

Gunters Feted on Silver Anniversary

EWING—On Sunday, January 27, in the annex of the United Presbyterian church in Ewing, the congregation, relatives, neighbors and friends joined in honoring Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Gunter on their silver wedding anniversary.

At noon a basket lunch was spread. After the blessing by Wilbur Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Gunter and family were seated at the guest table. The table with 2 decorated wedding cakes and candles was the center of attraction. They were made by Mrs. Alvin Nelson and Mrs. George Montgomery. Mrs. Nelson also cut and served the cakes assisted by Jimmy Nelson and Russell Napier.

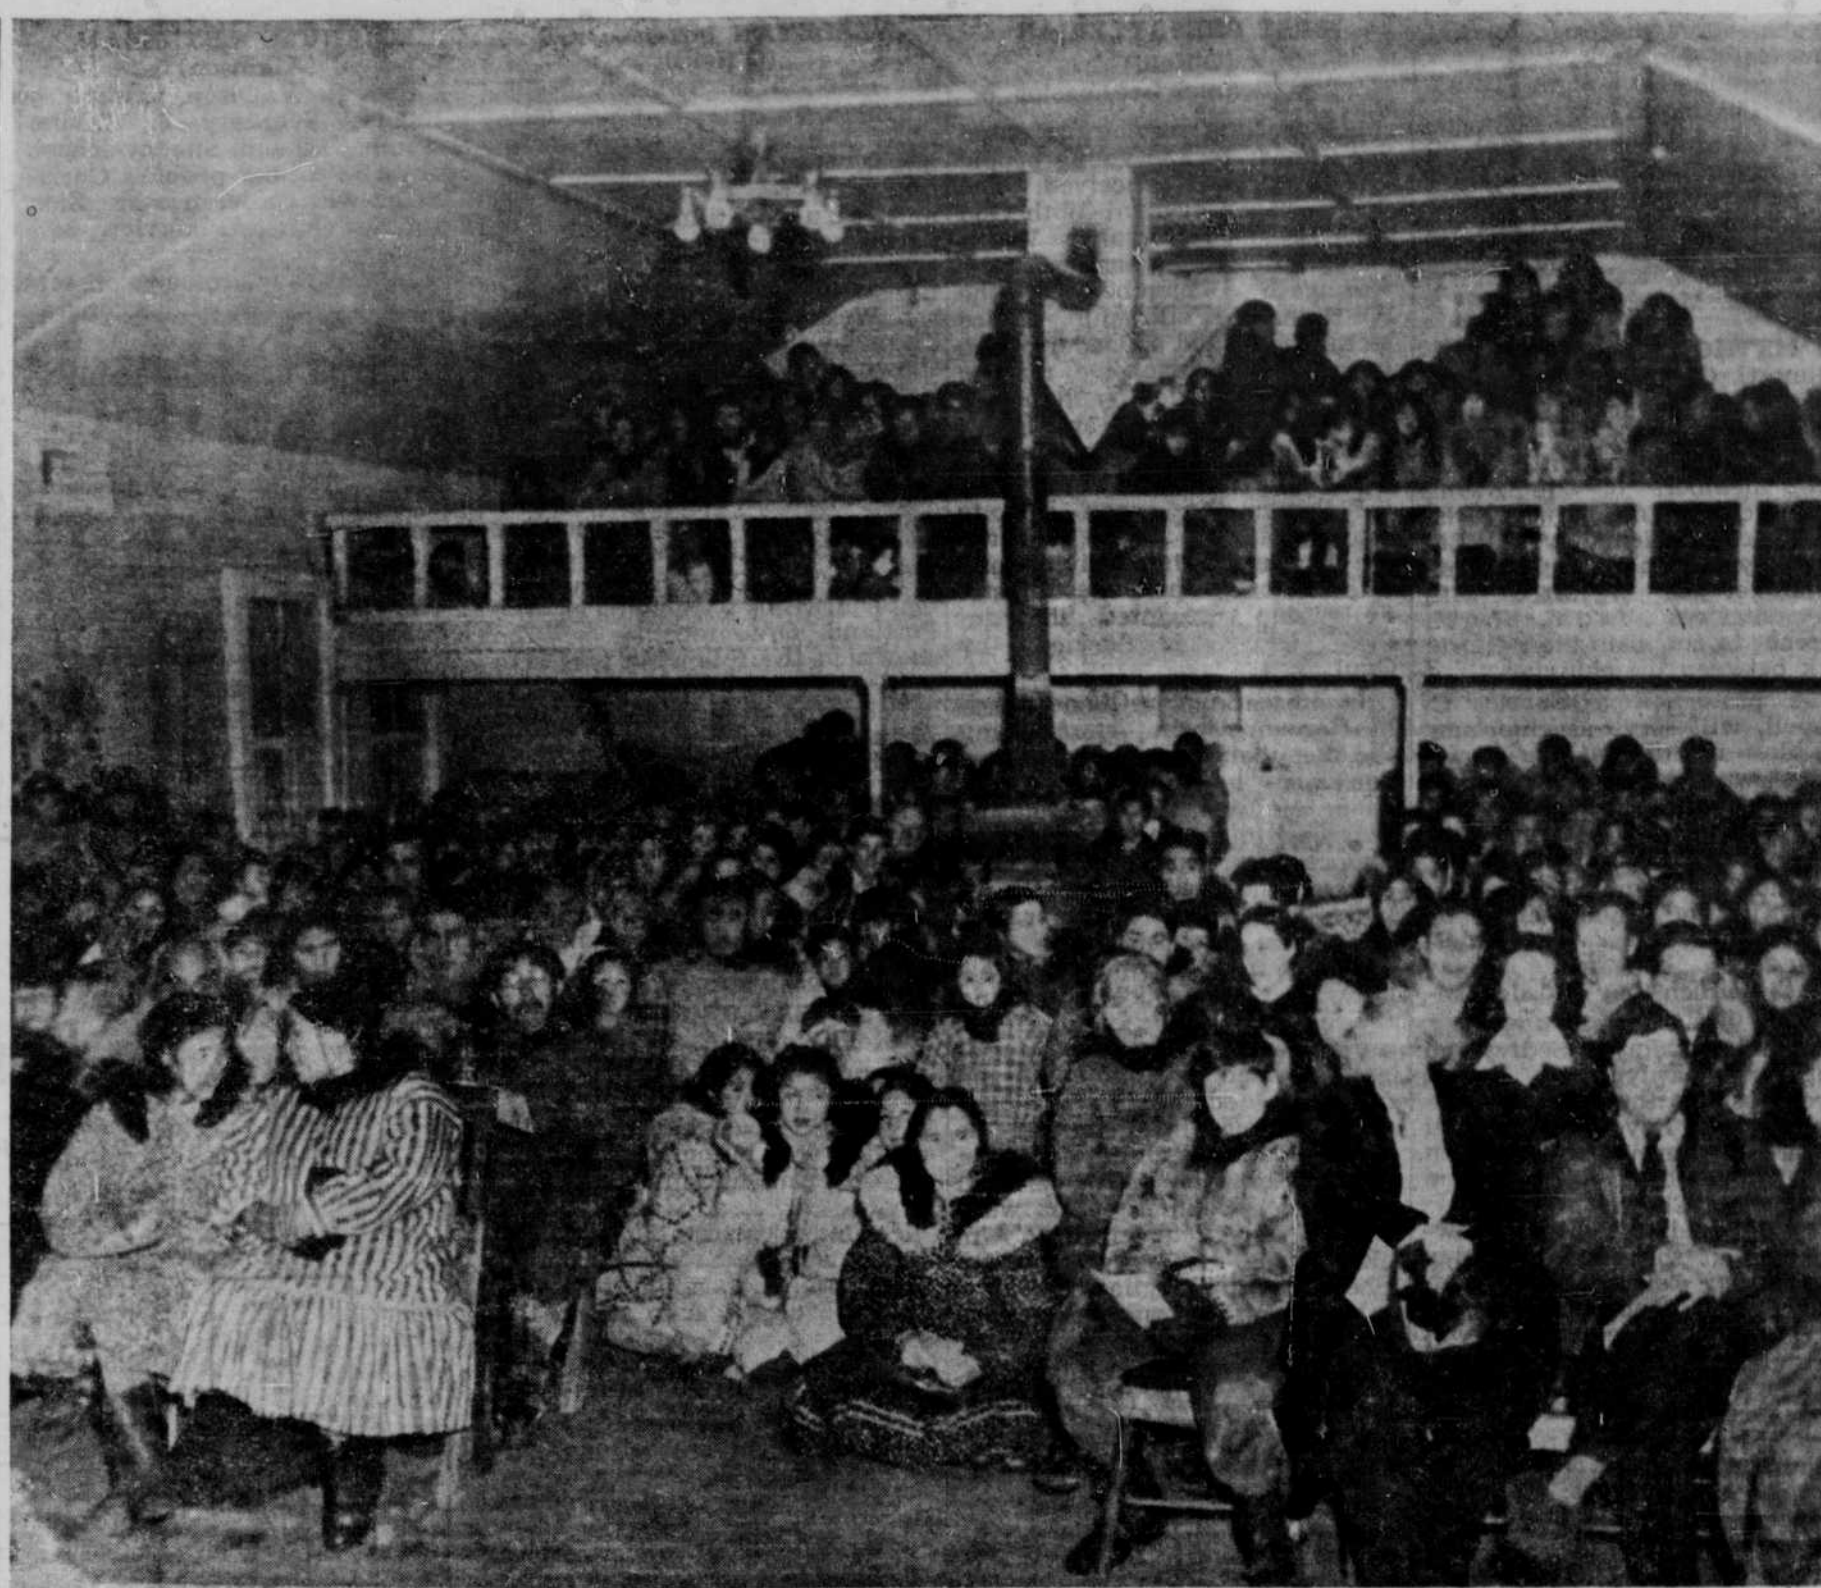

After dinner a program was given for entertainment. Willie Schrader was master of ceremonies. "Happy Anniversary" was the first number, accompanied by Archie Johnston on his accordion. This was followed by 2 accordion solos by Mr. Johnston. Bob Meador sang a solo accompanied by the Beverly brothers. A solo, "Forever and Ever," was sung by Harold Bennett, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Wilbur Bennett. The last number on the program was a radio stunt.

The couple was presented with gifts, one being a 12-piece setting of silver, a gift from their son, Alton, a marine stationed in Korea. On opening other gifts and cards silver dollars were found here and there.

Mrs. Gunter wore a corsage of roses and Mr. Gunter had a rose boutonniere, both gifts from their children. Mrs. Lyle Switzer and Mrs. Elmer Cary had charge of the guest book.

