STATE HIST SOC HOLT TO FURNISH 20 IN 2 MONTHS

Selectees Departing Next Tuesday Are

Announced

Holt county's selective service quota for April and May is 10 men for each month.

The, 10 ordered to report for duty Tuesday, April 15, includes:

Veldon L. Crawford, John I. Plessel, John F. Sterns, all of O'Neill: Robert L. Prill, of Page: Donald E. Rzeszotarski, of Emmet: Robert G. Gillogly, of Inman; Charles O. Shane and Kenneth D. Braasch, both of Atkinson; Vernon M. Schmidt, of Ewing, and Marvin A. Jauerning, of Staurt.

Those who will report for May induction have not yet been announced.

Meanwhile, 25 registrants have been ordered to report for pre-induction physical examinations today (Thursday). They are: LaVerne E. Claussen, Bernard E. Weichman, John A. Ziska, James S. White, all of Atkinson. Charles F. Waterman, Jerry D. Asher, Monte M. Taylor, Har-old D. Tegeler, all of Page.

Adolph Latzel, jr., and Theo-dore J. Slizoski, of Ewing.

Alfred P. Schneider, Donald R. Myers, Kenneth J. Krysl, all of Stuart.

Doyle W. Hamilton, of Middlebranch; Dale E. Pettiojhn, of Brunswick; Gerald H. Lampert, of Orchard; Marlen G. Luber, of Dorsey; John D. Langan, of Spen-

Patrick J. Boyle, Dale F. Clos-son, Glen Knight, Harold N. Miller, Lewis Nekolite, Ralph H. Lindberg, Dick Kazda, all of O'-Neill.

Holt will also furnish 25 for preinduction examinations in May. These men have not been named, said Mrs. W. H. Harty, chief clerk of the Holt selective service board.

Union Good Friday Worship Planned

Union Good Friday worship services will be conducted at Wesleyan Methodist church at 1:30 p.m., April 11.

This rite is in keeping with the custom of the Methodist, First Presbyterian and Wesleyan Metnoaist churches, which alternate as host church.

The Methodist junior choir and the young people from Center Union and Wesleyan Methodist churches will provide special music.

Alfred Edwards . . . purged by British labor party.

Dies in Norfolk Hospital; Resident of Holt

VOLUME 71.-NUMBER 49.

RITES HELD FOR

MRS. ARNIE MACE

Since 1929

CHAMBERS - Funeral services were conducted at 2 p.m., Saturday, April 5, at the Methodist church in Chambers for Mrs. Arnie Mace, sr., 58, who died at 3:15 a.m., Weanesday, April 2 in the Lutheran hospital at Nor-folk. Rev. L. R. Hansberry, church pastor, officiated.

She had been a patient at the Norfolk hospital since March 17 and had been in failing health for sometime. Mary Elizabeth Martha Holz was born at Columbus on March 29, 1894, a daughter of August Holz and Mary Beglow Hoiz. On March 15, 1916, she mar-ried Arnie Mace, sr., at Columbus. To this union three children were born.

The Mace family moved to Holt county in 1929 and have resided here since.

Survivors include: Widower; son—Arnie, jr., of O'Neill; daughters-Mrs. Florence Ritterbush and Ruth Darlene Mace, both of Chambers; grandson — Richard Dean Mace, of O'Neill; brothers— Otto Holz, of Central City; Max Holz, of Paxton; Hugo Holz, of O'Neill; Charles Holz, of Fair-mont, Minn.; sisters—Mrs. Ida Luft, of Palmer; Mrs. Fred Kra-mer, of York; Mrs. Clouse Wag-ner, of Central City.

She was preceded in death by her father, her mother, her sister, Amanda, and a brother, Arthur. Pallbearers were Reuben Pelt-zer, Al Leidtke, Lloyd Hoerle, Mark Gribble, Eric Dankert and Earle Medcalfe. Burial was in the project. the Chambers cemetery under the direction of Biglin Brothers.

Music was furnished by quartette

name was Mary Holz.

