

"Miss Task Force" title to Miss Bernadette Hynes . . . unanimous choice of Dixie infantrymen.—U.S. Army Photo.

SOUTHWEST HOLT PIONEER DIES

Ill 2 Years; Funeral Rites Held Here

AMELIA — Charles Homolka, mously for Miss Hynes.

Cleveland, O., and came to Holt county in 1884.

He was married to Antonette "Miss Task Force" won the contest while the Dixie division task

Horky in 1909 in Omaha. Survivors include: widow; sons -C. J. Homolka, of Loretto; Joseph, of Chambers; daughters— Mrs. Henry (Anna) Dorr, of Page; Mrs. Frank (Antonette) Burival, of O'Neill; Mrs. Orvile (Adeline) Keller, of Chambers; Mrs. Mike (Emma) Eckstein, of Bruno; Mrs. Honry (Mildred) Weber of Chambers, Camp Atterbury, Ind., in Septem-Henry (Mildred) Weber, of Chambers; Mrs. Leo (Helen) Burival, of

Funeral service was held in St. Patrick's Catholic church at O'-Neill Saturday, May 24, Rev. Urbansky officiating, Burial was in Calvary cemetery. Biglin Broth-rence Walkens and Joe Shonka.

Omaha Attorney,

son and associate of Omaha At-torney Bernard J. Boyle and was reduced to ashes. Mrs. Boyle, died early Thursday in an Omaha hospital of injuries suffered a few hours earlier flames broke out. when he was struck by a car near 49th and Dodge streets, Om-

The accident occurred after Mr. Boyle had parked his car ord, was summoned. nearby. An eastbound car, driv-en by Frank Dembowski, 51, of en by Frank Dembowski, 51, of were called. The Ewing fire de-Granby, Colo., knocked Boyle partment is not equipped to fight down as he started across the rural fires. street. There will be no prosecution, county officials said.

8:30 a.m. Saturday from the res- Other buildings were saved. Fire idence, to St. Margaret Mary was fought by a bucket brigade. Catholic church, Omaha, at 9

Among O'Neill relatives attending the rites were Mr. and Mrs. Edward M. Gallagher, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Froelich and Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Birmingham. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. James Berigan, of Atkinson.

The young attorney's father was reared here.

Survivors include: Widow-Virginia; adopted children-John with her daughter, Mrs. Viola and Mary Laura; parents; sister -Eileen.

NEW FOLDER COMING

Chamber of Commerce representative for the U.S. Highway 20 association, reported the organization is getting ready to issue a new folder of its famous map which illustrates the highway 20 route from coast-to-coast.

The Chamber of Commerce nominating committee will meet tonight (Thursday) to pick a slate for the Chamber's new year. Wisner, brother of Mrs. Roy Kimes, of Ewing, died Tuesday in a Norfolk hospital. He was in-There will be an election of officers at the next session.

Honorary Title to O'Neill Beauty She was preceded in death by son, Roy, who was killed in a tractor accident.

Miss Bernadette Hynes, daughter of Mrs. Leona Hynes, of O'-Charles Homolka, Amelia, Neill, recently was chosen "Miss Task Force" at Ft. Leavenworth, Kans. More than 600 infantrymen, engineers and medics who comprise the 31st infantry Dixie division task force voted unani-

AMELIA — Charles Homolka, 178, of Amelia, died late Wednesday, May 21. He had been ill for two years.

Mr. Homalka was born in Leavenworth, Kans., where she is was served to the Company of the Company force was participating in Ft. Leavenworth's recent 125th anniversary celebration. The force is at present in Camp McCoy, Wisc., will return to its home station, Camp Atterbury, Ind., in Septem-

Two years ago Miss Hynes was named beauty queen by the O'-Neill Lions club and finished in number two position in the statewide Lions beauty competition.

