Tangeman-Schmidt Nuptials Are Read

CHAMBERS—A very beautiful and impressive double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. C. D. Ankney at St. Paul's Lutheran church, Chambers, on Wednesday afternoon, December 26, at 2 o'clock when Miss Lylas Lenore Tangeman, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Tangeman, of Chambers, became the bride of Vernon Schmidt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Schmidt, of Ewing.

As Lela Corcoran played the nuptial music, the Misses Kay Eisenhauer and Neva Jarman marched up the aisle to light the candelabra on the altar, which was decorated with pink and white geraniums. Kay wore a pink floor length gown and Neva wore a yellow floorlength gown. Both candelighters wore white carnation corsages.

Mrs. Letha Cooke sang "Because" and "A Wedding Prayer." She was accompanied by Lela Corcoran at the organ.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a floorlength gown of white bridal satin. The tight fitted bodice came to a point at the waist and it was fashioned with a high net ruffle studded with rhinestones and seed pearls. The long sleeves came to a point over the hands.

Her double-tier fingertip veil of nylon, edged in valencia lace, fell in graceful folds from a tiara studded with rhinestones and seed pearls. The full skirt was fashioned with a panel front edged with lace and swept into an aisle wide train. She carried a bridal bouquet of pink roses and white mums.

Miss Doreen Tangeman, sister of the bride, was her only attendant. She was gowned in a green taffeta formal with a shoulder length veil and her corsage was a bouquet of mixed mums.

The bridegroom was attired in a medium blue business suit with a white carnation boutonniere. He was attended by Eldon Harley, a cousin of the bride, and friend of the bridegroom. He also wore a blue business suit with a white carnation boutonniere.

Mrs. Arthur Tangeman, mother of the bride, wore a blue suit with matching accessories.

Mrs. Martin Schmidt, mother of the bridegroom, chose a blue dress. Both mothers wore corsages of white carnations.

Navonne Schmidt, sister of the bridegroom, carried the rings on a white satin pillow trimmed in lace and which was made by the bride's mother. Navonne was dressed in a floorlength gown of dusty rose.

Ushers were Robert Koci, a friend of the bridegroom, and Lawrence Tangeman, brother of the bride. Both wore pink carnation boutonnieres.

Following the wedding ceremony, a reception was given in the church parlors for about 80 guests.

The bride's table was decorated with lighted tapers and bouquets of fern and sweet peas.

The 4-tier wedding cake was baked by the mother of the bridegroom and by the mother of the bride. The cake, decorated by Doreen and Lylas, was pink and white and topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom.

Refreshments of pink cake topped with white and pink frosting, pink and white ice cream and coffee were served.

Dianne Hoffman and Mrs. Lloyd Hilligas served the bridal party. Also assisting in the church parlors were Mrs. Darrel Gillette, Mrs. Glen Adams, Mrs. Steve Shavlik, Mrs. Kenneth Adams and Mrs. Charles Grimes.

Ruth Dankert, cousin of the bride, cut the wedding cake. Ada DeHart had charge of the guest book and Mrs. James Butts had charge of the gift table. Both the bride and bridegroom are graduates of the Chambers high school. The bride has been a school teacher since she graduated. At present she is teaching the Lone Tree district. Vernon has been engaged in farming with his father since he completed high school.

Following the reception, the couple left for a short wedding trip.

For going away, the bride chose a tan suit with matching accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Schmidt will make their home on his father's farm in the Martha community.

Out-of-town guests were: Mrs. Herbert Nielsen, Delores and Kay, of Inman; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Minnebroker and family, of Clearwater; Mrs. Henry Bockman and daughters, of Lincoln; Mrs. Horn and son, of Lincoln; Mr. and Mrs. Erwin Minnebroker and family, of Neligh; Miss Corrine Joseph, of Valentine, and Pvt. Larry Tangeman, of Ft. Riley.

Mary Ellen Smith a December Bride

The marriage of Miss Mary Ellen Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Smith, of O'Neill, to Pvt. Robert E. Helgesen, son of Mrs. Edith Mae Helgesen, of Denver, Colo., was solemnized at 1:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon, December 29, at St. Patrick's Catholic church in O'Neill.

Very Rev. Timothy O'Sullivan performed the ceremony before an altar decorated with poinsettias and Christmas greenery. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sausser, of O'Neill, were their only attendants. Refreshments were served at the bride's home immediately following the ceremony for the members of the wedding party and a few close friends.

The couple left for Sioux Falls, S.D., for a wedding trip before the bridegroom returns to Ft. Riley, Kans., where he is stationed.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Frontier, O'Neill

Dear Sir:

Please find enclosed check and renew our subscription. We are very happy here in our new home. Bob is feeling pretty good since he got home from the hospital.

We have had several small snows but it hasn't been too cold yet—about 15 above.

We hear you are having lots of snow and cold in Nebraska. We hope it doesn't get too bad.

Yours truly,
MR. AND MRS. ROBERT SAMPLE.

Dear Sir: Just a note to let you know we enjoy your broadcast, especially telling when the west-bound Chicago & North Western train arrives, so we can tell about what time to go after the mail. Thanks again.

LEON BECKWITH,
Emmet, Nebr.

WE BEG YOUR PARDON
In an item appearing in the December 27 issue of The Frontier concerning a Christmas party it was stated that Jerry and Bonnie Schmidt, who were among the guests, were from Fremont. This was erroneous. Jerry and Bonnie Schmidt are from O'Neill.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Mlinar and Mrs. Robert Leder and sons, Lee and Kenneth, of Atkinson, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Sausser were Sunday afternoon callers at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Smith and family.
