Mrs. Alfred M. Hamik, the former Elizabeth Jean Gallagher . . . bride in church rite.—O'Neill Photo Co.

Gallagher-Hamik Nuptials Are Read

A beautiful wedding was solemnized Monday, May 12, at 10 a.m., at St. Patrick's Catholic church in O'Neill when Miss Elizabeth Jean Gallagher, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Gallagher, of Inman, became the bride of Alfred M. Hamik, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hamik, of Stuart.

Rev. Kenneth Carl officiated. Terry and Lynn Gallagher, nephews of the bride, served as altar boys.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a white satin gown fashioned in princess style with a net yoke. Her fingertip veil of net fell from a pearl studded tiara. She carried a bouquet of red roses and a white prayer book which was a gift from the bridegroom.

Miss Betty Hamik, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor. She appeared in a gown fashioned of shrimp net and satin and carried a nosegay of yellow roses.

Miss Donna Hamik, flower girl, wore a long white satin princess style gown and carried daisies. Master Kenneth Hamik, ringbearer, wore a blue Eton jacket and white trousers.

The bridegroom was attended by Leonard Hamik and James Coker, who wore grey suits with white carnation boutonnieres. Bob Clouse and Fritz Hatze served as ushers.

The bride's mother chose a sheer navy blue dress with white accessories for her daughter's wedding. Her corsage was of red carnations. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a navy blue print dress with dark accessories.

A wedding breakfast for the immediate families was held at the M&M cafe in O'Neill. The reception was at the home of the bride's parents, east of Inman.

Mrs. Hamik wore a navy blue dress with navy accessories for her going away outfit. They left for a honeymoon trip in the East.

Out-of-state guests here for the wedding were: the bride's brother, Daniel P. Gallagher, Mrs. Gallagher and daughter, Kathleen Ann; the bride's sister, Mrs. Elwin Cronk, Mr. Cronk and daughter, Jane, all of San Bernardino, Calif., and the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Neal Chase, of Sheldon, Ia.