Pallbearers were: Jerry O'Malley, George Natchman, Edgar Petersen, Bernard Kennedy, Laurence Walkens and Joe Shorks

EWING - The farm home of Known Here, Dies Mr. and Mrs. Ray Angus, located on the south side of U.S. highway 275 one mile west of Ewing, Attorney Joseph G. Boyle, 31, presumably was struck by light-on and associate of Omaha At-ning about 8 p.m. Monday and

The fire smouldered for a time in the attic insulation before

Mr. and Mrs. Angus were vacationing in Monte Vista, Colo. Their son, Ray F, who is employed by the Clearwater Rec-

Clearwater and Ewing firemen

All first floor and some basement furnishings, including bath-Funeral services were held at room fixtures, were removed.

Heart Attack Fatal to Ewing Woman, 59

EWING-Mrs. William Snider, 59, died at 10:15 p.m., Sunday, May 25, at her home in East Ewing. She was stricken fatally with a heart attack. Mrs. Snider carlier had spent several hours Yarvan, at Clearwater.

Funeral services will be con-ducted at 2 p.m. today (Thursday) at the Church of Christ, Larry De Witte, Rushville Clearwater. Burial will be in the Clearwater cemetery.

Survivors include: Widower William: daughters-Mrs. Viola Yaryan, of Clearwater, and Mrs. Muriel Peterson, of O'Neill; sons -Earl, of Wyoming, and Melvin, of Clearwater.

DIES OF INJURIES

EWING-Cletus McDonald, of jured about 6 p.m. Sunday in a highway accident near Norfolk.

North-Nebraska's Fastest-Growing Newspaper

VOLUME 72.-NUMBER 4.

O'NEILL, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, MAY 29, 1952.

PRICE: 7 CENTS.

MRS. ANGEL, 78, DIES AT SPENCER

Burial Monday for Retired North - Holt Pioneer; Ill 6 Months

SPENCER - Mrs. Edward E. Angel, 78, died at her home in Spencer late Thursday, May 22. She had been ill six months and critically ill for almost two weeks. Funeral services were conducted Monday, May 26, at 10:30 a.m., at St. Mary's Catholic church in Spencer. Rev. William Foster, church pastor, officiated and bural was in St. Mary's cemetery under the direction of Biglin

The late Mrs. Angel, whose maiden name was Elizabeth Theresa Kelly, was born at Morristown, N.J., June 29, 1874. She came to north-Holt county with her parents, settling on a homestead where she resided until her marriage.

On March 1, 1897, she was married to Edward E. Angel in O'-Neill. They went to live in Boyd county northwest of O'Neill. In 947 the couple celebrated their golden we dding anionsersary. Survivors include: widower; sons
—Albert, of Port Angeles, Wash;
Estel, of Spencer; daughters—Mrs.
W. J. (Julia) Fronek, of Mission,
S.D.; Mrs. Earl (Elizabeth) Adrian, of White River, S.D.; Mrs.
Rose Fuhrer, of Port Angeles,
Wash; sister—Mrs. Mary Langan;
20 grandchildren 16 great grand-20 grandchildren 16 great grand-children.

Pallbearers were. Dave Langan, Will Langan, Pat Langan, Matt Hynes, Austin Hynes, Mike Lan-

Among those from O'Neill at-tending the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Matt Hynes, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Langan, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Hynes, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Moler and son, Donald, Mr. and Mrs. Roman Rodhe, Mrs. Mike London, Carl O'Neill and Mrs. John

Following the rites a dinner was served to about 75 relatives at the Community hall. Among O'Neill people attend-ing the rosary rite held Sunday evening were: Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Coyne, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Biglin, Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Druke, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Hynes, Mrs. Loretta Hynes and daughter, Helen, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sullivan, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Moler, Mrs. Mike London and Mrs. Fred Ap-

BOYS TOWN' AUTHOR DIES Fulton Oursler, 59, well-known American author, died Saturday of a heart attack in New York City. One of his books, "Father Flanagan of Boys Town," mentioned O'Neill in connection with Near Ewing Burns Father Flanagan's curateship at St. Patrick's church here. The book also contained O'Neill pic-

Bowens to Arizona -Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Bowen and son, John, departed early Tues-day for Phoenix, Ariz., and other Southwest points where they will vacation for a month.

