EASON HOME — AFTER SNOWFALL . . .

This modern residence, owned by Dr. and Mrs. C. M. Eason, 715 East Clay street, was snapped last week by The Frontier's photographer, John H. McCarville, after the season's first snowfall. The Eason home, built in 1948 by Phillip Sherman and L. M. Diehlman, recently was purchased by the Easons. It has 4 rooms, bath and full basement, faces north but also has an east entrance. A feature is the living room in the northwest corner with 3 walls painted brown and the 4th a brown and coral striped wallpaper. There is a brick flower bed to the left of the front entrance under the kitchen window.—
