Holt County Board of Supervisors met as per adjournment. All members present.

Meeting called to order by the chairman.

Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved as read.

The Finance committee reported that all fees from the various county offices for the month of September had been remitted to the county treasurer as required by law.

Motion by Borg, seconded by Hubbard that the following Resolution be adopted.

RESOLUTION OF COUNTY BOARD APPROVING WITHDRAWAL OF SECURITIES

RESOLVED, that whereas the deposits of this county in Emmet State Bank, Emmet, Nebraska do not now exceed $ none, said bank is entitled to and is hereby permitted to withdraw the following securities held in escrow in THE UNITED STATES NATIONAL BANK OF OMAHA (trustee) to secure deposits of this county in said bank, to-wit:

$20,000.00 United States Treasury Bonds 2%

Nos. 42212/3 - 10 M each

Dated 9/15/43

Due 9/15/53-52

Int. 2% 3/15- 9/15

March 15, 1952 & SCA.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED,

that the County Treasurer is hereby instructed that the maximum amount of deposits to which said bank is entitled is thereby reduced and that the county deposits in said bank shall not exceed the sum of $ none until additional securities, approved by this board, have been deposited with said trustee as security for county deposits.

The foregoing resolution was moved by Borg and seconded by Hubbard, and on the roll call, the vote was as follows:

Ayes

Frank Cronk

Albert Sterns

Andy Clark

H. W. Hubbard

A. L. Borg

Alex Frickel

Nays: None

The chairman declared the resolution adopted.

This is to certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of the resolution duly adopted by the County Board of Holt County, Nebraska, at a regular meeting of said board held at O'Neill, Nebraska, on the 23rd day of October, 1951, at which a quorum was present as shown by the minutes of said meeting and that said resolution is now in full force and effect.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto subscribed and affixed my official seal this 24th day of October, 1951.

RUTH HOFFMAN,
County Clerk of Holt
County Nebraska
Seal, Holt County Nebraska.

Stuart School Plans Open-House

STUART—Members of the P-TA held a regular meeting Monday evening, November 5.

The program, under the direction of Mrs. Jane Cobb and following the theme "Americanism and Our Schools," follows:

Group singing by 3d, 4th, 5th and 6th grades.

"Our Schools Are the Foundation of Americanism," by Mrs. B. Mitchell; "What the Legion Auxiliary is Doing for Education," by Mrs. Norma Hall; "Taxes and Schools," by Mrs. Charles Moses; "Do We Appreciate Our Schools and Democracy?" by Supt. Kenneth Paul, and a summary of the program by Mrs. Dale Henderson, president of the P-TA.

In the business meeting Mrs. C. R. Myers was appointed news reporter to fill the vacancy left by the resignation of Mrs. M. M. Shattuck.

All parents were urged to attend open-house to be held at the public school on Thursday evening, November 15, 7:30 to 9 o'clock.

A lunch of cake and coffee was served by Mrs. Kenneth Paul and Mrs. Stanley Cobb.

Open house will be held in the IOF hall at Inman from 2 to 5 p.m.

4-H CLUBBERS DO BIG JOB . . . Each year over 23,000 Nebraska youths join with 2,000,000 other young people in the United States in becoming 4-H club members. Their achievements are many and large. In Nebraska, 4-H clubbers did their part by producing 8,889 swine, 29,138 chickens, 2,399 dairy cattle, 8,641 beef cattle, and 1,037 sheep. They also made 29,482 garments, preserved 109,046 pounds of food, served 204,293 meals, made 12,464 home furnishings, cultivated 2,076 acres of crops as 4-H projects, put 16,373 acres of land under soil conservation, planted 2,658 acres to trees and forests, and made 6,889 engineering articles.

Maxine Weichman a Bride at Stuart

STUART—St. Boniface Catholic church was the scene of the Monday morning, November 5, wedding of Miss Maxine Weichman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Max Weichman, of Stuart, and Harry Hood, son of Mrs. Onie Hood, of Butte.

Rev. A. J. Paschang performed the 9 o'clock ceremony. The bride wore a white lace trimmed nylon dress of ballerina length made with a sweetheart neckline. Her fingertip veil fell from a beaded tiara. She wore a white carnation corsage.