INFANT DROWNS . . . Thomas Leroy Slattery (above), 19months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas L. Slattery, of Middlebranch, was a drowning victim at the Mule Shoe ranch on Monday, May 5. He tumbled into a stock tank. Survivors include: Parents; sister—Marsha Lynn; grandparents—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas M. Slattery and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Porter, all of Bassett. One sister, Angela Joyce, preceded him in death. Burial was at Bassett. The obituary read: "A dear child whose goodness sweet smile brightened the lives of all who knew him."

Miss Wilson . . . winner.

Struck in Eye by Fish Hook

EWING-Reed Esmic, youthful Ewing fisherman, was struck in the eyelid by a flying fishhook.

Young Esmic forcibly jerked his line out of the water, wrapping the cord around his neck. The hook struck him in the lower eyelid.

Mrs. Duane Jensen rushed him to a doctor where the hook was removed without permanent damage to his eye.

Sale of poppies in O'Neill on Saturday netted $256.02, according to Mrs. Dean Streeter. chair-three out-of-town judges watched a parade of these gals in the annual Lions club beauty contest Monday evening, they deliberated for a time, then wanted another look. No wonder! Left-toright: The Misses Phyllis Harmon, Marilyn Beha, Dianne McAdams, Mary Lou Wilson, Jean Bosn,

JUDGES WANT SECOND LOOK . . . When

Rose Mary Corkle, Mary Lou Conard, Delores Jilg, Marlene Malcom and Suzanne Moss. First place honors went to Miss Wilson; second, Miss Conard; third, Miss Moss. Miss Wilson will receive an all-expense trip to Norfolk to the statewide beauty competition sponsored by Nebraska

Harry Jolly New Policeman

Harry Jolly, about 55, has been appointed to the O'Neill police force by Mayor J. E. Davis and the city council. He succeeds Albert Sipes, who has been on the force since the murder of O'-Neill's Police Chief Chet Calkins on March 7.

At a recent meeting of the council Walt Calkins, brother of the late Chet Calkins, was elevated to police chief.

Meanwhile, there is nothing new in the Calkins murder mystery. A lie detector was put to use last Thursday and Friday by Capt. Harold Smith, of the state safety patrol bureau of investigation. But no discrepancies were found compared to the original stories told authorities by local witnesses.

BOARD IN SESSION

The Holt county board of supervisors was in session Tuesday and Wednesday. There was only routine business transacted. The board of equalization will convene again June 12.

"Voice of The Frontier" . . 780 kc., thrice weekly.

Mexico Bullfights 'Horrible Things'

O'Neill Lions club members, tertainingly told about—the tra-their wives and guests were tak- ditional cock fights. en on a word-picture travelogue to Mexico City Monday evening. Their "host" on the down Mexico way tour was H. V. Oster-berg, who made the trip last year. Osterberg is secretary of the Norfolk Chamber of Com-merce and also is secretary of the U.S. Highway 81 association. His trip primarily was in the inter-tional highway. The speaker was a bit critical of Mexican customs on one hand, but had praise for some of the Mexican accomplishments, notably in the structural field, on the other hand.

est of developing the interna-

"Everybody seems to make a living someway except by working," he quipped.

He said a tourist would imagine the country to be thinly settled in making big jumps between the major stopping - off places. If an American car stops, however, natives pop up all a-find agriculture at its worst in Old Mexico where methods are Many lower and middle class Mexicans blame their plight on the U.S. Higher people, socially, and in government know differently, the Norfolkan declared They know the customs and many of the habits haven't basically changed in centuries. The top social class lavishes in luxury while the commoners are pitifully poor. Osterberg scorned some of the Mexican sporting practices, too.

The Mexican bull fight, he said, is a horrible thing, very distasteful, and the Mexicans take great delight in watching toreadors-several of themwear down a bull, and then, a fresh matador enters with great ceremony and slips the animal the knife.

In Osterberg's box, anyway, were at least seven U.S. citizens who were backing "the bull which didn't have a sporting chance.

