Need for Meeting Places Stressed

A large crowd of Catholic ladies from nearby towns and from O'Neill convened here Tuesday, October 16, for a meeting of the O'Neill deanery.

Members of the clergy present were: Rev. John S. Juricek, of Omaha; Rev. Richard Parr, of Atkinson; Rev. Anthony Urbanski, of Emmet; Rev. Charles J. Knippen, of Butte; Rev. F. Wiczorek, of Ewing; Rev. Conrad J. Kaup, of Lynch; Rev. Peter F. Burke, of St. John's, south of Ewing, and Very Rev. T. O'Sullivan, of O'Neill.

Mrs. James Berigan, of Atkinson, deanery vice-president, presided. Reverend Kaup opened the meeting with prayer. Very Reverend O'Sullivan gave the welcome.

The deanery officers were introduced and reports of the parish activities were given by the following ladies:

Atkinson—Kathryn McShane; Butte—Mrs. Theo. Halbur; Emmet—Mrs. Joe Winkler; Ewing—Mrs. Clarence Shaw; Lynch—Mrs. Rose Paulski; O'Neill—Mrs. Leo Gokie; St. John's—Mrs. Clarence Shavlik.

Rev. John S. Juricek, archdiocesan spiritual director, spoke on Catholic youth organizations and the need for suitable meeting places for their activities and entertainment.

A report on organization and development was given by Mrs. Norman Folda, of Omaha, and a report on Catholic standards of entertainment was given by Mrs. J. C. Tighe, also of Omaha.

A musical entertainment was given by St. Mary's boys' choir, and a solo by Miss Mary Ellen Steele, accompanied by Miss Mary Lou Wilson.

The meeting closed with prayer and lunch was served. St. Patrick's Altar society was hostess.

Bernard Pongratz Surprised

Those who came with a birthday cake and many gifts to surprise Bernard Pongratz on his birthday anniversary Sunday, October 21, were:

Mrs. William Grutsch, Mr. and Mrs. John Grutsch and family, Mr. and Mrs. James McNulty and LaDonna, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lansworth and Joanne, Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Vequist and family and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Grutsch and boys.

The afternoon was spent playing canasta and visiting.

Former Teacher Visits

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Miller, of Niobrara, were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Sauer. Mr. Miller was superintendent of the public school in O'Neill several years ago.

Phyllis Carlson Weds Kenneth Pollock

EWING—Sunday, October 21, at the Christ Lutheran church at O'Neill, Miss Phyllis Carlson, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Richards, of Orchard, became the bride of Kenneth Pollock, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. David Pollock, of Ewing.

The double-ring ceremony was performed at 10:45 by the Rev. R. W. Olsen, pastor.

Their attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bussardt, of Neligh, brother-in-law and sister of the bridegroom.

The bride chose for her gown, a corded faille in chartreuse with black accessories. She wore a corsage of red roses. The groom wore a gray business suit with a carnation boutonniere.

The wedding party were served dinner at the Town House in O'Neill.

After a short honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Pollock will make their home in Ewing, where Mr. Pollock is employed at the Pollock service station.

Kenneth is a graduate of the Ewing high school with the class of 1950. Since then he has assisted his parents on their farm.

Phyllis is a member of the senior class in the Orchard high school and plans to continue her work to get her diploma, by Christmas if possible.

Ladies Triumph

A pitch party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Parker on Friday night, October 19, with Mr. and Mrs. Mark Schelkopf and Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Ross as guests. The men played against the ladies with the latter being the winners.

Feted in Surprise

Miss Lois Harder was surprised Friday evening when 8 young ladies came to help her celebrate her birthday anniversary. Mrs. Dwight Harder served a supper to the guests.
