

3 GENERATIONS GRADUATE FROM ATKINSON HIGH . . . Monday evening, June 11, at the annual Atkinson high school alumni banquet an unusual family gathering took place when Mrs. Maude Henderson Clifford was honored. This was the 50th anniversary of her graduation from the Atkinson high school. Also attending the banquet were her 5 children and 2 grandchildren who were also graduated from

FINISHES TRAINING . . . Pvt. Edward Hynes, son of Mrs. Loretta Hynes, of O'Neill, is nearing completion of a 14-weeks' training cycle at Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo., with a unit of the 6th Armored division. As a trainee, he received 6 weeks basic training in the fundamentals of army life and the use of infantry weapons. He is now completing an additional 8 weeks of engineer training. Hynes reached O'Neill early Tuesday for a brief visit.—The Frontier Engraving.

BREAD TRUCK ROLLS . . . Fred Fuchser, 58, retired Gordon rancher, was severely injured and Sam Seveland, 69, also of Gordon, was hurt when their 1951 sedan struck a Peter Pan bread truck at a filling station in the east outskirts of Clearwater late Monday morning. Jack Knight, of Norfolk, driver of the truck, escaped unhurt.

He climbed out an open window of the cab. The accident happened when Knight started to drive off the highway to go to the station. His machine was struck in the rear center as Fuchser attempted to pass. Both vehicles were west-bound.—The Frontier Photo & Engraving.

STOUT-FROELICH-BIRMINGHAM 100 YEARS OF MARRIAGE CELEBRATION . . . The triangular marriage celebration provided an opportunity for C. E. Stout and members of his family to reunite. Standing (left-to-right): Dr. John P. Gilligan, of Nebraska City; George Stout, of Tekamah; C. E. Stout; Claude Stout, of Tekamah, and Elizabeth Latta, of Omaha; seated—Mrs. J. P. Gilligan, of Nebraska City, and Mrs. Ed Latta, of Omaha. The Stouts are brothers; Mrs. Gilligan and Mrs. Latta are their sisters. Doctor Gilligan is Mrs. Gilligan's son; Elizabeth Latta is Mrs. Latta's daughter. Photo was taken at the H. J. Birmingham residence.—O'Neill Photo Co.
