

The Frontier Woman — O'Neill Family Now Has Twice as Many to Sew and Wash For — Thanks to Santa

By BLANCHE SPANN PEASE

Now is a pretty good time to resolve to save on the food budget. Dried fruits are cheaper than fresh or canned and can be used to supplement the meals and save the pennies. If your canned foods stores are showing depleted spots, this is a pretty good time of the year to buy dried prunes, dried peaches and apricots and to can them. The press of work is not so heavy at this season and you'll have the time to put up quite a few pints of each of these fruits and they do taste good, now and then, as a change from other deserts, canned fruits and the fresh.

If the jam, jelly and butter store is running low, dried fruits can be made into extremely delicious jams and butters, so you may want to make up some of those, too. So when you do your shopping, don't overlook the dried fruits at this season of the year. And be sure that you cook them properly. I usually buy the dried fruits that are packed ready for use in pasteboard cartons. They are higher but there is not any waste at all, and they are ready even for eating raw, and need not be looked over or washed. If you buy them in the bulk, be sure to wash them thoroughly. Good buys may often be had in the bulk in the type packed in cellophane if you look over the product carefully before buying it.

Baked macaroni with egg is a good, sunny main dish to serve this time of year. You can make it in individual baking dishes and serve it with buttered toast and a fruit cup dessert.

BAKED MACARONI WITH EGG

Six ounces elbow macaroni, 1 cup grated American cheese, 1 cup milk, 1 teaspoon salt, dash pepper, 4 eggs, salt and pepper. Cook macaroni in boiling salted water until tender (about 8 minutes). Drain and rinse. Add cheese. Combine milk, salt and pepper. Arrange macaroni in individual baking dishes. With a spoon, make a hollow in center of macaroni. Pour 1/4 cup milk mixture on each serving of macaroni. Bake in moderate oven of 350 F. for 15 minutes. Remove from oven and break an egg into each hollow. Return to oven and bake 10 minutes. Season with salt and pepper. This will serve 4.

It is quite economical.

Dear Frontier Woman:

Another Christmas has come and gone but in our hearts will linger cherished memories of gay moments and expressions, such as small daughter's surprise and bewilderment as she gazed in awe on Christmas morning at the big doll Santa had left her—one only a couple of inches smaller than her little sister. And then baby's delighted cries as she hugged her smaller (but just as nice) dolly. Of course, this all means that now we have just twice as many little ones to dress and undress each day, to sew for and wash and iron for. But we wouldn't have it any other way. I took a number of flash bulb pictures during the day and so I am just praying we'll have some good proof of our

Anyway we were thankful that it was possible for all the family to be together again. That is what really makes Christmas complete.

I have a very delicious apple goody recipe which I want to send along to you readers. Everyone likes it:

APPLE GOODY

Mix and pat in pan 3 or 4 large sliced apples, 1 cup sugar, pinch of salt, and 1 rounded tablespoon flour. Then crumb together 3/4 cup flour, 3/4 cup brown sugar, 1/4 teaspoon soda, 1/4 teaspoon baking powder, and a good 1/3 cup melted butter. Pat over apple mixture and bake in a moderate oven for 30 to 40 minutes.

Even though the Christmas holiday is over you might try this never fail fudge any time.

NEVER FAIL FUDGE

Four tablespoons cocoa, 2 cups sugar, 2/3 cup milk, 1 tablespoon syrup, 2 tablespoons butter, 1 teaspoon vanilla and 2/3 cup nuts. Mix cocoa and sugar until smooth, add syrup and milk gradually and smoothly, bring to a boil and stir only to keep from sticking. Cook to 230 F. or until it forms a soft ball in cold water. Remove and add butter. Don't stir. Place in cold water and when lukewarm, add vanilla and nuts and beat until thick and smooth. Pour into a buttered pan. Makes 18 pieces.

Ewingites Back from 5,000 Mile Trip

EWING—Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Angus and son, Max, returned home on Wednesday, January 9, from a 6-weeks sightseeing tour of the western and southwestern states, covering over 5,000 miles.

On New Year's day they were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Eppenhach and family, at Venice, Calif. The game at the Rose bowl and Rose parade were enjoyed.

Enroute home they spent 3 days at Phoenix, Ariz. They visited Mrs. Belle Barnhardt and son, Ross, and Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Barnhardt. They report Mrs. Barnhardt's health "much improved." Ross, who is a veteran of World War II and while in Nebraska spent much of his time in Veterans hospitals, is attending a business college in Phoenix. Lyle is engaged as mechanic in defense work.

Ewing is the old home town to the Barnhardt family and Calvin Eppenhach.

Other Ewing News

Scorewinners were Mrs. Maud Brion and Mrs. Earl Billings. After the games the hostess numbered the tally cards according to score, and the guests and members were surprised when they found a gift package with a corresponding number. Refreshments were served by the hostess.

Mrs. John Wunner, Mrs. Earl Billings and Mrs. John Archer were guests at the home of Mrs. Grace Briggs Friday evening. The ladies played canasta.
