

Eagles Win Sprint Medley at Wayne

The O'Neill high Eagles thrills sparked Thursday in the Wayne State Teachers college track and field meet.

A foursome, including Warren Seger, Don Calkins, Eddie Tomlinson and Junior Worth, captured the mile sprint medley relay in the 25-school prep section of the meet. The Eagles were clocked at 3:55.7.

Finishing behind O'Neill in this event were Valley second; Sioux City Heelan high, third; Walthill, fourth.

Dave Eby was second in the 120-yard high hurdles, finishing behind Blair's John Battler, who was clocked at :16.6.

The 880-yard relay was won by Heelan in 1:39.1. O'Neill placed third.

Bob Carroll, a Blue comer on the athletic scene, led the pack in the mile race until the last few yards. Vic Neilson, of Blair, turned on the heat and won it, 4:55.6. Heelan and Blair dominated the point getting with O'Neill close behind.

The sprint medley relay title was accompanied by a trophy for the Eagles.

Eagles Win Neligh Meet in a Walk

Coach Marv Miller's O'Neill high track team easily won a triangular track meet Monday at Neligh, competing against the Neligh Warriors and Albion Cardinals.

Dave Eby won the 120-yard high hurdles in :16.5; Don Calkins raced the 440-yard dash in :53.9 for first honors in that division; Eddie Tomlinson led the 100-yard dash pack in :10.6; Bob Carroll captured the one-mile laurels, turning in a 4:59.0 performance; Warren Seger won the 880-yard dash honors posting 2:07.3.

The Eagles won the mile relay in 3:42.0.

Neligh finished in second place; Albion third.

New City Council Members Seated

Three new members of the O'Neill city council were seated Tuesday evening in the first session of the City's new fiscal year.

Newly-elected councilmen are: L. M. Merriman, First ward appointed a year ago to fill a vacancy; Joe Stutz, Second ward; Emmett Crabb, Third ward.

Committee appointments will be continued over until next Tuesday. Walt Calkins, Joe Wert and Albert Sipes were appointed to the police force. William W. Griffin was reappointed city attorney.

A discussion took place concerning the possibility of converting the 1936 Chevrolet fire truck into a street sprinkler outfit and also serve in the dual capacity of an auxiliary water supply for fire-fighting. City Supt. L. C. Anderson was authorized to investigate the possibilities.

The council learned that test well activities have been delayed by wetness. Tests are expected to be completed by May 15.

FROELICH 'HOT'

William J. Froelich, jr., of O'Neill, scored 99 points to gain a tie with Floyd Dailey, of Fremont, in the 100-target, 16-yard singles Saturday at Doniphan. The Holt marksman, member of the O'Neill Rod and Gun club, was competing in the George Maxwell Memorial handicap trophy trapshoot competition, Harry Keeler, of Ewing, another member of the O'Neill club, also competed. Seniors Feted in Annual Banquet

EWING—The annual Ewing high school junior-senior banquet was held Thursday evening, May 1, in the parlors of the Ewing Methodist church at 6:30.

"Starlight" was the theme. The ceiling of the parlor was covered with dark blue crepe paper covered with silver stars. Streamers of aqua blue and white covered the sidewalls, which fell behind a picket fence that surrounded the large room. This made the setting for the tables which also carried out the blue and silver colors. The silver star centerpiece displayed a cap of the graduate. The speakers' table had a bouquet of red roses. The napkins were dark blue with "junior-senior" in the corner in gold. Mothers of the juniors prepared the banquet. The menu follows: fruit juice cocktail, baked ham, scalloped potatoes, buttered peas, relish plate, cherry salad, hot rolls and butter, jelly, ice cream, angel food cake, coffee, nuts and mints.

Joe John Thoendel was toastmaster and gave the welcome. Numbers of the program were: "Wishing Stars," by Yvonne Minarik; "Holiday in Stardom," by Jackie Mosel; solo, "Some Enchanted Evening," by Don Ernest; "Shooting Stars," by Don Ruroede; "Lucky Stars," by Lois Ann Bergstrom; duet, "Falling in Love with Love," by Judy Jeffries and Mr. Gerald Chalupa; "Hitch Your Wagon to a Star," by Supt. James Pennington; "Destination," by Gene Tomjack; solo, "When the Moon Goes Down O'er the Mountain," by Marcus Pierson; solo, "The Moon Goes Down," by Joe John Thoendel.
