Miss Elzene Thomas Becomes Bride of Mr. Roy Lundgren

Miss Elzene Thomas, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Thomas, and Roy Lundgren, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lundgren, were married in a 4 o'clock ceremony Saturday afternoon, June 9, at First Presbyterian church, of O'Neill.

Rev. Ralph Gerber read the double-ring ceremony. The church was decorated with twin baskets of garden flowers and 2 seven-branched candelabra.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attended by her sister, Miss Betty Thomas. Robert Thomas, brother of the bride, was bestman. Bennett Herford and William Artus served as ushers.

The bride's gown was of white satin, made with a rounded neckline and lace yoke, fitted bodice, and long sleeves which came to points over her hands. The full skirt formed a train in the back, and her illusion veil fell from a lace Juliet cap. She wore a strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom, and carried a bouquet of white gladioli and stephanotis.

The maid-of-honor wore a Nile green taffeta gown with net overskirt and matching long mitts. She carried yellow daisies and wore a tiara of them in her hair.

Both mothers wore navy dresses with matching accessories and corsages of red roses.

Preceding the service, Mrs. Ralph Gerber played an organ recital of nuptial music. Miss Lois Harder sang "I Love You," by Grieg, and "Because." The traditional marches from Lohengrin and "Midsummer Night's Dream" were used.

After the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors for the guests. Mrs. James Rooney was in charge with Mrs. Rudolph Johnson, Mrs. Henry Martin, Mrs. Orville Peterson, Mrs. C. C. Wrede, Mrs. C. M. Pierson, Mrs. Bennett Sanders, Mrs. Lawrence Dobrovolsky, Mrs. Lee Blake, Mrs. Alfred Drayton, Mrs. Elmer DeVall, Mrs. C. E. Yantzi and Miss Twila C. Hicks assisting. Mrs. Estel Thomas was in charge of the guest book.

Both the bride and the bridegroom are graduates of the O'Neill high school. The bride also attended Wayne State Teachers college and has taught in Holt county schools.

Mr. Lundgren attended Gledale (Calif.) junior college and the University of Nebraska. He is now a member of the Midwest Motor Co., Ltd., firm here.

For traveling the bride chose a navy blue 2-piece suit with matching accessories and a corsage of baby rose buds. After their trip, they will be at home in their newly furnished apartment in O'Neill.
