

Bernelda Bolen a Bride at O'Neill

Harringtons Buy Campbell Residence

50 Years Ago
Mrs. Susie Campbell has sold her residence property in the western part of town to Mrs. Harrington, mother of the Harrington boys, of this place. Sheriff Hall was at Inman and Page. Mrs. R. R. Dickson returned western part of the state. Janitor Kline has begun the spring clean-up at the courthouse yard. Miss Ruth Evans, who is attending Brownell hall in Omaha, is spending the Easter season at home. J. G. Wendell and family have moved to Atkinson.

25 Years Ago
The business men of O'Neill will hold a get-together banquet followed by a business meeting at the Golden hotel. Mrs. E. J. Velder have been enjoying a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Dillon, of Greeley. A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wyatt.

10 Years Ago
O'Neill students are assisting in salvage work to secure supplies needed for war production. Miss Margaret Miller spent the weekend in Lincoln. Mr. and Mrs. Max Wanser and Mary Clare Waldman, of Ewing, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Ruzicka and Emmett Carr were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Smith.

1 Year Ago
Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Green and their four children sailed from New York for Leopoldville, Africa. Mrs. Virgil Laursen and Mrs. Fritz Yantzi were hostesses at a farewell party in honor of Mrs. Gene Wolfe who moved to Fremont.

To National Sunday-School Convention

Rev. and Mrs. Wayne Hall left this week to attend the 10th national Sunday-school convention of the Assemblies of God. This convention, which is America's largest denominational Sunday-school convention, will be held in Springfield, Mo.

Reverend Hall reports that this international meeting is expected to attract over 10,000 Sunday-school workers and leaders from Alaska, Cuba, Canada, and Latin America, as well as from every part of the United States. Activities at the gathering consist of specialized conferences, discussions, work shops and mass rallies.

Exhibition halls will feature colorful displays depicting the advances of Sunday-school and gospel work.

Larry Minton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Minton, returned from Omaha on Friday, March 21, after spending a week there visiting friends and relatives.

WANTED Used Appliances

• We will allow you MORE for your old appliance on a new Frigidaire range, refrigerator, washer, water heater, dryer, or freezer.

• See us first and last. Compare!

GILLESPIES
O'Neill

Indoor Circus

FREE

Saturday, March 29

Two Performances — 2 P.M. & 8 P.M.
High School Auditorium

A special invitation to people in the outlying trade territory.

Sponsored by
O'NEILL CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Present Dutch Song and Skit

Miss Clover + - ii club met Thursday, March 20, at Linda Rae Johnson's home. All members were present. The president passed out new books to us. Some girls are taking "Let's Cook," the other girls are taking sewing. The project is "Lounging and Sleeping Clothes." Magic games were played after the meeting. A lunch was served by the hostess. Our next meeting will be April 4, at Nancy Sullivan's.

At our previous meeting officers were elected: Lorna Marcellus, president; Snaron Marcellus, vice-president; Carol Johnson, secretary; Karen McKim, treasurer; Janice Sipes, song leader; Linda Rae Johnson, news reporter.

We presented a Dutch song and dance skit for 4-11 fun night and again for the soil conservation service and riot county extension meeting March 19.

Burial at Stuart for Former Resident

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Chaney went to Grand Island on Tuesday, March 11, after receiving word that Mrs. Chaney's father, C. B. Shade, had died. Funeral services were held in St. Paul and on Saturday, March 15, the body was taken to Stuart, the late Mr. Shade's former home, for burial.

Relatives who attended the funeral rites and later were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chaney were:

M/Sgt. and Mrs. C. R. Thomas and two children, of Roswell, N.M.; Mrs. Mabel Shade, of Grand Island, widow of the late C. B. Shade; Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Shade, of Ogallala; W. R. Shade, of Denver, Colo.; Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Shade, of Omaha; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shade, of Sidney; Mrs. Vera Bellerville, of Belleville, Mich.; Mrs. Fanny Pennington, of Detroit, Mich.; and Mr. and Mrs. William Haigh, of Hastings.

Mrs. Thomas is Mrs. Chaney's twin sister, whom she had not seen for five years.

Other Stuart News

Miss Eloise Rusted addressed the Lincoln and Omaha chapters of the Christian business and professional women last week on Monday and Tuesday evenings. She returned to Stuart Wednesday, March 19.

Charles Mulford drove to Hastings on Friday, March 21, to bring his son and daughter, William and Laura, home for spring vacation. They are students in Hastings college.

Lavern Kramer, Duane Ackerman, Edmund Kaup, Danny Flannigan and Fred Mitchell went to Norfolk on Friday afternoon and were snowbound over the weekend.