The out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Havranek and Mrs. Dorothy Barrett were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fuhrer at Chambers. In the evening they took Mrs. Barrett to her home in Atkinson and visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Havranek.

Mr. and Mrs. Jess Dobrovolsky, of Atkinson, were Saturday evening supper guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Hall.

The native Eskimos were overwhelmed when they heard the new Hammond organ, which Reverend Lee procured for the Barrow, Alaska, Presbyterian mission. A potbellied stove in the middle of the frame building was luxury heat for the natives. Reverend Lee now is pastor of First Presbyterian church at O'Neill and also serves several nearby rural parishes.

Sam and Sally, Roller Canaries, Become Personalities to This Correspondent

By MAUDE SILVERSTRAND
Special Correspondent

ATKINSON—Well, it has happened. Sam and Sally have quadruplets. They were born about a week ago along with 2 other baby birds. The nest was so crowded with 6 hungry little fellows that

2 of them were smothered. Sam and Sally are the first pair of roller canaries in the large flock belonging to Mrs. Art Andrus to have their family this year. The raising of these beautiful singers has been a hobby of Mrs. Andrus for the past 30 years or more.

I never realized how interesting a hobby of this sort could be until I became personally acquainted with Sam and Sally and their neighbors. They all have names. Mrs. Andrus said that the first pair was purchased with pennies saved by herself and her son who was a very small boy at that time. They bought the birds of the late Mrs. Phoebe LeMunyon, mother of Frank LeMunyon. As she watched her son's and his cousin's interest grow she became interested herself and since that time the number of pairs has grown until at one time she sold as many as 30 birds in one season. That particular year most of the birds went to a firm in New York.

