WSCS Stages Annual Birthday Party

EWING—Twenty-two members of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Ewing Methodist church gathered at the church parlors Tuesday evening, October 23, for the annual birthday party. Activities began with the arrival of each member when they were given pencil and paper for a profile contest, the profiles of each member going on display.

At 6:30, the guests sat down to a covered dish dinner. Mrs. Benjamin Larson made the birthday cake, which was decorated in pink and white. A bouquet of bronze and white mums flanked with candles was used as centerpiece.

Mrs. R. G. Rokey had charge of the entertainment. Clever and interesting games provided an hour of fun after the dinner. Gifts were exchanged by drawing numbers which corresponded with a wrapped package. Mrs. William Spence had charge of the gift table.

Members who assisted in preparation of the party were Mrs. Leland Welke, Mrs. William Spence and Mrs. Jessie Angus.

Mrs. Ralph Eacker, Mrs. Jessie Angus and Mrs. Maden Funk attended an all-day meeting at Page of the Women's Christian Temperance society, which was held at the Methodist church.

O'Neill was also represented. The forenoon was devoted to business affairs followed by a covered dish luncheon at noon.

A program of musical numbers and a talk on temperance by the pastor of Page Methodist church, Rev. C. E. Wilcox, was enjoyed.
