BRISTOW — Boyd County Commissioner B. H. Kline, prominent Bristow resident, died unexpectedly about noon Saturday while he was driving his automobile home from a visit to the R. H. Johnson ranch in Holt county. Arthur Reed found Mr. Kline dead in the car about half a mile from the ranch. The car had left the road and had run into a fence. Doctors summoned stated that Mr. Kline had died instantly.

He had gone to the Johnson ranch south of the Spencer dam, Saturday morning.

Mr. Kline operated a meat market in Bristow many years, and later had a general merchandise, grocery and meat store here. Since his retirement he had been active in politics and Masonic lodge work. He was county commissioner representing Bristow and Morton precincts.