The one-act play, "Wilber Faces Life," which was entered in the district declamatory contest in Atkinson Friday, March 21, was given a "superior" rating. The play was directed by Miss Mary Coufal and the cast were students in the sophomore class at Stuart high school.

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Engler, of Atkinson, were Sunday visitors in the Gus Obermire home. Nicholas Simmons visited in Atkinson Thursday, March 20, with Mrs. Henning and Mrs. Theresa Deemer.

Miss Bernelda Bolen was guest-of-honor at a pre-nuptial shower given Wednesday evening, March 19, at the George Bolen home. The evening was spent playing games. Miss Bolen opened and admired her many gifts. Lunch was served by the hostesses, Miss Norma Cadwallader and Miss Velma Bolen.

Mrs. Mark Nelson drove to Omaha Thursday, March 20. Her daughter, Mrs. Robert Brayton, and children accompanied her Omaha Thursday, March 20. Her and children accompanied her home for a visit.

Mrs. William W. McIntosh and children went to Madison on Wednesday, March 9, where they visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Beatty. They returned to their home in O'Neill on Friday, March 21.

Mattie Soukup, who returned from Lincoln Sunday, is spending this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Strecker.

REPUBLICANS!

• For delegate to the Republican National Convention in Chicago, from the Fourth congressional district, please vote for your neighbor, Clarence M. Davis, of Ord. Active republican, county chairman and member state committee.

VOTE for

(x) Clarence M. Davis
for
District Delegate Republican Convention

Bad hoax rail to Deter well-wishers

EWING—Friends and relatives made their way Sunday in tractors and wagons through drifted roads to the country home of Mr. and Mrs. William Shrader, who live northeast of Ewing. They went to congratulate Mr. Shrader, who was celebrating his 75th birthday anniversary.

A birthday dinner was served in honor of the occasion.

The centerpiece was a birthday cake, a gift of his daughter, Mrs. Darrell Wettlaufer, of Omaha. The afternoon was spent visiting. Those in attendance were: Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Bennett and family, Mrs. Virginia Morrow and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Shrader and family, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Shrader and children, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Shrader and family and Mrs. May Shrader and Wayne, all of Ewing.

The three daughters, who were unable to be present due to road conditions were: Mrs. Darrell Wettlaufer, of Omaha; Mrs. Verle Gunter, of Norfolk, and Mrs. Arthur Johnson, of Clearwater.

STUART NEWS

Guests at the home of Miss Ina Bennett Sunday were her sister, Mrs. Flora Young and family, of Orchard.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Saiser and family, of Omaha, visited at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. V. Saiser, on Sunday.

Frank Belmar, jr., of Page, was a caller at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fleming on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Cloyd took their son, David Cloyd, U.S. Navy, to Grand Island on Thursday where he left for San Francisco, Calif., and will report for duty. David has been home on a 30-day leave.

Miss Esther Schram, of Mullen, was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nels Jacobsen on Sunday. Miss Schram formerly taught music in the Ewing school.

Dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nels Jacobsen Sunday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Orval Lue, of Ewing.

Mrs. Frances Shaw and Jerry Tomjack went to Norfolk on Tuesday, March 18, to attend an oil distributors meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. John Walker and son, Bobbie, went to Sioux City on Friday. They were marooned in South Sioux City at the George Sohn home, due to the storm which struck that area late the same day. They returned to Ewing Monday morning.

On Wednesday, March 19, Ray Funk and his daughter, Shirley, celebrated their anniversaries. In the evening they were joined by Shirley's aunt, Mrs. Sam Regan, whose anniversary was March 17. Mrs. Ray Funk served a 6 o'clock dinner in their honor. Three birthday cakes, one of regulation size with candles for Mr. Funk, another featuring decorations for St. Patrick, for Mrs. Regan and a miniature one with the figure "three" on top, bearing 3 candles for little Miss Shirley, were the center of attraction. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lee Spittler and Rosalie, J. B. Spittler, Mrs. Nellie Komer, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Regan, Miss Mary Ann Kallhoff, and Joe Funk.

Sunday evening guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Kirschmier and family were Mr. and Mrs. James Finley and family, of Page.

Mrs. Grace Briggs enjoyed a visit from her grandson, Victor Kennedy, of Ord last week. Sunday evening, Mrs. Briggs received a telephone call from her son, Victor Briggs, at Oklahoma City, Okla. Weekend weather reports had centered his thoughts on the old home town and his mother.

