

Ainsworth, Page Spank Cardinals

The St. Mary's academy Cardinals battled 4 distinct foes during the past 7 days. They were: Ol' Man Flu, Ainsworth Bulldogs, Page Eagles and St. Boniface, of Elgin.

Ainsworth copped a thriller, 31-25; Page flashed a superior attack and won, 42-33; the Cards walked St. Bon, 66-33, and the battle with the Ol' Man still goes on.

Several of the Scarlet will be on the sidelines tonight (Thursday) when the Cards play Spalding academy, at Spalding.

Ainsworth 31; St. Mary's 25

The St. Mary's Cards minus the services of 2 key performers, had a long evening Wednesday, February 14, against the Ainsworth Bulldogs. But the underdog Scarlet held down the visitors' scoring artists and Ainsworth had to be content with a 31-25 decision. The game was played at O'Neill.

Forwards Jerry Wanser and Don Becker were on the shelf with the flu, and Big Bernie Mohr, usually a producer of about 18 or 20 points, was held at bay by rugged Ainsworth defenders.

Ainsworth led all the way: 11-6 at the quarter, 18-14 at the half, and 25-23 at the end of the 3d. Scoring was well distributed for both clubs.

The Ainsworth Bullpups won a prelin, 32-15. Boxscore of main event:

St. Mary's 66; St. Bon. 33

The Kersenbrock kids celebrated the return to the fold of both Wanser and Becker with a rousing 66-33, triumph over St. Boniface, of Elgin, on public school court here Monday night. Two others, however, were on the sidelines, Bob Hynes and Jim Cronk.

From the outset it was obvious the Elgin parochials were playing in class. St. Mary's led 18-3 at the end of the first stanza and 30-16 at halftime—even though Kersenbrock's shock-troops already had seen lots of action.

Big Bernie Mohr rolled in 22 points in something like 12 minutes of play. Don Becker poured in 6 fielders in the 2d half.

St. Mary's reserves whipped the St. Bon seconds, 29-7, in the first half of the twin bill.

Page Hits Inman in 38-29 Thriller

INMAN—Inman high's round ball team was again beaten by a good Page team on the latter's court Friday night. The game was close most of the way with both teams playing good defensive ball.

Page led by 7 points at the end of the first period, 12-5. The Eagles increased their lead by 4 points at the half but were being pressed by only a 7 point lead at the end of the third quarter, 26-19. Each time a threatening spurt was forthcoming from Inman, however, the Page boys were equal to the occasion, and finally they were the victors by a score of 38-29.

12 Teams Entered in Class D Meet

INMAN—At a meeting of the coaches and superintendents of the participating schools held in Brunswick Saturday, February 9, the pairings were made for the Brunswick class D basketball tournament. There will be 12 teams in the tournament.

Clearwater, Oakdale, St. Francis (Randolph) and Brunswick were seeded. Others in the tournament are: Royal, Verdel, Mag-net, St. Ludgers (Creighton), Lynch, Center and Inman. In-night, February 25, and should night, February 25, and should they pass over Royal, they will meet St. Francis of Randolph on Tuesday.

There will be 4 games on Monday and Tuesday, February 25 and 26, 2 games on Wednesday, and 2 games on Friday. There will be no scheduled games on Thursday night so that all teams that remain in the tournament for the finals and semi-finals will be able to get a night of rest.