Anthony's About Finished

own and operate the institution. Left on the agenda for Bus-boom & Rah, the general con-fitting of storm windows. Landscaping is not a part of the building over to the nuns "about May 1."

Because the hospital is being built with the aid of a federal grant, government inspectors will tour the hospital during the final week of April and they are ex-pected to fix their approval on est hospital in north-central Neoraska.

North-Nebraska's Fastest-Growing Newspaper

O'NEILL, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, APRIL 10, 1952.

2 SECTIONS - 12 PAGES

HE FRONTIER

wete conducted at 2 p.m., Mon-day, April 7, at Atkinson for John J. Zinky, 76, who died Thursday morning, April 3, in Atkinson Memorial hospital. Rev. Orin C. Graf, of Stuart, officiated and Graf, of Stuart, officiated and burial was at Seward on Tuesday He had been hospitalized only a week although he had been in failing health for three years.

The late Mr. Zinky was born August 6, 1875, at Mishawaka, Ind., a son of Jacob and Ma-

He spent 38 years in the At-kinson vicinity, retiring from a Wednesday, April 9, from the Baptist church. The late Mr. Smith died The late Mr. Smih died at 9:50 p.m., Sunday, April 6, in the Methodist hospital, Omaha, where he had been a patient 10 days. He suffered a heart ailment The body lay in state at the Smith residence from 9 a.m. until 1:30 p.m on Wednesday.

rites

Talk, Music Slated for P-TA Meet church pastor, officiated in the P-TA meeting will be Monday, April 14, in the band room of the public school. Rev. Samuel Lee will be guest speaker. These present were Alvin John-son, Homer McClenahan, Frank Porter, Everett Wintermote, Wil-liam Turner and William D. Ren-The program will include ininger.

strumental numbers directed by Charles B. Houser. "Coronation Charles B. Houser. "Coronation March," by Meyerbeer, a saxo-phone sextet: Ed Gatz, Hazel Johnson, Claryce Johnson, Jay B. Munsell, Paul Shelhamer and Betty Harmon; "Fragments from Stephen Foster," arranged by Gault, by brass quartet, Duane Booth, Ed Bridges, Patricia De-Bolt, Elizabeth Schaffer; "Inter-mezzo." by Gliere, French horn ita." by Simons, trombone solo, Elizabeth Schaffer; "Fugue ala Valse," by Frangkiser, clar teat

Burial was in the Chambers cemetery under direction of Big-

Man Killed

PRICE: 7 CENTS

ATKINSON—Homer Fullerton, 43, an Osage, Wyo., rancher and father of five children, eldest of which is 12-years-old, died early Monday, April 7, in a truck an-cident at Moorcroft, Wyo. Details of the accident were not learned by relatives in Holt.

county.

The late Mr. Fullerton, who was born and reared here, had moved from Atkinson to Wyoming a number of years ago to engage in ranching and trucking. He married the for-mer Lucille Watt.

Survivors include: Widow; son —Leslie; daughters— Carol, Al-ice, Wanda and Eleanor; parents —Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fullerton, -Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fullerton, of Atkinson; brothers-Oscar, of Neligh; Harold and George, both of Amelia; sisters-Mrs. Edward Seger, of Atkinson; Mrs. Merrill Smith, of Stuart; Mrs. Earl Watt, of Moorcroft, Wyo., and Mary Alice. His parents, brothers and sis-ters and a niece, Mrs. Forrest Maple, departed Tuesday for Osage to attend the funeral rites. Hymns chosen were "What Friend We Have in Jesus," "Lead Kindly Light" and "Saviour Like by Holt county relatives. Funeral details are not known

Jesse H. Enders Expires at Lynch

LYNCH-Jesse Howard Enders, 64, died about 4 p.m., Tuesday, April 8, at Sacred Heart hospital, Lynch. He had suffered a neart attack

Funeral arrangements were not leted Wedne will be in Paddock Union ceme-

ter-Mrs. Charile Ross, of Red-

The late Mr. Enders never married. He spent most of his life years, has retired and will be suc-

O'Neill's new half-million-doi-lar health center, St. Anthony's hospital, virtually is completed. Only a few details remain be-fore the hospital is turned over to the Sisters of St. Francis, a Roman Catholic order which will Cleo, of National City, Calif.; bro-own and operate the institution. ther-George W., of Birmingham, Mich.

tractors, are some interior decorating (although most of it is completed) and some fitting and rethe general contract.