Did you know that at 2 weeks the little birds are fully feathered and that at 3 weeks they are beginning to warble with at least some indication of their future ability?

Did you know that when Sally gets tired of sitting on the nest and gets off for a bit of swinging and walking that Sam immediately takes over and keeps the eggs warm until she decides to come back?

I supposed that all birds, both wild and domestic, have the same characteristics but somehow when you watch them go through the cycle of raising a family under your supervision they develop personalities—almost human. I think Mrs. Andrus has chosen a hobby that is extremely interesting as well as profitable. Her feathered musicians have brought much joy to young and old alike.

Photo in Last Issue Wrongly Identified

Through an error in identification The Frontier in the January 24 issue wrongly identified Mrs. Clarence Farr, of Emmet, who died suddenly, January 8. The picture that was labeled Mrs. Farr was in error. Her photograph appears at left.

Funeral services were conducted Saturday, January 12. The late Mrs. Farr spent many years in the Emmet locality. Her husband last week moved to O'Neill where he will be in the produce buying business.

Visit Courtneys—Mr. and Mrs. Earl Eppenbaugh and Mrs. Elsa Eppenbaugh were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Courtney.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schmidt and Mrs. Loda Janousek spent Friday, January 25, in Columbus and Norfolk.

Joe Sobotka, jr., of Ansley, was in O'Neill to attend the funeral rites of his aunt, Mrs. John Sobotka.
