Mrs. Minton Wins Aux Rag Contest

A regular March meeting of the American Legion auxiliary, of Simonson unit 93, was held in the club auditorium on Wednesday evening, March 5, with the president, Mrs. Axel Borg, presiding.

A report from the heart fund committee was given with the amount of $20.43 received so far. It was voted to sponsor a girl for girls' state. Mrs. Donald Enright and Mrs. Virgil Laursen are the committee appointed to take care of this matter.

Both the public school and St. Mary's academy are participating in the "Americanism" contest sponsored by the auxiliary.

We voted to have two Pan-American films to be shown at the next meeting.

Rice Shelton, of Stuart, was here and typed blood for those who desired.

UMT was discussed and a letter on this was read urging everyone to write their congressman and senators your ideas.

Mrs. Melvin Ruzicka, who is rehabilitation chairman, gave a compact with the auxiliary emblem on it to Mrs. Dick Minton, who sewed the heaviest ball of carpet rags. Mrs. Bert Winchell was second. Several others also brought balls of rags.

The unit recently purchased a new nylon American flag and a unit flag and these were dedicated. The dedication was made by President Borg. The color bearers and guard were Mrs. Palmer Skulbarstad, Mrs. Lawrence Haynes, Mrs. Virgil Laursen and Mrs. Francis Murphy. Some of the older members saw the old flags retired with a little regret as they were made by the first unit president, Edith Davidson.

The auxiliary unit was formed in February, 1942, with Edith Davidson as president, and Mrs. Borg as vice-president. In July, 1944, Mrs. Borg presented the unit with the flags which she herself had made.

Two films in color were shown after the meeting by John McCarville. These films "America, the Beautiful" and "The Power Behind the Nation" were very interesting. They were furnished by the national security program.

Lunch was served by the following committee: Mrs. Bert Winchell, Mrs. Dorothy Socha, Mrs. O. Ross, Mrs. Charles Abart, Mrs. Susan Kubichek, Mrs. Keith Abart, Mrs. Ira Moss and Mrs. Loretta Hynes.

The next meeting will be on April 2.

Program for P-TA Meet T-D
The P-TA will meet Monday evening, March 17, at 8 p.m., in the public school band room. Election of officers will be held.

Supt. D. E. Nelson will be the speaker. A musical program will consist of several vocal numbers, "Dan Boone," "The Miller," "Lullaby" and "Piper of Hammond" by the fifth graders with James Bastian conducting. A quartette composed of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Johnson, Mr. W. Johnson and Mrs. Don Loy will sing, "On the Jerico Road," by D. S. McCrossan, and "Stars of the Summer Night," by Woodbury.

Refreshments will be served by the fifth and eighth grade mothers.

Club in Session
The Contract club met Wednesday afternoon with a 1 o'clock luncheon at the M&M cafe. Cards were played at the home of Mrs. C. E. Lundgren following the luncheon.

3 from Holt at Recreational Meet

The Great Plains Recreation leaders' laboratory held from Sunday, March 2, to Saturday, March 8, at Nysted was attended by three rural youth members of Holt county.

Those attending the Nysted folk school were: Barbara Trowbridge, of Page; Bob Martens, of Atkinson, and Elsie Peter, of O'Neill.

Many interesting and new ideas of craft and recreation were taught. All those attending had opportunity to participate in the following craft and recreation work, taught by well-known state and national leaders: Jane Farwell, of Dodgeville, Wis. Folk and square dancing; Kennic Anderson, of Dalton, photography; Mary L. Scott, of Scottsbluff, lamp shades, basketry, textile and silk screening; Mary Frances Bunning, of Colorado Springs, Colo., leather crafts and wood painting; Bill Bunning, of Colorado Springs, Colo., silver-smithing; Howard Tanner, of Vauhin, Wis., handicraft; Jane Farwell and Mary Bunning, candle making.

A different party was planned for each evening by those who volunteered to participate, and also a ceremony was planned the same way.

Two members, Elsie Peter and Bob Martens, attended the lab last year.

Terry Schaaf Treats Classmates
The Golden Key club met on Friday, March 7. Jerry Schaaf called the meeting to order. The secretary, Linda Serck, issued roll call, which was answered by our favorite month.

Next week we will answer it with our favorite car.

Judy Mlinar was absent from the meeting Friday.

Ronald Murphy will start the bird feeding table next week.

The girls are sewing towels. Art Willis gave a report on the book, "Thirsty Pony." Bobby Perry will give a report on a book next week.

On Friday, Jerry Schaaf treated the school to ice cream bars in honor of his 12th birthday anniversary.—By Ronald Murphy, reporter.

Teacher and Former Business Partner Dies
E. F. Sullivan received word Wednesday, March 5, that his brother, W. B. Sullivan, of Ft. Dodge, Ia., had died suddenly of a heart attack. The Sullivans and daughter, Patty Anne, went to Ft. Dodge on Thursday to attend the funeral rites, which were held Saturday, March 8, at Ft. Dodge.

W. B. Sullivan operated a garage in Ft. Dodge for 30 years, and at one time was associated with E. F. Sullivan in the business.

Survivors include the widow, two daughters and one son.

Religious Daughters the Next Month
Officers of the Nebraska Catholic Daughters of America announced in Norfolk following a Sunday meeting that the group's state convention will be held at Neill April 26 and 27.

State officers present at Norfolk for the pre-convention meeting included: Mrs. Laura Bruening, of Hartington, state regent; Ms. Loretta Burke, of Columbus, secretary; Miss Mary Moskewinski, of York, treasurer; Mrs. Zora Wens, of Norfolk, minoror.