James M. Corkle, who has headed the building commit-tee, said Wednesday he expected the contractors to turn

St. Anthony's will be the larg-

Rev. J. LaVern Jay, Methodist district superintendent, and Rev. Samuel Lee, pastor of First Prez-byterian church, will be heard. Theme of the service: "Seven Sayings on the Cross."

Burglars Get $400 Loot in Atkinson

ATKINSON-The Galyen Motor company and adjoining Okay Inn at Atkinson were burgiarized late Weanesday night, April 2, or early last Thursday morning. An assorted loot taken from the Gaiyen firm amounted to about $400.

Dick Osborn, an employee, discovered the break-in when he opened the Galyen firm about 7:15 a.m., Thursday.

Holt Snerifi Leo Tomjack said authorities have auto track imprints and some fingerprints to work on, but there have been no arrests.

Speech Course Postponed-

Holt county rural teachers will meet at the O'Neill public school heet at the O Nem public school band room, Tuesday evening, April 15, at 8 p.m. A film "Men-tal Emotional Needs in Child-hood," will be shown by Mr. Dappen, of the state health department. The off-campus course, "Busi-ness and Professional Speaking," has been postponed. If interested watch the paper for dates next fall.

PETER PERSON DIES

EWING—Peter Person, father of Mrs. James Hawk, died Saturday, March 29, at Newcastle, Wyo. He resided in the Ewing and Tilden communities until 1929, when he moved to South Dakota. Funeral rites were held Wendesday, April 2. Mr. Person was born in Sweden, February 18, 1871, came to the U.S. when a young man. He married Minnie C. Hepfinger at Stanton. Surviv-ors include: Widow: seven chil-dren, six grandchildren, and five great-grandchildren.

MARRIAGE LICENSES

Robert Gillogly, of Inman, and Miss Delores Geidd, of O'Neill, on April 4. Ralph W. Beaudin and Miss Darlene Tomjack, both of Omaha, April 5.

Donald Junior Frisch, of Atkinson, and Shirley Ann With-ers, of Amelia, on April 7.

Marvin Dale Strehlow, of Lake Andes, S.D., and Mrs. Albina Beatrice Fox, of Geddes, S.D., on April 9.

FIREMEN CALLED

O'Neill volunteer firemen have been summoned twice within the past seven days. At 11:30 a.m. the past seven days. At 11:50 a.m. Monday they were summoned to a roof blaze on a South Fourth street frame building which for-erly housed the John Melvin store. At 4:50 p.m., Wednesday they were called to extinguish a West O'Neill.

William Alexander . . Oklahoman noted as an inspirational speaker. $\star \star \star$ 1 an

O. Glenn Saxon . . . famed

Yale university economist.

Stockgrowers to Hear Former M.P.

The Nebraska Stockgrowers' Among out-of-town relatives association will convene in Grand and friends at the funeral were: The Nebraska Stockgrowers' Island today (Thursday) for the annual meeting. They will hear: Aired Edwards, ramous Brit-ish industrialist and former mem-ber of parliament who recently Mr. and Mrs. William Pickrel, all was purged from the British of Clarks.

wards has become an outspect of the active of socialism.
O. Glenn Saxon, a world-famous economist from Yale university, New Haven, Conn.
Broger Fleming, of Washington, D. C., national Farm Bureau Federation secretary.
Bern R. Coulter, of Bridgeport, an attorney and a rancher.
Dr. William Alexander, of Oktor fairmond Ligt and Roger, of Cairo; fairmont, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Holz, of Fairmont, Minn.; Cattlemen and their wives will Cattlemen and their wives will Cattlemen and their wives mather of the nation.
Wards has become and their wives will
Mr. and Mrs. Paul Waite, all of Paxton.
Mr. and Mrs. Max Holz, Mr. and Mrs. Max Holz, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kirschner, of Pleasanton; Mr. and Mrs. Law, of Grand Island; Mr. and Melra, of Grand Island; Mr. and Lesta, of Oster Mather Mr. Burke Was born at Harrison, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Holz, of Fairmont, Minn.; George Mace and Lesta, of Oster Mather Mr. Burke Mr. Burke Masher Minn.; Charles Holz, of Fairmont, Minn.; George Mace and Lesta, of Oster Mather Mr. Burke Mr. Burk register at the Liedrkranz hall

