Mobile X-Ray Will Visit Holt

Chest X-ray unit coming to Holt . . . "valuable service offered free."

Home Extension Clubs Sponsor Unit's Coming

The Holt county chest X-ray survey, its goal the free chest X-raying of every adult in the county, will begin in Stuart on Tuesday, December 18, it was announced this week by Dr. W. F. Finley, of O'Neill.

Endorsed by Holt county physicians as "an excellent health program," the Holt county X-ray survey will utilize the X-ray unit owned and operated by the state department of health, in giving free chest X-rays to all who wish them.

The X-ray schedule for the county follows

- Stuart: December 18, 19 and 20.
- Atkinson: January 2 p.m., 3, 4 and 5 a.m.
- O'Neill: January 8, 9, 10, 11 and 14 p.m.
- Chambers: January 16 and 17.
- Inman: January 19 a.m., and 21.
- Page: January 23 and 24.
- Ewing: January 28 p.m., 29 and 30.

"This should be one of the most important community enterprises that Holt county has sponsored in years," said Doctor Finley.

"This is not merely a tuberculosis survey—it is a chest X-ray survey. Where any abnormal condition in the chest is noted, including tuberculosis, cancer, heart disease or other conditions, the individual is referred to his or her personal physician for further observation."

"Any adult, including children of high school age, may receive this valuable X-ray service absolutely free if there is any suspicion of an abnormal chest condition. However, children of grade school age are welcome but the X-ray machine cannot be adjusted to take satisfactory films of younger children," Dr. Finley added.

Dr. E. A. Rogers, acting director of the tuberculosis control division, state department of health, recently revealed that more than 570,000 free chest X-rays have been taken in Nebraska since the X-ray unit. Of these, 97 out of each 100 have been found to be perfectly healthy. Christmas seal funds are used to mail letters to these people, telling them the good news.

O'Neill High Cage Prospects 'Fair'

Coach Paul Baker, O'Neill high cage mentor, this week describes basketball prospects in the Eagle camp as "fair" after having viewed his squad in a week of drilling.

"We're going to win some ball games all right," Baker said, "but it's too early for a new coach to appraise the capabilities of some of the boys."

Baker has 7 lettermen handed down by last year's coach, Howard Dean. They are Gary Buckmaster, 6-3 center; Don Calkins, guard; Junior Worth, guard; Dave Eby, forward; Don Godel, forward; Veldon Godel, forward, and George Kilcoin, forward.

Promising material includes Bob Carroll, Clifford Closson, Jack Hollenbeck and Russell Miner.

Opener will be the traditional game with St. Mary's academy—an intracity contest that usually fills the house. Date is Friday, December 7.

When Baker issued the initial call last week there were 33 candidates reporting. The squad since has been reduced to 25.

All home second team games will start promptly at 7 o'clock and the varsity game follows, tentatively at 8:15.

The schedule: December 7—St. Mary's. December 12—At Ainsworth. December 14—Bassett. December 20—Atkinson. January 4—At Neligh. January 11—At St. Joseph's (Atkinson).

The injury-riddled University of Nebraska Cornhuskers fared better than most experts expected Saturday, holding high-geared Oklahoma, 0-27, at Memorial stadium, Lincoln.

The Husker squad was dominated by freshmen and sophomores, particularly the offensive backfield. The Nebraska defensive unit was obliged to play most of the game and forced the powerful Sooners, last year's national champs, to punt 10 times.
