Marion Harris a Ewing Bride

EWING—Miss Marion Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Harris, of Ewing, and Stanley Merchant, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Merchant, of Elgin, were married in a double-ring ceremony Sunday, June 17, at 3 o'clock at the Methodist church in Elgin. Rev. Lester V. Anderson officiated.

Miss Anna Mae Hill, of Ewing, was the bridesmaid and wore a beige suit with white accessories and a corsage of pink peony, white daisies and mock orange blossoms. Bruce Merchant, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man.

The ceremony was performed before an altar decorated with candelabra and baskets of peonies. The candles were lighted preceding the ceremony by Betty Kay Conger, cousin of the bridegroom and Betty June Harris, sister of the bride.

Music was furnished by Mrs. L. D. Wilcox at the piano and Thelma Wilcox with the violin. The vocal solos, "I Love You Truly," sung by Betty June Harris, and "O, Promise Me," sung by Betty Kay Conger, followed the lighting of the candles.

The bride entered on the arm of her father to the strains of "Because," played by Thelma Wilcox. She wore a blue garbantine suit with lavender accessories and carried a bouquet of roses and mock orange blossoms.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Merchant. Mrs. R. H. Fink, of Fremont, grandmother of the bride, poured.

The young couple left for Fremont where they plan to make their home.

Miss Carol Pofahl Becomes Bride of Willis Rockey

EWING—Miss Carol Pofahl and Willis Rockey were married Sunday, June 24, at the Ewing Methodist church. The 2 o'clock afternoon ceremony was performed by Rev. C. C. Chappell.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Pofahl, of Ewing, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Rockey, also of Ewing.

Vernon Rockey was best man for his brother. Ushers were Buford Carlson, of Orchard, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and Martin Pofahl, brother of the bride.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown with a lace bodice, trimmed in tiny white satin buttons. The full skirt was of net over white satin, with a train. Her fingertip veil edged in Chantilly lace was held in place by a beaded tiara. She carried a bouquet of white carnations in which was centered an orchid corsage all tied with white satin ribbon which hung in long streamers.

Mrs. Vance Anson, a friend and schoolmate of the bride, was the matron-of-honor. Her gown was fashioned like the bride's in pale green with matching head piece. She carried a bouquet of orchid carnations.

Mrs. Pofahl chose for her daughter's wedding a gown of blue and Mrs. Rockey, the bridegroom's mother also chose a dress of blue with white accessories. Each wore a corsage of gardenias. Mrs. Pofahl, grandmother of bride, and Mrs. Leota Butler, grandmother of the bridegroom, each wore a corsage of white carnations.

Janice Bartak in a green formal and Dean Pofahl in a gray suit lighted the candles.

The bridegroom and his attendant wore tan suits with white carnation boutonnières. The fathers also wore boutonnières of white carnations.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Chappell played the traditional wedding music. Miss Joellyn Eicher sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because."

Following the single-ring ceremony before the altar decorated with baskets of gladioli and daisies and candelabra, a reception, in charge of Mrs. Otto Reimer, was held in the church parlors, which were decorated in the bride's chosen colors of green and white.

The 3-tier wedding cake surrounded by daisies and topped with miniature bride and bridegroom under a wedding bell was used as a centerpiece on the long table, flanked by baskets of flowers and candles.

The bride and bridegroom received many gifts. Mrs. Melvin Rexine had charge of the gift book.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Rockey will make their home in Ewing, where they have a house furnished and ready for occupancy on their return from a honeymoon trip. For traveling, the bride chose a suit of cocoa brown with tan accessories.

Willis is a graduate of the Ewing high school in the class of 1941. He served in the air force for 3 years as a mechanic. Since his discharge he has worked with his father in the Rockey Implement Co. and is at present a partner of the company.

Carol is a graduate of the Bartlett high school. She chose teaching as her profession, in which she has been engaged the past five years.

To Attend Debut—Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Froelich and Miss Nancy went to Chicago, Ill., Sunday. They plan to attend a debut while there. Bill Froelich and Bob Berigan, of Atkinson, flew to Chicago Tuesday to meet them.