starting at 8 a.m. and the meet-ng will open at 10 a.m. with a band concert by the University of Nebraska school of agriculture of Nebraska school of agriculture band from Curtis. "We feel fortunate in securing the services of Alfred Edwards before he returns to England to continue his support in the fight against socialism," declares J. H. Vinton, of Gordon, association president. In encouraging at-tendance at Grand Island meet-ing, Vinton adds that "Alfred Ed-wards is qualified to lend us couwards is qualified to lend us courage and inspiration to keep up our fight against such a trend in this country." Edwards is one of nine children of a railroad joiner and his edu-cation was interrupted before he was 14 to seek employment. Pos-sessing the ability of a vigorous and skillful public speaker, he rose to the top with lightning speed. Now despite his momentary defeat on British government of Atkinson, will celebrate their of the Chamber of Commerce. policies and when he seems to have sacrificed his political career for the sake of his princi-ples, Alfred Edward has a real story to tell about the upheaval of Britain's industry following the adoption of the iron and steel bill, a nationalization measure. D. C. Schaffer, of O'Neill, is vice-president of the association.

Neill.

WEATHER SUMMARY Hi Lo 54 25 Date

ADTI	- 64 .	Management and a second s		10
April			30	0
April	4		25	t
	5	46	25	d
	ě	61	25	1
April	7	79	39	1
	8		34	n
April	0		01	S

John O'Neill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur O'Neill, has been admitted into the national honorary grass blaze at the rear of the An- forensic fraternity. He was one na Brown duplex apartments in of two Creighton university, Omaha, students thus honored.

Lambert, Mrs. Letha Cooke, Mrs. C. V. Robertson and Ernest Far-rier. They sang "Rock of Ages," "No Disappointment in Heaven" and "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere." Mrs. Lela Corcoran was pianist. In charge of flowers were Mrs. Lloyd Hoerle, Mrs. Rueben Peltzer and Mrs. Charles Fauquier. Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Mace, Marvin Mace, Mrs. Herman Kohl, was parged from the criticism of labor party for his criticism of mationalization of industry. Ed-wards has become an outspoken foe of socialism. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Waite, all of the in Woodlawn cemetery. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Waite, all of The late Mr. Hitchcock was

George Mace and Lesta, of Os-ceola; Mrs. Grace Runquist, of Stromsburg; Mr. and Mrs. Roll Mace, of Osceola. Mr. and Mrs. Hugo Holz and Francis, Mrs. Ed Burival, Mr, and Mrs. Arthur Holz, all of O'-Neill

Mrs. Sewell Johnson and Kar-en, of Atkinson; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Haake, of Clearwater; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ruther and Bob-by, of Inman; Mrs. Lloyd Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Fay Brittell and Shirley; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Searles, all of O'Neill. Mr and Mrs. C E Brittell Mr Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Brittell, Mr.

and Mrs. Ray Conard, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Morsbach and son, all of Neligh.

Fred Stolte, Wife

ATKINSON - Mr. and Mrs.

golden wedding anniversary on Tuesday, April 15.

Donald Boyle Expects European Assignment-

Don Boyle, of Ft. Story, Va., son of Mr. and Mrs. James Boyle, of O'Neill, drove home Tuesday, April 1, for a 15-day furlough. He leaves Sunday for his home base and further assignment somewhere in France. Friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Boyle Sunday to help Edgar celebrate his birthlay anniversary and to visit with Donald.

This is Donald's second assignment to Europe, having already spent nine years in the service. He is making the army his ca-

Clip me, post by radio: "Voice of The Frontier," Mon., Wed., Sat., 9:45 a.m., WJAG, 780 kc. Thomas Harty, Robert Wallace and John Brady, from Creighton university, Omaha.