Osterberg said food handling is very poor in Mexico from the hygienic standpoint. He did laud the architecture, all of which reveals a strong Spanish influence and suggested that in some respects ultramodern buildings in Mexico City are well advanced of building practices in the U.S. Seventy - five persons were served at the banquet. Heard on the program were Raye Johnson, Osterberg said Americans can who song-two solos; the Lions male quartet, Mr. Johnson, John Bowen, D. H. Clauson and Burl perhaps a hundred years behind. Munsell; Mr. Swoboda, of Norfolk, former district governor, and A. H. Doerning, O'Neill Lions president and toastmaster.

One hundred percent attendance pins were presented to Mr. Doerning, A. E. Bowen, Woodrow Melena, Ray Eby, Don Petersen, Elgin Ray, Mr. Johnson and Mr. Clauson.

Another feature of the dinner meeting, held at the Methodist church annex, was the annual beauty contest. (See picture and He made light of-although en- story elsewhere on page one.)

Holt to Honor Its War Dead

Judge Jackson . . . known Nebraskan. (Story at right)

Rodeo Purses to Be Increased

Members of the board of di-rectors of the Holt County Agri-cultural society, sponsors of the annual Holt county fair and rodeo, met Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Ressel at O'Neill.

It was the fourth meeting of the year for the board, which is completing plans for the 1952 exposition. The 1952 fair dates are August 26-29. The fair will open with entry day on Tuesday and close on Friday night.

President Vern Sageser, of Amelia, was absent from Monday's session, having gone to Manhatten, Kans-

The officials voted to up the purse on rodeo events to attract more cowboys.

Lands Carp in Middle of Road!

Leo Schneider, who lives in the Elkhorn river valley southeast of O'Neill, this week bagged a fish in an unorthodox

He was driving down a deeprutted road in the vicinity his home. The ruts were filled with water from overflowing ditches.

The wheels of Schneider's car overtook a 1½-pound carp. Flabbergasted, Mr. Schneider said he had a driver's license but no fishing license!

Pike, carp and other species of fish are being found this spring in unusual places because of the abundance of wa-

Judge Jackson Will Make Memorial

Address Here Holt countyans will take time from their workaday whirl of ac-tivities to honor the country's war dead on Friday—memorial

In O'Neill the American Legion and auxiliary, of Simonson post 93, will sponsor the observ-Parade personnel will meet at the American Legion auditorium at 9:30 a.m. The parade will move west on Douglas street at 10 a.m. and return.

At 10:45 a.m. the memorial rites will be held at the Legion auditorium. John G. Stuifbergen, Legion post com-mander, will introduce District Judge Lyle E. Jackson, of Ne-ligh. Judge Jackson, a well-known Nebraskan, will deliver the memorial day address.

Order of the parade follows:
O'Neill municipal band, colors,
Legion firing squad, servicemen and women (including Legion and auxiliary members), Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Cub Scouts flower girls.
Commander Stuifbergen sa'd

Wednesday it is hoped Legion personnel and other veterans will appear in service uniform or in Legion or auxiliary headwear,

At 11:30 a.m. memorial rites will be conducted at Prospect Hill and Calvary cemeteries. O'Neill business firms will be closed for the day.

Plainview Minister Page Speaker-

PAGE-The American Legion and auxiliary, of Page, will spon-sor a memorial day program Friday, May 30, at 2 p.m., at the school auditorium.

There will be music by the Page band and various vocal selections.

Members of the mixed quartette who will sing are Dale Stauffer, Marvin Stauffer, Barbara Trowbridge and Lola Jean Sorensen. There will be a vocal solo by Barbara Trowbridge, and a vocal duet by Jerry Terrill and

Ruth Parks. The speaker will be Rev. Clarence Hamscom, pastor of the Congregational church at Plain-

Graveside ceremonies will be performed by the Legion following the program.

Rev. McEhleran

Memorial Speaker -CHAMBERS — Memorial day services will be held in the Chambers hall at 2 p.m., Friday, May

The address, invocation and benediction will be given by Rev. L. M. McElheran, pastor of Memorial church, Chambers.

The program will include music by the Chambers school band and (Continued on page 8)