

Dutch Garden Setting for Stuart Banquet

STUART—The annual Stuart high school junior-senior banquet was held Thursday evening, May 8, at the auditorium.

Using the theme "Little Dutch Garden," a part of the auditorium was enclosed with a replica of a rock wall. A canopy of blue with silver stars was overhead and blue and yellow streamers falling from the canopy to the rock wall completed the enclosure. The guests entered through a Dutch windmill where the tables were placed in a half circle around a wishing well.

The tables were decorated with tulips, blue and yellow candles and Dutch girl figures. The nut-cups were Dutch figures and the favors were a pair of miniature wooden shoes.

The program with Shirley Shald as toastmistress was as follows:

T—"Tiptoeing Through the Tulips," by Esther Gans, "Welcome."

U—"Unto our Hosts, 'Dank U,'" by Dick Kaup, "Thanks."

L—"Lifesaving Dykes," by Theo. Weichman, class will.

T—"In the Land of Windmills," by Delores Hamik, class prophecy.

P—"Prettle of a Nosey Dutchmen," speeches by K. C. Paul, "Teddy" Schiessler, Miss Morris,

S—"Say Goden Dag," by Marge Willis Berry and Fred Coats, Chaney, farewell.

The food for the 60 guests was prepared by the juniors' mothers and the menu was as follows: joppa, kropala, gekookt, rundveesch, aardappel, ecwten en wortels, olijven en augurken nagerecht, koffie en noten en saukgeod.

Five sophomore girls, Mary Ann Allen, Sharon Bigelow, Mary othy Friedel, Wilma Kaup and Marge Weichman dressed in Dutch costumes of blue and yellow with Dutch caps and five sophomore boys, Dudley Fovey, Rolland Peterson, Jason Reber, Dick Shald and Don Wewel wearing blue and yellow Dutch trousers served the banquet.

NEW FORMULA . . . A concerted drive is underway among the health organizations, medical profession, and insurance companies to point out that "your waistline is your life line." A new formula has been developed by Ann Delafield, of New York, to help the 25 million Americans who are overweight by at least 20 pounds. This formula allows a person to eat a normal amount of food while it quiets the craving for excessive eating and gnawing hunger before and between meals. The new Ann Delafield appetite reducing plan has arrived at the Gilligan Rexall store and is now on sale. (See advertisement on page 2.)

Important Term-End Dates Noted—

Calendar of coming events for St. Mary's academy follows:

May 20—Altar boy picnic.

May 21—May queen crowning.

May 18—Alumni banquet.

May 23—Junior-senior music recital (voice, piano, ensemble, tap dancing).

Boy Scouts Camporee Planned —
