'Grandma' Johnson
at 92d Milestone

Mrs. Mattie Johnson celebrated her 92d birthday anniversary on Saturday, May 3, at the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. John Hansen, 11 miles north of O'Neill.

The Clausen place is where Mrs. Johnson has resided for 71 years — since arriving here in 1881.

About 40 relatives and friends came to help her celebrate.

The relatives who were present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. Victor Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Sam L. Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Walters and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Nelson and family, Grand Mrs. Ben Johring and son, Mr. and Mrs. Dwayne Angon and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Iram Johnson and family.

The neighbors who called were Mrs. Bert Ott, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Boshart, Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Boshart, Mrs. Opal Jammerlin and family and Mrs. James McNulty and daughter.

The afternoon was spent socially. Refreshments of ice cream, cake and coffee were served.

She received many cards and gifts.

Mrs. Johnson, who heads multiple five-generation groups, was born in Denmark, came to America at the age of 20. She married Andrew Johnson in Iowa December 28, 1881. The Johnsons became the parents of nine children.

She has 29 grandchildren, 50 great-grandchildren and 10 great-great-grandchildren.

Chambers Enjoys Building Boom

CHAMBERS — Several new homes are in the making in Chambers.

Mr. and Mrs. Chet McClenahan purchased a house which they had moved to their property in the southwest corner of town and are remodeling.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Smith are building a new home in the northwest part of town. Mr. and Mrs. Victor Harley have had a small addition built on the east of their residence, making some of the rooms larger.

Last week Mr. and Mrs. Eric Dankert commenced the building of a new home just east of their service station. Two cabins of the cabin camp were moved to make room for the new house.

Mrs. T. W. Olney
Expires in Wyoming

CHAMBERS — Mrs. T. W. Olney, 75, of Greybull, Wyo., died Tuesday morning, April 29.

Funeral services were conducted Thursday, May 1, at the Presbyterian church in Greybull.

Mrs. Olney was formerly Grace Alderson, eldest sister of T. E. Alderson, of Chambers, and was reared in this community. Her husband preceded her in death, passing away in 1951. They had no family but reared two daughters belonging to her brother, Guy Alderson.

T. E. Alderson accompanied his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Alderson to Greybull for the funeral services.

Chambers Auxiliary
Fetes Gold Stars

CHAMBERS — The American Legion auxiliary of post 320, honored the gold star members at a tea on Friday evening, May 2.

Those present to receive the honor were Mrs. Louise Crandall, Mrs. Reuben Peltzer, Mrs. George Cameron, Mrs. Ted Tomjack, Mrs. Lela Corcoan, Mrs. Anna Albers, Mrs. Richard Smith and Mrs. Gordon Harley.

A program directed by Mrs. Edwin Hubbard was presented. The following junior members participated: Darlene Harley, Judy Fagon, Connie Werner, Rene Brown, Jay Jeffers and Rennea Smith. Corsages were presented each guest.

'Chris' Sorensen Dies Suddenly

PAGE — Christian ("Chris") Sorensen, 65, a resident of Holt county for a number of years, died suddenly at his home in Page Thursday evening, May 1.

Funeral services were held on Sunday afternoon, May 4, at 2 o'clock from the Methodist church in Page with Rev. C. E. Wilcox in charge. Burial was in Page cemetery.

Pallbearers were Alfred Linquist, Nels Linquist, Russell Sorensen, Vernon Sorensen, Ervin Sonders and Chris Nelson.

A male quartet, composed of Raymond Heiss, Donald Heiss, Edgar Stauffer and Marvin Stauffer, accompanied by Mrs. Harold Kelly, sang "Face to Face," "Going Down the Valley," and "Nearer, My God to Thee."

Mrs. C. E. Walker and Mrs. Lester Riege had charge of the many floral offerings.

Christian Sorensen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Sorensen, was born near Copenhagen, Denmark, on July 1, 1886. He came to the United States as a child with his parents and settled near Osmond. The family moved to the northern part of Holt county in 1906.

He was married to Miss Anna Sonders at Verdigris on April 17, 1912. To this union were born four sons and one daughter. They made their home north of Page until 1934. They moved to a farm near Neligh and lived there until 1946, when they retired and moved to Page where they have since made their home.

Survivors include: The widow — Anna; sons — John and James, of Page; seven grandchildren; brothers — Soren, of Page, and John, of Washington; sister, Mrs. Marie Strom, of Marshalltown, Ia.; also several nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his daughter, Gladys, in 1937, and his son, Eldridge, who lost his life in the service of his country at Leyte on October 29, 1944, and also by an infant son.

Files $100,000 Suit Against Holt Men

A livestock farm operator near Fulton, S.D., Edward Fiala, has filed a $100,000 damage suit in Federal court, Sioux Falls, against four men he alleges took part in selling him 55 head of diseased cattle.

E. C. Weller, Joseph M. Kokes and Lawrence Storchmann, partners in the Atkinson (Nebr.), Livestock Market, and L. D. Putnam, who operates several ranches near O'Neill, were named as defendants in the suit.

Fiala said in the petition that he was assured the cattle were healthy when he purchased them and by the time he found they were diseased his entire herd of 150 had been exposed. Fiala claimed he spent large sums of money for medicine, travel and disinfectants.

Gildersleeves Buy
Johnson Residence

Dr. and Mrs. H. D. Gildersleeve have purchased from Mr. and Mrs. Larry Johnson the 10-room house and 1½ acres of residential property in the northwest section of the city known as the Brennan estate.

The Johnsons will be moving to Scottsbluff where Mr. Johnson has been promoted to dispatcher for the western Nebraska system of the Consumers Public Power District. He will work directly under the state chief dispatcher at Lincoln, reporting Monday, May 19.

Mrs. Johnson and their children, Linda Rae and Kile, will follow within several weeks. The Johnsons came to O'Neill from Hartington in 1943.

Mrs. Clements New Grand Regent

The Catholic Daughters of America met Tuesday evening, May 6, at 8 o'clock at the KC hall. After the regular business meeting an election of officers was held with the following results:
