"Lighten his homework" ...with better light for better sight

Days are getting shorter and the young man or young lady in your home will be doing an increasing amount of homework. At no time in life is good eyesight more important. Nor is there a time when precious eyesight should be more safeguarded. Check the lighting in your home. Make certain your family is not suffering needless eyestrain because of improper or inadequate lighting. Inspect those reading lamps, those study lamps. Replace those dull, blackened bulbs. Add beauty and charm to your home with good, adequate lighting and at the same time guard against eyestrain. Trained personnel at Consumers will be glad to assist you with any home lighting problem. Make use of this helpful service now.