ATKINSON- Fred Hitchcock, 73, a pioneer Atkinson resident and a longtime veterinarian, died early Tuesday, April 8, at the Stuart hospital where he had been a patient for nine days. While hospitalized he submitted to major surgery.

Funeral services will be constructor. ducted today (Thursday) at 2 p.m. at the Presbyterian church

Still no new developments in the Chet Calkins murder myspolice chief was murdered in his cruiser car on Everett street. Capt. Harold Smith, of the state safety patrol bureau of criminal investigation, was scheduled to arrive Monday with a lie detector to be used in some questioning here. Until late Wed-Wed Half-Century nesday, however, Captain Smith had not arrived.

The reward fund has rounded the $1,500 mark. More contribu-Fred Stolte, who live southwest tions are being received in care A benefit dance in which all

A benefit dance in which all from the two of tern school part proceed will go to the reward ticipating in the poppy poster birthday anniversary. Guests in-cluded Mrs. Kenneth Braddock April 26.

Students Trek Homeward

For Holidays -Students home for spring and

Easter vacation include: Frances Luben from Greeley college, Greeley, Colo.; John Beri-gan and Paul Moseman, from the University of Nebraska, Lincoln; Donna Crabb, Phillis Seger, Guy Harris and James Bridges, from Nebraska Wesleyan university. Nancy Beha, from St. Mary's Xavier, Kans.: Ted Lindberg and Claude Cole, from Wayne State

Teachers college. Allen Martin, John O'Neill, James Merriman, Jack Gatz, Hitchcock, Atkinson, Dies Litzabeth Schafter; "Fugue ala Valse," by Frangkiser, clarter trio, Don Hagensick, Carolyn Hi-att and Esther Kaiser; "Canzona No. 2," by Gabrieli, brass choir, cornets—Duane Booth, Ed Bridg-es, Patricia DeBolt, Evalue Ach es, Patricia DeBolt, Evalyn Asher, French horns-Barbara Bennett, Dick Davis, trombones -Elizabeth Schaffer, Bruce McEl-haney, baritone—Mildred Crabb, tuba—John Bowen. type in Chambers.

There will be vocal numbers by a girls' sextet and a soprano solo by Barbara Bennett. These will be under the direction of James Bastian, vocal music in-

Former Stuart Banker Succumbs

of 17 children. He joined the First National bank at Stuart in Calkins Slaying no new developments in et Calkins murder myson several occasions.

Survivors include: Widow; daughters—Mrs. W. J. Tippett, of Lovell, Wyo.; Mrs. W. L. Stokes, of Kirby, Wyo., and Miss Patri-cia, of the air force. sided one mile west and threefourths of a mile south of Mid-dlebranch until October, 1951, when he retired and moved into

Page.

Essay Contest Winners Named -

The American Legion auxiliary of Simonson unit 93, held a regular meeting in the Legion club on Wednesday evening, April 2, the president, Mrs. Axel Borg, presiding.

Reports from the secretary, poppy poster chairman and treasurer were given It was decided to give cash on 72nd Anniversary prizes of $5, $3 and $2 to the first, A dinner party was held at the second and third place winners home of Mr. and Mrs. F. F. Hiet-from the two O'Neill school par-er in honor of Mrs. Hieter's 72nd

Winners in the essay contest and children, Audrey and Gene, from St. Mary's academy are of Omaha, who spent the weekend at the Hieter home; Mr. and Elaine Boyle, Mina Connort and Mrs. Dorsey Hieter and Joyce, Donaldean Vinton. Public school Mrs. Dorsey Hieter and Joyce, winners were Jo Ellen Backhaus, of Atkinson; Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hieter and family. Carolyn Hiatt and Gene Seger. Helen Harty, daughter of Mrs. W. H. Harty, has been chosen for two, Dale Braddock, who is in girls' state. the service, and Donald Brad-dock, who is employed in Oma-It was voted to give $100 to the Chet Calkins reward fund, and $30 to the gold star memorial ha. fund.

