Lots of Hogs Coming Today

The managers of the O'Neill sale again are expecting a lot of hogs and feeder pigs. The market was off last week but hogs were selling 25c to 50c higher Monday at the terminal markets. So today's hog sale should be a good one, probably as many hogs as last Thursday, when 1,200 head were marketed here.

There are several loads of good steer calves consigned and there will be the usual run of butcher stock.
