HELPS PROCESS TROOPS . . .

Cpl. Vernon H. Dahlberg, (above), son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Dahlberg, of Lynch, is a clerk-typist in Seoul, Korea, about 70 miles behind the front lines. He helps process the men on rotation. He arrived at Seoul last May. In September he was flown to Japan for a week of additional schooling. Corporal Dahlberg enlisted in the army in December, 1950, and took his basic training at Ft. Riley, Kans. On March 28, he came home for a 2-weeks' furlough. He then was sent to Camp Lawton Wash., where he embarked on a ship for Japan, later going to Korea. Some time ago he met an old schoolmate, Raymond Johnson, of Bristow. Corporal Dahlberg is a graduate of the Lynch high school.

Inman School Dismisses for Yule Recess —

INMAN—After the Inman school's annual Christmas program the night of December 20, Santa was the main attraction, especially to all the little folks. He gave candy to all members of the school and all small visitors. As usual many of the youngsters were tongue-tied at the sight of the wonderful old gentleman—none were too bashful, however, to accept the treats he offered though.

Christmas vacation will begin at Inman on December 21, at 3 p.m., and will extend to Wednesday, January 2.

Dr. W. J. Finley plans to spend Christmas with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Gowen Miller, at St. Paul, Minn.
