

Family Gathers at Harriet Welke Home

EWING—A family reunion was held at the home of Mrs. Harriet Welke on Sunday, August 26, honoring Mrs. F. C. Huston and Mrs. E. J. Snyder, of Glasgow, Mont.

A picnic dinner was served and all brought well-filled baskets. It happened to be Mrs. Welke's birthday anniversary and she received many gifts.

Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Leland Welke and family; Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Shain and son; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Schmisser and family; Miss Vaulda Welke; Mr. and Mrs. Keith Biddlecome and family; Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Schmidt and family; Mr. and Mrs. Hans Peterson and family; Miss Vina Wood; Miss Hazel Ruby; Mrs. Elsie Chase; Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Ruby; Mr. and Mrs. A. B. McKay, of Norfolk; Mrs. Lucy Forsberg and Mr. and Mrs. Wessen Gage, of Atkinson; Mrs. Kitty Edmunds, of Rushville; Miss Sarah Holman and Frank Schmisser, of Ewing.

Four of the guests had August birthdays.

TWO PICTURE WINDOWS IN FRENCH HOME

... This modern, 5-room residence, 718 Benton street, is the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. Dale French. The "L-shaped" combination living-dining room is done in jade-green and has blond furniture. The room boasts 2 large picture windows, on the south and west, and a porthole window overlooking the entryway. Chartreuse is the predominant color in the kitchen and an island separates the kitchen proper from the built-in breakfast nook. The house has 2 bedrooms, each with 2 closets and a built-in vanity. The bath is decorated in coral and gray. The basement is an apartment in itself, having a bedroom, living room, kitchen, bat hand utility room, and the unfinished upstairs will someday make another large bedroom. The house, stucco with white wood siding trim and a red roof, was completed November 11, 1950. The Frenchs have 2 children, Miss Jody, 3½, and Tim, 1½.—The Frontier Photo & Engraving.
