

Benash-Freouf Nuptials Read

Miss Ida Mae Benash, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Benash, of Milford, formerly of O'Neill, and Vernon Freouf, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Freouf, of Atkinson, exchanged marriage vows in a double-ring ceremony performed Sunday afternoon, August 12, at First Presbyterian church in O'Neill. Rev. Ralph Gerber officiated.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white street length dress with white accessories and carried a bouquet of white carnations. Her attendant, Mrs. Albert Freouf, of Atkinson, wore pink and carried pink carnations. Miss Elaine Harshfield, of Atkinson was soloist.

Pvt. Wayne Benash, of Lowery air force base, Denver, Colo., a brother of the bride was bestman. Richard Kazda and Arthur Benash, both of O'Neill, were ushers.

A reception was held in the church parlors after the ceremony. About 70 guests signed the guest book which was under the charge of Miss Dolly Hood. On the serving committee were: Mrs. Edward Claussen and Anna Whipple, both of Atkinson; Mrs. Gerald Smith, of Wood Lake, and Mrs. Elwin Rubeck and Mrs. Christene Williams, both of O'Neill.

After a South Dakota honeymoon, the young couple will reside in Atkinson.

Darlene Burgess an Atkinson Bride

ATKINSON—Baskets of pink and white gladioli made a pretty setting for the wedding of Darlene Marie Burgess, of Emmet, to Gerald D. Upton, of Atkinson, Wednesday, August 8, at 3 p.m. Rev. Orin C. Graff performed the double-ring ceremony in the Presbyterian church at Atkinson.

Miss Mildred McClurg played the nuptial music and also accompanied Roger Winsor, who sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because." Both Miss McClurg and Mr. Winsor were classmates of the bride.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, L. F. Burgess, of Emmet. Her gown was a lovely white satin creation. The fitted bodice came to a point in front at the waist line and buttoned down the back with self-covered buttons. The chiffon yoke was outlined in a flower arrangement embossed on the satin of the bodice. The sleeves were long and pointed at the wrists and the skirt fell in soft folds to floor-length. Her French illusion fingertip veil was held in place by a tiara embroidered with tiny pearls and she wore a double strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom. She carried out the old tradition of wearing something old and something new, something borrowed and something blue and a penny in her shoe. The something old and borrowed was a handkerchief belonging to Mrs. William Grothe, of Emmet, who carried it at her own wedding and the something blue was made by a mutual friend, Mrs. Leon Beckwith. Her bouquet was of pink and white carnations.

After the ceremony, ladies of the Presbyterian auxiliary had charge of the reception held in the church parlor for relatives and friends. Miss Mildred McClurg and Miss Doris Bogue, both of Atkinson, and Miss Bernice Grothe, of Emmet, friends of the couple, and Mrs. Marvin Brader, of Norfolk, a sister of the bridegroom, helped with the serving of the 75 guests.

In the evening the young couple gave a dance for their many friends and left shortly afterward for a brief wedding trip to Denver, Colo. They will live at the Garwood apartments in Atkinson.

Out-of-town guests included: Mr. and Mrs. James A. Upton and son, Arlan, of Meadow Grove; Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Miller and Miss Mary Miller, of Madison; Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Brader, of Norfolk; Opal Upton, of Norfolk; Hugh Burgess, sr., and daughter, Gretchen, of Julian, and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Burgess, jr., of Talmadge.

Rosemary Ryan Is August Bride

Miss Rosemary Ryan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Ryan, of South Sioux City, and formerly of O'Neill, and Richard Francis Tedrow, son of Mrs. Mary Agnes Whetstone, of Sioux City, were married Saturday morning at St. Jean Baptist Catholic church in Sioux City.

White lace and net over satin fashioned the bride's gown which featured a scalloped hemline and peter pan collar. Her white satin bonnet was trimmed with seed pearls and illusion veiling and she carried red roses on a white prayer book.

As the couple was emerging from the church after the ceremony they were "arrested" by a group of Sioux City police and were taken to Tony's restaurant where a breakfast had been prepared for about 40 guests.

They will live in Sioux City.

Mary Lou Gartner Weds James Butts

The wedding of Miss Mary Lou Gartner and James Butts was solemnized Monday, August 13, at a 9 a.m. nuptial mass at St. Patrick's Catholic church. Very Rev. Timothy O'Sullivan officiated.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gartner, of Chambers, was given in marriage by her father. Her gown was of white satin and was fashioned with a nylon yoke edged in lace, long sleeves pointed over the wrists, and a gathered skirt ending in a long train. Her elbow length veil of illusion was caught up with a crown of pearls.

Miss Elizabeth Gartner, sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor and the bridesmaid was Miss Lansing, of Coleridge, a cousin of the bride. Both wore aqua gowns. Miss Kay Jeffries was ring bearer.

Mr. Butts is the son of Mrs. Orville Keller, of Chambers. His bestman was Leslie Gartner, brother of the bride. Mr. Maly, of Lynch, was also an attendant.

A wedding dinner for 100 guests was served at noon at the American Legion hall in Chambers. The hall was also the scene of a wedding dance in the evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Butts plan to make their home in Chambers.

Celebrate 35th Wedding Date

Mr. and Mrs. Preston Jones celebrated their 35th wedding anniversary on Sunday evening, August 12.

Their daughters planned a picnic in the park for them, but on account of the rain they surprised them at their home.

They also had corresponded with the others who live away: Milo Jones, in San Diego, Calif.; Maurice Jones, in Chadron, and Mrs. Cecil Griffith, of North Platte. They all helped in presenting their mother and father with a gift, a table lamp and stand.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Walter Devall and daughters, Nancy and Kathryn; Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Crumly and sons, Johnny and Jerry, of Page; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Walter, of Chambers, and Johnnie and Merle, at home.

Her bridesmaid was Opal Upton, of Norfolk, a sister of the bridegroom. Miss Upton's dress was pale blue taffeta. The bodice was light-fitting and was accented with a sweetheart neckline. The skirt was floor-length. She wore a single strand of pearls, a gift from the bride, and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. A halo of blue flowers completed her ensemble.

The bridegroom and his attendant, Darius Burgess, of Emmet, brother of the bride, wore blue gray suits and the traditional white carnation boutonnières.

Mrs. L. F. Burgess, mother of the bride, and Mrs. J. A. Upton, mother of the bridegroom, both wore navy blue with corsages of white carnations.

Ushers were Joe Scripter, jr., and Frank Schultz, both of Atkinson. Miss Norma Jean Burgess, only sister of the bride, had charge of the guest book. She was dressed in a yellow pique afternoon frock and wore a small hat to match.

Darlene is a graduate of Atkinson high school, 1951, and was active in many school organizations. Gerald since his discharge from the army and overseas duty in the Pacific theater of World War II has been em-
