Betty Jo Weber Bride of Quintin L. Pojar

EWING—St. Peter de Alcantara's Catholic church at Ewing was the scene of a wedding Friday, October 19, at 9 a.m.

The bride was Betty Jo Weber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Weber, formerly of Ewing, now of Bentonville, Ark., and the bridegroom was Quintin Lawrence Pojar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pojar, formerly of Ewing, now of Neligh.

Rev. Peter Burke officiated at the double-ring ceremony and nuptial mass. The choir sang "Faith of Our Fathers," "Oh, Lord, I Am Not Worthy," and "On This Day" and Donna Mae Mlnarik sang "Ave Maria" at the offertory, accompanied by Mary Allys Dierks.

The bride's gown was of white satin trimmed with white sequins and she wore matching mitts. The gown had drop shoulders, a net yoke with a fitted bodice, and a short train. Her fingertip veil was caught by a brocaded tiara of satin trimmed with seed pearls. Her bouquet of red roses was tied with white streamers. Her double-strand of pearls was a gift of the bridegroom, from whom she also received a white prayer book and silver rosary.

Helen Pojar, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. She wore a gown of fuschia taffeta. Her headpiece was of yellow carnations embedded in net ruffles. She wore taffeta mitts to match her gown and carried a bouquet of yellow carnations with white satin streamers.

Jim Weber, brother of the bride, was bestman. Ushers were Jerry Tomjack and Joe Fiala, friends of the couple. The men wore white carnation boutonieres.

Patty Weber, sister of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a formal of yellow crinkle crepe and a headband of yellow roses. She carried a nosegay of yellow carnations. Stephen Pojar, brother of the bridegroom, was ring-bearer. The rings were carried on a white satin pillow with golden streamers.

The bride's mother wore a deep blue-gray dress and the bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue dress. They wore corsages of white carnations.

Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served at Stockman's cafe. The table was centered with a 3-tier cake baked by Mrs. Leo Weichman, cousin of the bride. The servers were Jackie Mosel, Patty Vandernick, Rosetta Boies and Bernadine Sanders.

A dinner for the immediate families was served at the home of the bridegroom's parents. It was followed by a reception which was attended by relatives and friends.

Dorothy Pojar, sister of the bridegroom, was in charge of the guestbook.

After a short wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Pojar will make their home on a ranch near Inman where the bridegroom has lived since last November.

Out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Karel, of Clark; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Winkler, of Emmet; Mr. and Mrs. John Shald, of Stuart; Mr. and Mrs. Al Iwan, of Spalding; Mrs. Leo Weichman and Rickie, of Stuart; Mr. and Mrs. Clem Cleary, of Atkinson, and John Nachman and son, George, of Chambers.
