt, daughter of Mrs. Millie Bollwitt, of Ewing, became the bride of John Kaczor, son of Mrs. Eva Kaczor, also of Ewing.

Rev. Peter Burke officiated at the single-ring ceremony and nuptial mass. The choir sang "Heart of Jesus," "Meek and Mild," "Mary, Dearest Mother," and "Lord, I Am Not Worthy." Judy Jefferies sang "Just for Today," accompanied by Sister M. Flores at the organ.

The bride's gown, fashioned by her mother, was of white satin, trimmed with imported chantilly lace. Her net fingertip veil was also edged with matching lace and was caught by a braided tiara of satin and pearls. Her bouquet consisted of pink roses and white carnations with rosebuds caught in white streamers.

Maxine Bauer, friend of the bride, was bridesmaid. She wore a gown of white net over lavender taffeta with a wide lavender taffeta sash which formed a bustle back. Her hat was of lavender net with a wide brim. She wore nylon gloves and carried a corsage of lavender chrysanthemums tied with yellow ribbons.

Joe Miller, friend of the bridegroom, served as bestman. The bridegroom and bestman wore light suits. Francis Shrad, a friend, and Joe Kmiecick, a cousin of the bridegroom, were ushers. All wore white carnation boutonnieres.

The bride's mother, appeared in a navy blue suit and the bridegroom's mother wore a gray floral designed dress. They wore corsages of pink carnations.

Following the ceremony, the wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Robert Pruden. A dinner for the immediate families was served at the home of the bride's mother. It was followed by a reception in the afternoon which was attended by 150 friends and relatives. The bride's table was centered with a 3-tier cake baked by Mrs. Victor Bollwitt and Mrs. Robert Pruden.

Mrs. Richard Bollwitt was in charge of the guest book.

After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. John Kaczor will be at home to their many friends on the John Sisson ranch, near Ewing.
