

Streeter-Huebert Vows Exchanged

Before an altar of white lilies and carnations, Miss Barbara Ann Streeter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Streeter, was united in marriage to Harold Huebert, son of Mrs. Edna Huebert, on Tuesday, June 12, at St. Patrick's Catholic church. Rev. Kenneth Carl performed the 9 a.m. double-ring ceremony.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, appeared in a beige gabardine suit with white accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations.

Her bridesmaid, Miss Jean Fernholz, of Chambers, wore a toast tan gabardine suit with white accessories and a pink carnation boutonniere.

The bridegroom was attired in a dark brown suit and had a white carnation boutonniere. The bestman, Dale Huebert, of Wichita, Kans., wore a palm beach suit and a white carnation boutonniere. Dean Streeter, an usher, wore a light brown suit.

The bride's mother appeared in a navy blue suit with white accessories. Her corsage was of red roses.

The bridegroom's mother wore a Nile green crepe dress with white accessories. She had a red rose corsage.

Miss Nancy Froelich played the organ and accompanied Miss Kathleen Flood, who sang "Ave Maria."

Immediately following the ceremony, a breakfast was held at the M&M for the immediate relatives, Father Carl and Miss Flood.

The young couple left for an extended honeymoon through the Black Hills and Sheridan, Wyo.

Mrs. Huebert is a 1951 graduate of St. Marys' academy. Mr. Huebert, who is a graduate of O'Neill high school, is employed in O'Neill. They will reside here.

Out-of-town guests attending were:

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Huebert, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Huebert, all of Wichita, Kans., and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Matthews, of Lincoln.

Mrs. Phillip Jack Christensen . . . weds in Memorial Baptist church rite.—O'Neill Photo Co.

Caroline Adams a Chambers Bride

CHAMBERS—Two 7-point candelabra and baskets of gladioli and snowbals formed the setting for a pretty candle-light wedding service in the Memorial Baptist church at 8 o'clock Saturday evening, June 9, when Miss Carolyn Leona Adams, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo T. Adams, of Chambers, became the bride of Phillip Jack Christensen, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. John Christensen, of Ewing.

Rev. Lawrence M. McElheran, pastor of the church, performed the double-ring ceremony.

Miss Jeannene Gibson, friend of the bride, played the wedding music, and accompanied the soloist, Mrs. William Hubel, sister of the bridegroom. She sang "At Dawning," "Because" and "Together We Tread Life's Pathway."

Preceding the ceremony the candles were lighted by Eugene Adams and Alston Rasmussen, cousins of the bride and bridegroom, respectively.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride appeared in a floor-length gown of white nylon marquisette over bridal satin. The tight fitted bodice came to a point at the waist and was fashioned with a shirred off-shoulder effect, caught with lily of the valley clips, forming the cap sleeves, and was trimmed in nylon lace.

The bouffant skirt was also trimmed in lace, which graduated to a point in the back, several inches above the hemline. Her double-tier fingertip veil of nylon edged in lace fell in graceful folds from a pearl beaded tiara.

She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid, red roses and white satin ribbon streamers. She also carried a Philippine hand-made handkerchief belonging to her aunt, Mrs. E. J. Salstrand, which had been a gift from the latter's sister, the late Jennie C. Adams.

The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Robert Turner, as matron-of-honor, who wore an ice blue formal with matching head piece, and a corsage of red rose buds, centered by a white gardenia.

Mrs. Adams chose a navy blue dress with white accessories and wore a corsage of pink carnations. Mrs. Christensen, the bridegroom's mother, wore a dress of dusty rose, also with white accessories. Her corsage was of blue carnations.

Norman Christensen served his brother as bestman. Both wore white carnation boutonnières as did all the male members of the wedding party.

Following the wedding ceremony a reception for 90 was held in the church parlors.

The bride's table, covered with a lace cloth and decorated with flowers and lighted tapers, was centered by a 3-tier wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom.
