O'Neill Musicians Go to State Clinic

The Nebraska Music Educator's association will hold its annual convention at York today (Thursday), Friday and Saturday. Highlight of this convention is the state music clinic for representative high school musicians from all parts of Nebraska.

O'Neill music departments will be represented by 16 students. From O'Neill high will be Barbara Bennett and Don Hagensick, both will be members of the 150-piece clinic band. The clinic chorus will include Joellyn Backhaus, Duane Booth, John Bowen, Verle Ralya and Frances Reimer, all of ONS.

St. Mary's Academy will send Helen Harty as a bansman, and singing in the chorus will be James DeBaker, Thomas Donlin, Robert Hynes, Carolyn Lee, Bernard Mohr, Mary Kathryn Schmitz, Mary Ellen Steele and Donalden Vinton.
Sister M. Flores, St. Mary's vocal music instructor, and Charles B. Houser and James Bastian, music instructors in the public school, will accompany the group to York.

Don Lentz, director of the University of Nebraska bands, will have charge of the clinic band; George Howerton, dean of the school of music, Northwestern university, will direct the chorus; Gerhard Schroth, conductor of the St. Louis Philharmonic orchestra and civic chorus will be the guest conductor of the 1951 Nebraska clinic orchestra.

Music instructors also have an opportunity to participate in a program of "in service" training to run concurrently with clinic activities. Among other things, this includes an address by Hobart H. Sommers, assistant superintendent of Chicago schools, a reed instrument demonstration, and a discussion by Dr. George Howerton on choral literature and program building and a series of films covering street marching, baton technique and field maneuvering.

Laurence Haynes to Manage Club

Laurence Haynes, who was employed at Gambles here for several years prior to a recent transfer to Atlantic, Ia., has been signed to manage the American Legion club here, it was announced Thursday evening at the regular monthly Legion meeting. Announcement was made by Commander John Stiefbergen. The executive board had made the selection from 4 applications the preceding night.

Haynes succeeds Glea E. Wade, who was active in building the club and was Simonson post commander for 2 years. Wade currently is county commander. He has not announced future plans. Haynes begins November 26.

The Legion voted to again sponsor the boys' and girls' county government program in the county in cooperation with educators and other Legion posts. Simonson post sponsored an informal Sunday evening party commemorating Armistice day. Shortly after 11 a.m. the city fire siren sounded for 1 minute as customary.

4 Holt Countyans Among New Enlistees

St. James R. Lyons, of the army and air force recruiting station at O'Neill, reports the following recent voluntary enlistments from the O'Neill recruiting area:

For air force: Robert N. Holclaw, of O'Neill; Robert J. Mack, of Atkinson; Bernard O. Novacek, of Verdigris; Leonard J. Martin, of Oakdale; Louis H. Heithoff, of Elgin; Clarence J. Spencer; Elverson F. Cerns, of Atkinson; John W. Harte, of Inman; Gene B. Jillson, of Elgin; Harold H. Kallhoff, of Elgin.

These men went to Lackland air force base, San Antonio, Tex., for further processing, reassignment and training, Lyons said.

In view of the urgent need for manpower, the department of defense has planned a unified campaign—Share Service for Freedom—to recruit 72,000 women into the armed forces by next July.

There are many openings in each of the following fields: personnel and administration, medical, communications, supply, intelligence, finance, food service, information and education, photography, scientific services, and special services.

The minimum qualifications are 18 to 34 years of age, a high school graduate. Period of enlistment are 2-years for army and 3-years for air force.

Sergeant Lyons has categorically denied a news item in last week's Frontier in which selective service officials from 20 northeast Nebraska counties were told at a Norfolk meeting that drafting was cheaper than recruiting—$55 as compared to $584 per man.

Lyons says the contention does not consider duration of service and that recruiting is "more reasonable psychologically."

Takes Part in Broadcast

The name of John C. O'Neill, a sophomore at Creighton university and a member of the St. Mary's academy class of 1950, was published in the November 2 issue of the Creighton school paper, The Creightonian, as being one of the 24 members of the honorary society, the Creighton chamber of commerce.

Appointments to the chamber are made by the faculty on a basis of scholarship, activity, character and service to the commerce school and appointees must be in the top 3 in academic standing in their respective classes.

He also took part in a group discussion over KOCU, the university's radio station, on "Facts Forum," a non-profit discussion group not connected with any political party and having as its purpose the informing of the general public by way of discussion and informative literature.

This discussion was tape-recorded and sent to the home office of "Facts Forum" at Dallas, Tex., and was later announced as winner of second place in a nationwide contest.

Award for Fewest Worm Holes

The Golden Keys club met on Friday, November 9. The roll call was answered with the name of one of the states. At the next meeting it is to be answered with our favorite movie star.
Ronnie Murphy told a story about the show "Bedtime for Bonzo." Clark Gaughenbaugh is going to tell a story at the next meeting.

In a couple of weeks our teacher is going to give the awards for the fewest worm-holes in our apples.

Feed 'em better with LESS Feed!

These Jamesway flock feeders make it easy for the birds to get all the feed they want without wasting it. The tumbled sides are scientifically designed and built to save feed—as much as one bag in every five! And your birds get fresher feed because it can't lodge in corners and get old and stale.

Come in and let us show you why this line of feeders and other Jamesway poultry equipment is so popular with practical poultry raisers everywhere.
