bedroom while the second bedroom, with its blue walls and white ceiling, has a gay "little girl" atmosphere set off with the red and white candy-striped curtains which frame the windows. The full basement boasts an extra bedroom and a recreation and utility room. The Herleys have 2 daughters, Christine, 5, and Sally, 2. This is the 8th in an exclusive series of pictures of post-World War II O'Neill homes.

50 Years Ago

A big crowd was in town Saturday to see the Great Eastern show, and a whole lot of people were sorry they went. It was the consensus of opinion that it was a pretty poor show. The only feature about the show that a good word could be spoken for was their trained horse which performed a couple of good feats.

Automobile racers have a record of an average of 16 miles an hour between New York and Boston. There are ships that can beat that by 8 or 9 miles an hour.