J. W. Ressel, Wife Married 61 Years
Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ressel quietly observed their 61st wedding anniversary in a family dinner Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Ressel. Others present were Mr. and Mrs. Senesney and Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Ressel, all of Plainview.

Martez Meets
The Martez club met at the home of Mrs. M. J. Golden on Tuesday evening, March 11. A 7 o'clock dinner was held at the M & M cafe before bridge was played at the home of Mrs. Golden. Winners were Mrs. Allan Jaskowiak and Mrs. M. J. Golden.

Flowers Discussed
The Woman's club met Tuesday evening at the American Legion lounge. Mr. Rowden, of a Norfolk floral firm, discussed "Flower Arrangement." He brought flowers with him for the demonstration.

98 Attend Youth Rally in Atkinson

ATKINSON—A group of 98 registered at the Presbyterian church Sunday, March 9, for a youth rally. It was estimated that there were at least 25 more guests who did not register, making a total of 123 present. Hosts for the day and the 6 o'clock supper at the church were the young people of the local group of which Miss Kay Johnson is president.

Youth director for Atkinson, Stuart and Cleveland is Miss Eloise Rustad. Speaker at the afternoon meeting was the Rev. John Rempell evangelist, of Long Pine. Rev. Orin Graff gave a talk in the evening.

Others on the program were the home mission team from Spencer, Trudy Gilbert and Helen Young, Delbert Dick, of O'Neill, sang a solo; and Atkinson's boys' chorus, including Vern Hickok, Gary Lech, Harold Clausson, Charles Petersen, Charles Shane, La Vern Brady and Orin Graff, also sang. Pianist for the day was Miss Olga Bengston, of Randall Valley, S.D. She and her brother also sang a duet.

The recreation hour from 5 till 6 o'clock was held in the AYA center in Memorial hall with Reverend Graff in charge. Churches represented were: Atkinson Presbyterian and Methodist, Stuart Community, Cleveland Presbyterian, Spencer Methodist, B.D. Community, Randall Valley, S.D., Swedish Covenant and Bristow Methodist.

Other Atkinson News
Little Gary Koene, 5, and his granpa, Joe Koene, had a birthday supper Saturday evening at the home of Gary's great-grandmother, Mrs. Iva Becker. Gary put the candles on both cakes but he couldn't count quite all of granpa's. Both birthdays are the same day—March 8. Other guests besides the two families, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Koene, sr., and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Koene, jr., were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ries.

CSS Cleo Zinky, of the navy and his wife, accompanied by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Zinky, arrived in Atkinson Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Zinky, sr., spent the winter months at the home of their son in National City, Calif. Cleo is on a 19-day furlough at the close of which he will leave for Guam, where he has been given shore duty. His wife, the former Margaret Bourne, will follow her husband to the island as soon as he has located suitable living quarters. Cleo has served in the navy for 16 years. On the trip to Atkinson they came by the southern route going through five states on the way and they found it a little amusing that they encountered at least some snow in each state, including Texas.

Relatives and friends here have received word that Cpl. Floyd Raymer, radio technician in World War II, has reenlisted. Corporal Raymer, whose mother is Mrs. Paul E. Miner, of Denver, Colo., is married and has a son, Terry, 2-years-old. They live at Wayne, Floyd, his mother and his father, the late Floyd Raymer, were long time Atkinson residents. He is a nephew of Mrs. Glenn McClurg and the grandson of Mrs. Gertie Raymer, both of Atkinson. He expects to be in line for Korean duty.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Arnholt, of Bassett, were guests Sunday at the home of Mrs. Ida Becker. The Arnholts lived in Atkinson for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Bowers and son, Ronnie, of Edgerton, Wyo., came Sunday to visit relatives here, at O'Neill, and Stuart. Mrs. Bowers is the former Vina Kaiser, a sister of Leon Kaiser and Mrs. Francis Weller, of Atkinson, and of Herbert Kaiser, of O'Neill.

Miss Betty Thomas, of O'Neill, was a Sunday guest at the Cecil Bogue home. Miss Thomas boarded there while teaching school in his district last year.

Atkinson's fire department was called out Saturday evening for what appeared to be a fire from an overheated stove at the Earl Irish home. No damage was reported.

Ray Kurtz, Wife to Mark 50th Wedding
Mr. and Mrs. Ray M. Kurtz will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary on Wednesday, March 19, by holding open house between 2 and 4 o'clock p.m., at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Charles Cooper, 120 North Madison street.

Miss Rosalyn Bosn, R.N., of Winner, S.D., spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Simon Bosn.

Quotes About Chet

ty attorney: "He was a good conscientious officer. The community owes a great debt of gratitude."

State Sen. Frank Nelson, O'Neill: "Chet Fankins will be greatly missed by all of us for his kindly nature and helping hand to all in time of need. He was an excellent officer and was remembered by visitors here who often spoke highly of him to me when I was away from O'Neill."

Cal Stewart, editor of The Frontier: "A grossly underpaid civil servant. Well paid, perhaps, as a small city peace officer, but money cannot cover a multitude of extra services he performed for this community."

THE FRONTIER, O'Neill, Nebr., Thurs., Mar. 13, 1952.—PAGE 5.

John G. Stufbergen, O'Neill distributor and commander of American Legion post 93: "I've never heard an uncomplimentary word. Just well liked by everybody."

Tony Asimus, veteran O'Neill businessman, former state senator, member of city council: "A fine officer. We'll never be able to replace him."

Lt. Harry Birt, head of Norfolk office, Nebraska safety patrol (viewing body at her): "Chet, you didn't deserve it."

Here for Funeral
Tuesday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Spiry were her sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Forest Smith, of Grand Island, Mr. and Mrs. Chauncy Smith, also of Grand Island.
