

Knights Initiate 25 New Members

Twenty-five candidates were initiated into the Charles Carroll of Carrollton council 701, of the Knights of Columbus, in ceremonies here Sunday. The day began with corporate communion at St. Patrick's Catholic church. The initiation took place in the O'Neill public school auditorium in the afternoon.

Candidates were:
Fred R. Deermar, of Atkinson; George A. Janousek, of O'Neill; Leo J. O'Malley, of Chambers; Glen Cobb, of Stuart; George A. Miles, of O'Neill; Alvin Krysl, of Stuart.

John Vitt, of O'Neill; Martin L. Dierks, of Ewing; Martin J. Miksch, of Stuart; Raymond C. Wagman, of Atkinson; Joseph A. Kroat, of Stuart; Donald C. Kramer, of Atkinson; Charles E. Chace, of Atkinson.

Wilbur B. Miller, of O'Neill; Dale A. Kersenbrock, of O'Neill; Joseph A. Grutsch, of O'Neill; Eugene F. Kramer, of O'Neill; James D. Curran, of O'Neill; William W. Watson, of O'Neill. Thomas E. Abbenhaus, of Butte; John E. Troshynski, of Atkinson; Thomas W. Scholberg, of O'Neill; John H. Abbenhaus, of Butte; Andrew Schmidt, of O'Neill; Gerald J. Troshynski, of Atkinson.

A banquet in the evening was served to 200 persons, including the Knights, their ladies and other guests.

Principal speaker was Very Rev. Carl M. Reinert, S.J., president of Creighton university, Omaha. His topic: "Secularism in Education."

Father Reinert's talk, flavored with innumerable jokes and anecdotes, proved informative and entertaining. It was one of the finest talks heard here in recent years, a KC spokesman said.

The Legion auxiliary served the banquet. Matthew G. Beha was master-of-ceremonies. Very Rev. Timothy O'Sullivan, St. Patrick's church, offered invocation. Francis J. Gilg, grand knight of Charles Carroll council, issued the welcome followed by remarks from Cyril P. Shaughnessy, state deputy grand knight. Mrs. Joseph Hansen, the former Kathleen Flood, offered several soprano vocal selections, including "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling." New members were heard in their impressions of the day after which Father Reinert delivered his address. Father O'Sullivan offered the benediction.

The menu included tomato juice, lettuce and mayonnaise salad, oven brown potatoes, peas, relish plate, baked ham, rolls, butter, jelly, pumpkin pie and coffee.

Ensemble Pleases Large Crowds

A large crowd heard the New York Concert Ensemble in a program of semi-classical and classical music Monday evening at the O'Neill public school auditorium. The 5 artists, a bass-baritone, a soprano, an Oriental and a Spanish dancer, a violinist and a pianist, were brought to O'Neill by the Chamber of Commerce. There was an admission charge.

During the afternoon there was a matinee performance for school children. The Chamber has received many congratulatory messages from appreciative members of the audience.

Yantzi-Derickson Nuptials Monday

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Yantzi, of O'Neill, announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Nancy Lee Yantzi, to Samuel Derickson, son of William Derickson, of Star.

The marriage will take place at St. Patrick's Catholic church in O'Neill on Monday, October 22. The couple will entertain their friends at a wedding dance that evening at the American Legion auditorium.