Mrs. John Archer entertained the Thursday Bridge club at her home on the afternoon of March 20. The prize for high score was won by Mrs. Earl Billings, low to Mrs. Everett Ruby, and traveling to Mrs. Grace Briggs. Lunch was enjoyed after the games.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Jefferies on Thursday, March 20, were Mr. and Mrs. Mark Mahen, of Clearwater.

Mr. and Mrs. John Archer transacted business in O'Neill on Wednesday, March 19.

Mr. and Mrs. Verge Cratty, of Clearwater, were guests at the George Jefferies home on Friday.

Mrs. Roy Wright entertained the Clearwater club at her home on Wednesday, March 19. There were 23 members present and five guests. Mrs. John Archer, Mrs. Herbert Kirschmier, Mrs. George DeBilzan, Mrs. Alex Thramer, and Mrs. John Walker. At 1 o'clock the club enjoyed a turkey dinner with all the trimmings. Mrs. Walter Finley and Mrs. Russell Anderson presented the lesson on mending during the afternoon session.

On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. William Spence and Lyle tackled the snow drifts of the weekend storm to spend the day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Beelaert and family near Page.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Rickert and family, of St. Paul, left their home on Friday to spend the weekend in the Ewing vicinity.

They were stranded at Greeley overnight and all day Saturday because of the blizzard which hit this section of Nebraska Friday afternoon. The Rickerts reached Ewing on Sunday where they were guests at the home of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Duane Jensen and family. Other guests at the Jensen home were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Z. H. Fry, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Jensen and sons, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Napier and Nancy.

Atkinson Voters Have Big Slate

ATKINSON — Atkinson will hold its city election along with the primaries on Tuesday, April 1. Polling places are: First ward—fire hall; Second ward—school; Third ward and Atkinson township—Memorial hall.

City officers to be elected and the nominees named for the offices at the city caucus held Tuesday, February 26, are:

Mayor—Francis D. Lee, present mayor; clerk—J. R. Castner; councilman First ward—Otto Gloor; Second ward—Albert Frost; Third ward—Leo Seger; two members of the school board—Raymer Funk and Herman Schrader, jr.

Endorsements for reelection were: City treasurer—I. R. Dickerson; police magistrate and justice of the peace—William Carroll.

Retiring officers are: H. A. Snyder, city clerk, who held his office for nearly 25 years, has asked to be retired because of serious illness; C. C. Raymer, who served as councilman from the Second ward for nearly 25 years, not seeking reelection; Ralton Jarvis, councilman from the First ward, who wishes to retire. Hugh O'Connor holds the office of councilman from the Third ward and the one which is now sought by Leo Seger. Retiring school board members are the president of the board, E. H. Chace, and Eli McConnell.

Visit Osenbaughs

Mr. and Mrs. Eric Erickson and family, of Mullen, arrived in O'Neill Sunday and are guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Osenbaugh. Mrs. Erickson is their daughter.

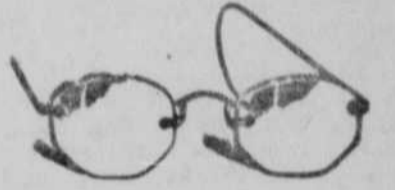

The Frontier for printing!

VOTE FOR
CHRIS J. ABBOTT
CONSERVATIVE CANDIDATE FOR
DELEGATE AT LARGE
TO THE REPUBLICAN
NATIONAL CONVENTION

Edward T. Gerin,
M.D.

Physician and Surgeon
Complete Shock - Proof
X-Ray
Office over Gilligan's
Telephone 165W

DR. GILDERSLEEVE, O.D.
OPTOMETRIST
Permanent Offices in Hagensack Building
Phone 167

At LEE'S ...

of Values

Smart women are starting the Easter Fashion Parade at Lee's this year. Here you will find lovely, new Easter and Spring accessories... extra quality but at economy prices! Shop LEE'S for head-squares, neck scarfs, hankies, and gloves to complete your Easter wardrobe.

Postscript

NYLONS

Those extra lovely, sheer Postscript Nylons, exclusive at LEE'S A real Easter find in glamorous 51 gauge, 15 denier nylons in every new spring shade. only...

98c PAIR

Choose your own color and style $1.00

Meet Your Friends at

Blouse BARGAINS

Come see these selected blouses of rayon, crepe and butcher linen. Wonderful for skirt or suit matching.

BAGS

Pack your things into one of these smart handbags. Add that final touch of fashion. Such a lot of value for just

$1.98

5<sup>1</sup>/<sub>10</sub> LEE STORES 5<sup>1</sup>/<sub>10</sub>

Don't Miss the FREE Indoor Circus!