240 Teeners Attend Sponsored Party

An estimated 240 teenagers from the O'Neill community Wednesday attended a special Halloween party-dance at the Legion club, sponsored by 4 organizations—Lions club, Chamber of Commerce, American Legion Auxiliary and Legion.

Entertainment consisted of costume contest, games, dancing and refreshments. Prizes, provided by business firms, were awarded to winners.

Chaperons were Joseph George, Paul Baker, Joel Lyman, Ray Eby, D. D. DeBolt, Mrs. Virgil Laursen and Mrs. A. W. Carroll.

Prizes were awarded as follows: Best couple—Waneta Anspach, Mavis Forsch, Barbara Hancock, first; Ronald Clausen, Bob Hynes, second.

Best boy—Don Doriohoo, first; John Bowen, second.

Best girl—Janet Strong, first; Sandra Harper, second.

Funniest boy—Alfred Meyers, first; DeWayne Boelter, second.

Funniest girl—Suzanne Moss, first; Lu Moss, second.

Bashful boy—Harold Strong first; Ray Dean Block, second.

Bashful girl—Berniece Kalhoff, first; Norman Lou Foreman, second.

Best dancers—Shirley Steele and Don Graham, first; Benny Fleming and Joan Ziska, second; Eddie Bridges and LaVone Thorin, third.

Door prizes went to Wilma McKim, Thomas Langan, Betty DeCamp, Agnes Langan, Regina Roggach, Windy McConnell, Ronnie Bazelman and James McKenny.

The affair was intended to distract the youths from traditional Halloween mischief. Leaders of the organizations sponsoring the event were convinced by the merriment and turnout that the party-dance had accomplished its purpose and the teeners were grateful for the entertainment.

Stage 1st Round Bowling Matches

On Monday, November 5, first games of the season were played in the O'Neill bowling league.

There are 8 teams in the league. These teams are sponsored by various establishments and individuals. These teams play each other and at the end of the season the team with the highest percentage of wins collects prizes.

The games are all bowled on point basis with points given for games and total high pins.

In Monday night's games, the Oldtimers led off with the Sparkplugs battling to an undecided decision due to the fact that some of the members were unable to be present.

The results of this game will be decided later.

Leading the Oldtimers was their captain, Archie Ashby. For the Sparkplugs, Ralph Lindberg showed the way with Wayne Schollmeyer and Leo Babutzke trailing. Lindberg had the high of 169 for the game.

In the second game, Dwayne Philbrick was the hero of the evening, plotting the downfall of the Bowlers Battlers. He is a member of the well rounded Sovereign Service Wildcats. Philbrick led with a 203 high and series average of 151, closely followed by Wally Shelhamer and Cash Arrasmith with Ray Worth and Ben Wetzler giving fine support.

Although the Wildcats were trailing at the end of the second game, they rallied and won, 3-1.

Captain Bob Barnes was high for the losers with Rich Hovey behind.

The next games will be tonight (Thursday).
