New Fire Truck Answers Call—

O'Neill's new 15-thousand-dollar fire truck made its first run at 7 a.m., Sunday, May 11. But its modern and elaborate equipment wasn't needed.

An oil heater in the Mode O' Day store caused extensive damage to merchandise. There was no fire but soot and smoke from a minor explosion of the stove created the damage to the stock and interior of the store.

An employee of the M&M cafe next door turned in the alarm.

Special Awards to 7 Eighth Graders

Holt county eighth grade promotion exercises were held in the O'Neill high school auditorium Monday, May 12.

The three grade school choruses made up of pupils from Holt county's schools sang: "Three Little Kittens," "Peter Cotton Tail," "Daddy's Little Cowboy," "Teddy Bear's Picnic," "I Love Little Willie," "Home on the Range," "Down in the Valley," "Cindy" and "Skip to My Lou."

An accordion duet was played by Joanne Lansworth and LaDonna McNulty. There were vocal solos by Richard Truax and Karen Garwood. Lois Strong gave a musical reading.

The choruses were directed by Mrs. Etha Walters.

Presentation of special awards and diplomas was made by Miss Alice French, Holt superintendent of public instruction. Those receiving the special awards were: Carolyn Russell, Myrna Kaup, Karen Garwood, Joanne Lansworth, Eddie Krugman, Donald Dickau, and Marilyn Petersen.

Before presenting the diplomas, Miss French addressed the graduates. She stressed that two roads lay before them now that they had finished the elementary eight grades: (1) The road that leads through high school and on to college, or (2) the road without any more formal education.

In either case those receiving diplomas were reminded by Miss French that "honesty, sincerity and fair play are lights that will guide."

The special award gifts were donated by Coyne hardware, Penny's, Gambles, McDonald's, McIntosh Jewelry, Johnson Jewelry, and Johnson Drugs.
