Cattle Receipts Hit Seasonal High

There were around 2,000 head of cattle offered at the Thursday, October 25 sale at the O'Neill Livestock Market.

Steer calves ranged from $38.50 to $43.00; heifer calves were in demand from $34.00 to $37.50; yearling steers were being quoted from $32.00 to $35.00; yearling heifers from $30.00 to $32.00. Those canner and cutter cows, and there were quite a few of them, were moving from $20.00 on down to $17.00, and butcher cows got up as high as $25.

This goes down on record as the biggest sale thus far of the fall season.

There were about 600 head of hogs. Top butchers ranged from Governor Peterson ... no longer an open secret.

CAPITOL NEWS ...

Val Decides to Try for Senate

LINCOLN—Gov. Val Peterson on Wednesday confirmed what has been an open secret in Nebraska politics for many weeks; He is a candidate for the United States senate.

The stocky, mostly bald, graying chief executive will have for his opponent Sen. Hugh Butler, of Omaha, an announced candidate for a third term. Butler is 73; Peterson 48.

The campaign—which actually has been underway for some time—is expected to begin in earnest within a few weeks. The April 1 primary is only five months away and both camps are preparing for a rugged battle.

Peterson will likely need a lot of battle to unseat his firmly entrenched foe. The white-haired Butler controls the closest thing to an organization—outside the 2 parties—in Nebraska politics.

It cannot properly be called a machine, because it's doubtful it could deliver an election for anyone but Butler.

Butler's supporters point with genuine pride to his record in the senate. They maintain that he accurately reflects the thinking of a majority of Nebraskans.

From the governor's standpoint, the situation has improved in the past few weeks. His declination of the draft movement in the Third congressional district appears to have bolstered his stock. One earthy party regular puts it grudgingly: "He came out smelling like a rose."

Jitter-Calmer—

Nebraska's 5,300 holders of land leases were getting letters this week from the state board of educational lands and funds. The letter was intended to calm the jitters that arose following a recent supreme court decision requiring that all leases sold after 1947 be placed on the auction block.

The letter, over the signature of Board Secretary Henry Bartling, says: "The action of the board of educational lands and funds in conducting auctions of school land leases seems to be misunderstood by some Nebraskans. The board's action was taken as a result of the supreme court's decision declaring the 1947 automatic renewal law unconstitutional. Since the leases made subsequent to 1947 were granted in violation of the constitution, they never were legal documents; in fact, in the eyes of the law, they did not exist.

"Future contracts with the state have not been jeopardized. You will note that the 25-year leases which were in existence before the unconstitutional law was passed are still in force. The new leases now being drawn in accordance with the court decision likewise are valid.

"If inequities in this procedure result, it is something over which the board has no control or authority to adjust. This is regrettable, but under the circumstances, unavoidable."

That's not the way the letter was drafted, Governor Peterson, who has been fielding most of the brickbats tossed by irate leaseholders, wanted this instead of the last paragraph:

"Obviously many inequities are resulting because of the invalid leases. The board sincerely regrets any injustices but is powerless to take any other action. I am hopeful the next legislature can find a way to make adjustment of some of these inequities."

Atty.-Gen. C. S. Beck and State Superintendent of Schools Freeman Decker objected to the language proposed by the governor. Probably the most significant

5 Percenters—

Nineteen state agencies whose budgets are under the supervision of Governor Peterson, were told at a hush-hush meeting last week to trim 5 per cent off their spending during the current biennium.

"If they are successful—and it's doubtful whether they will be—it will mean a saving of $1,721,000. More than a million of this will be in the board of control agencies.

'Gov' Is Miffed—

The governor's office was miffed that the story leaked out. "We wanted to wait until it had been accomplished," one side said, "and besides, we knew we'd be accused of doing it for political gain."

The spokesman was right. The democratic Lincoln Star began its story: "Ambition of Gov. Val Peterson to serve in the U. S. senate may result in benefits to the taxpayers."

Homemakers Meet at Frickel Home—

Celia Homemakers extension club met at the Frickel Brothers home with their sister, Mrs. Beryl Beck, hostess on Thursday, October 25. Ten members were present, also 1 visitor, Mrs. George Syfie, jr. The lesson was presented by the leader, Mrs. Connie Frickel. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Hans Lauridsen Wednesday, November 14. A stork shower will be given Mrs. Milton McKathnie at that time.

Pfc. Potts Earns Combat Badge—

Pfc. Gerald D. Potts, of Chambers, has been awarded the combat infantryman badge, a symbol of close-quarter fighting with the enemy while serving with the 1st Cavalry division in Korea. The badge, consisting of a miniature replica of a Revolutionary war flintlock mounted on a blue background and superimposed on a silver wreath, distinguishes the actual fighting men from rear area and service troops.

Private Potts is a member of company D, 8th Cavalry regiment.

Mr. and Mrs. George McCarthy went to Omaha on Saturday.