Mrs. Glen Cadwallader, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Her dress was of aqua taffeta of ballerina length and the bridesmaid, Miss Evelyn Weichman, also a sister of the bride, wore yellow nylon ballerina length dress with lace trimmed bodice. They each wore pink carnation corsages.

The groom wore a blue business suit and his attendants, bestman Glen Cadwallader and John Hood, wore light grey business suits. Each wore white carnation boutonnières.

Both of the mothers wore black with pink carnation corsages. The wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, also a dinner for 30 guests.

After a wedding trip to the Black Hills, the young couple will reside at Butte.

Mrs. Hood is a graduate of Stuart high school with the class of 1949. Mr. Hood attended school in Butte.

The couple entertained their friends with a dance at the Stuart auditorium Monday evening.

BUYS INTEREST
STUART—William L. Yost has become half-owner of the Stuart Advocate. Yost, a native of Colorado and a 1949 graduate of the University of Nebraska, has been editing the newspaper at Stuart since his graduation. His half-interest was purchased from Ralph J. Kelly. According to Mr. Yost, he has an option to buy the other half of the newspaper.

UPPED TO GENERAL
EWING—Col. Harold W. Bowman, who attended school at Ewing during 1920 and '21, has been promoted to brigadier-general by the U.S. air force. General Bowman is the son of Mrs. Zadie Bowman, of Vallejo, Calif., a former teacher at Ewing.

Ladies of the Methodist church will hold a rummage sale November 15, 16, 17. Location announced in next week's paper.

Eagles Tally First but Fade, 7-31

The Valentine Badgers defeated the O'Neill Eagles Friday night under the lights here in Carney park, 31-7.

O'Neill scored on the 3d play of the game. O'Neill kicked to Valentine; the visitors tried 2 passes, the second of which was intercepted by Laverne Devall, a guard. That ended O'Neill's scoring.

Valentine received, then worked the ball straight down 80 yards for a touchdown. From then on the visitors were clearly in command of the situation. Valentine led 18-7 at halftime.

A carload of Valentine high pep club girls figured in an auto spill enroute to O'Neill. They were in a car owned by Bill Jordan, of Valentine. The car hit a soft shoulder near Stuart and turned over. Seven girls were in the car and 3 of them were treated for minor injuries at Stuart Community hospital. The eager pepsters continued their trip to O'Neill and witnessed the O'Neill-Valentine game, several of them generously wrapped in bandages.

Cards Romp 58-8 Against Spalding

The St. Mary's academy Cardinals romped Friday afternoon, 58-8, in a 6-man grid game against Spalding academy. The game was played at Spalding.

Don Donohoe, brilliant St. Mary's back, racked up 4 touchdowns and firmly established himself as one of the top scorers in Nebraska 6-man circles. Jim Kelley accounted for 2 TD's. Tomlinson and Jerry Wanser, 1 each.

Visits Husband in VA Hospital—
Mrs. Mick Gallagher and Mrs. Fred Moore spent Wednesday, October 24, in Norfolk. They were accompanied by Mrs. Leo Mossman, who continued on to Lincoln, where she visited her husband, who is a patient at the Veterans hospital.

Huskers Fail in Homecoming Try

The University of Nebraska Cornhuskers, trying vainly for their first win of the season, lost to Kansas U., 7-27, Saturday in Memorial stadium, Lincoln.

Seven fumbles proved costly to the winless Huskers, a pair of which setup Jayhawk touchdowns. It was a better contest, however, than the score indicates. A strong northwest wind and 28-degree temperature hampered

Among those from Holt county in the stands were members of the O'Neill high school Eagles football team, accompanied by Marv Miller, Paul Baker, Joel Lyman and D. E. Seger.

Others from O'Neill were: Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Jaskowiak and daughter, Nyla, M. J. Golden, P. B. Harty, George Hammond, Thomas C. Harty, Cal Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Elgin Ray, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Chaney, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Panowicz.

From Atkinson: Mr. and Mrs. Darel Bright.

From Inman: Mr. and Mrs. Ira Watson.

From Lynch: Ronald Carson, Billy Speits, Douglas Butterfield, Kenneth Stewart, Gail and Gary Heiser, Lawrence Kalkowski, Ike McDonald, George Courtney, Sid Greene, Keith Stewart, Don Hoffman and Ronny Carson.

From Emmet: Don Kloppenborg.
