Fancy Ropers Witness TV for Recreation

The Fancy Ropers 4-H club met January 12 at the L. D. Putnam home for the purpose of organizing for this year.

Election of officers was held at the beginning of the meeting. Rose Mary Corkle was elected president; Russel Miner, vice-president; Sharon Miner, secretary-treasurer; Jimmy Corkle and Billy Putnam, scrap book keepers, and Danny Putnam, news reporter. Mrs. Lois Miner and L. D. Putnam were again elected leader and assistant leader.

Each member chose his project for the year. Mrs. Miner gave instructions on the handling of these projects and instructive discussions followed. There will be more of these discussions at the next meeting, which will be held February 16 at the James Corkle home.

Russel Miner and Alfred Myer each received a letter and check from the Ak-Sar-Ben for their 4-H demonstrations at the Holt county fair in 1951. Russel's check was for $10 and Alfred's $1.

Mrs. Miner departed early Wednesday, January 23 for Lincoln where she will attend a 4-H leader training meeting. Mrs. Miner will bring back valuable information which will help us to be better 4-H club members.

For entertainment we watched television. Mrs. Putnam served lunch at the close of the meeting.—Danny Putnam, news reporter.

They are John Sicheneder and Don Rzesotarski. All other members are welcome to attend.

An executive meeting was held Wednesday evening, January 16, at the courthouse to plan year-books.

Our special meeting this month will be a party at Grant and Clara Peacock's home, January 25.

Our next meeting is February 8 and plans were made to visit the O'Neill hospital.

After the business meeting 2 films were shown on soil conservation and wild life.

Later in the evening a lunch of cookies, ice cream bars and pop were served by Helen Martens. Visitors were Jean Johnson, of Elsmere; Ruby Kloppenborg, of Wortman; of Emmet, and Don Engel, of O'Neill.—By Bernice Proehl, reporter.

Mrs. Anna Magdanz Burial at Pierce

Mrs. Anna Magdanz, 88, died at the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Soost, of Bloomfield. She suffered a stroke a week before her death and never regained consciousness.

Funeral services were held on Friday, January 11, at the Ernest Magdanz home in Pierce at 1 p.m. and at St. John's Lutheran church at 1:30 p.m. with Rev. A. H. Krueger and Rev. H. M. Hilpert officiating.

Ann Mathilda Magdanz was born March 27, 1863, in Pommern, Germany, the daughter of Ludwig and Bertha Lierman. At the age of 3, her parents came to this country, going first to Wisconsin. Two years later they came in a covered wagon drawn by oxen to Norfolk. She attended school and was confirmed at Christ Lutheran church.

On September 6, 1886, she was united in marriage to H. F. Magdanz at Hadar.

On July 28, 1934, Mr. Magdanz passed away. She continued to live in her home in Pierce about 9 years when she sold the home and went to live with her children, spending most of her time with her daughter, Mrs. Emil Weyhrich, at O'Neill.

Survivors include: 6 sons, 3 daughters, 19 grandchildren, 25 great-grandchildren, and 3 great-great-grandchildren.

She was a lifelong member of St. John's Lutheran church at Pierce.

Registered Herefords Average $515 Each

Fifteen registered Hereford bulls, consigned by Don DeVoss, of Cantril, Ia., averaged $515 each at the Thursday, January 17 sale held at the O'Neill Livestock Market. This marks the second consecutive year that DeVoss has consigned registered cattle to the O'Neill market.

He said he considered the prices received "very good."

There were around 800 head of butcher hogs and they were topping from 17c to 17 1/4c. Top sows were quoted from 14c to 15c; feeder pigs sold in about every price range, from 22 1/2c on down to 16c.

Cattle receipts were around 300 head. Steer calves hit a peak of $36.10 and they sold on down to $33.00. Heifer calves were ranging from $34.00 down to $30.00. Some light yearling steers were in demand at $34.50; fat cows were quoted from $23.00 to $25.00; cutter cows were ranging from $19.00 to $22.00, and canners were on down to $16.00.
