METHODIST (Inman)
Rev. Charles C. Chappell, pastor
Church school, 10 a.m.
Worship, 11:15 a.m.

Thursday, May 8, there will be a joint meeting of the committee on worship and evangelism and the committee on lay activities.

The chairmen of these committees respectively, are Harvey Tompkins and Karl Keyes. The meeting will convene at 8 p.m. and will be held in the church.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service held its regular meeting May 1 at the home of Mrs. Ira Watson. About 25 members and five guests were present. Mrs. Roy Gannon conducted the devotions. Mrs. Kreyborg, county home demonstration agent, was a special guest and gave a short talk about her work with the extension service. Members whose birthday anniversaries occurred in the months of March, April and May were honored with a short program and seated at the birthday table which was decorated with May baskets and a birthday cake. Mrs. Herbert Nielsen and Mrs. L. R. Tompkins were in charge of the program, and Mrs. Ira Watson and Mrs. Glenn Gillogly served refreshments. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Clarence Hansen May 15.

The Young Adult Fellowship held its regular meeting at the IOOF hall Thursday evening, May 1. Although it had been planned to be held in the Maxey Memorial addition, due to the coolness of the weather the building was not ready for use. A family supper was served to the large crowd attending. The business meeting was conducted by President Lewis Kopecky, jr. It was voted to sponsor an alumni banquet and a probable date of June 5 was selected.

At the morning worship service Sunday, May 4, Reverend Chappell delivered his sermon entitled, "God's Covenant Between Heaven and Earth." Miss Emogene Davis sang a solo, "To Thee I Fly." Mrs. Anna Smith, just returned from a winter in California and Colorado, and Mrs. Eva Murten, of Blair, were in the congregation, also Miss Barbara Brunckhorst and three house guests from Norfolk and Miss Delores Nielsen, of Hastings.

ASSEMBLY OF GOD (O'Neill)
Rev. Wayne Hall, pastor
The revival services are continuing through this week. We have enjoyed the good messages of Evangelist Howard Smith. The services begin at 8 o'clock each night. We welcome you to hear this man of God.

There will be a street meeting at 8:30 p.m. Saturday on the corner of Fourth and Douglas streets.

Young people will have their service on Tuesday, May 13, at 8 p.m.

The prayer and Bible study service is on Wednesday, May 14, at 8 p.m.

The sectional fellowship meeting is today (Thursday) in Wood Lake. Time of services are 2:30, 6:30 and 7:30 p.m. (MST).
The Scriptures admonish us to "Be ye holy in all manner of conversation; because it is written, be ye holy; for I am holy." Give God a part of your time, talents, and possessions if you want His blessings.

METHODIST (Chambers)

Rev. L. R. Hansberry, pastor
Sunday-school, 10:30 a.m., Clair Grimes, superintendent.
Worship, 11:30 a.m.
Mrs. Hansberry had charge of the services Sunday, May 4, as the pastor was ill.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Grady are expected to return home Sunday from Baker, Ore., where they have been residing the past seven months with their daughter, Mrs. Paul Montgomery, and her two children. They went to Oregon last September following the sudden death of their son-in-law, Paul Montgomery. Mr. and Mrs. Clark Willson have been occupying their residence. Mr. Willson went to North Platte about a month ago where he launched a produce business. Mrs. Willson will join him soon.