NEWSMATTER OMITTED

Considerable newsmatter, notably rural correspondence and and several feature picture stories, have been omitted from this issue because of a heavy volume of late advertising. This material will appear in subsequent issues.

Survivors inclue: Mother-Mrs. Mattie M. Enders, of Omaha; sissistant rural mail carrier, and in 1949 he helped launch a retail lumber business—the first of its in the Redbird vicinity and moved

Launch Lumber

Business in 1949

CHAMBERS-Funeral services for Georeg L. Smith, 55, veteran Chambers grocer and lumber dealer, were conducted at 2 p.m., to Lynch about six years ago. He was secretary of the building board for the new Memorial Baptist church. He had been doing hauling and draying at Lynch. Burgess Retires as

On March 4, 1936, he married oraine Ennis, at O'Neill. The ite was performed by Reverend the O'Neill Country club for 20 Loraine Ennis, at O'Neill. The rite was performed by Reverend May.

Survivors include: Widow; prothers — Wilson Smith, Fred Smith and Edward Smith, all of ceeded by M. J. Golden. Other new officers elected at the annual meeting Monday night, Chambers; sisters — Miss Nellie Smith, of Chambers, and Mrs. Cliff Marquis, of Redmond, Ore. are: H. J. Lohaus, vice-president; John C. Watson, treasurer; J. B.

Survivors include: Widow:

MUD TROUBLE

community performed a big chore while returning from an of groceries on one knee, her one small fry on the other and churned merrily homeward.

ROCK FALS-A lady in this

John C. Watson, treasurer; J. B-Grady, secretary. Elected to the board of directors are: Mr. Gold-en, Mr. Grady, Mr. Watson, Mr. Lohaus, Joseph L. McCarville, jr., William W. McIntosh and Nor-man Gonderinger. Roy Waring, 68, Burial at Page

Aethodist Choir Will

tery.

bird.

PAGE— Funeral services for Roy Waring, 68, lifelong resident of this neighborhood, were con-ducted Saturday, March 29, at the United Brethren church in Orchard and burial was in the Page cemetery

The choir consists of 30 voices. and soloists will be: Sopranos — Mrs. Earl W. Ralya, Mrs. Grant Peacock and Miss Frances Reimer; alto — Mrs. Don Loy; ten-ors — Rahe Johnson and John Bowen; basses—Grant Peacock, Burl Munsell and Claude Cole. He was born at the site of the old Lambert postoffice, seven miles northeast of Page. He re-

500 HERE FOR SING Five hundred Holt county grade school children took part in a rural chorus "sing" at the O'Neill public school auditorium Survivors include: Widow; sons—Kenneth, of Page; Glen, of Orchard; Gerald, of Middle-branch; Dale and Keith, both of Fairbury; daughters—Mrs. J. W. (Nellie) Finch, jr., of Page; Mrs. Robert (Maxine) Pease, of Cen-ter. There are 16 grandchildren and one great-grandchild. Friday afternoon. Merton Welch, band director at Norfolk junior college and Norfolk high school, led the practice for the upper grades, and Mrs. Etha Walters, a Stuart teacher, led the kindergarten through third grade. The chorus will appear at countywide eighth grade promotion exercises here May 12.

PICKUP SPILLS

STUART-Dick Kaup, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Kaup, accom-panied by Dick Hytrek, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Hytrek, up-set a pickup Monday night, April 7. The accident occurred on the Stuart - Naper highway on the corner north of Stuart.

The boys escaped injury but the pickup, a 1951 Chevrolet, was All the grandchildren were Ladly damaged. present at the reunion except LAND BRINGS $23 The Thorin-Reynoldson auc-tion service Tuesday announced the sale of the Clinton and Syvilla Shermer 640 - acre Rock county ranch, southwest of Bassett, to August Sybrant, of Bas-sett. The figure was $23 per acre.

O'Neill shopping trip. The last lap had to be made by tractor. Enroute to Casper-She balanced an egg crate full

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Kinney, of Omaha, visited Miss Elizabeth O'Malley on Wednesday. They were enroute to Casper, Wyo.

