Christon-Chichester Exchange Vows Here

Arrangements of peonies and daisies appointed the altar of St. Patrick's Catholic church for the 10 a.m. Tuesday, June 10, wedding of Miss Elizabeth Jean Christon and Sgt. Gilbert Chichester. The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Marlin Chichester, of Boise, Ida. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Christon, of Page. Very Rev. Timothy O'Sullivan performed the double-ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length gown of white illusion net with a strapless bodice of chantilly lace. The cape and peplum of the bridal gown trimmed with pleated net, were also of chantilly lace. Her fingertip veil of French illusion was held in place by a tiara trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of white carnations centered with an orchid corsage with stephanotis streamers.

Miss Catherine Christon was maid-of-honor for her sister. She wore an orchid colored gown styled identical to that of the bride's. She wore a matching tiara headress and carried a colonial bouquet of orchid carnations.

The bridegroom was attended by the bride's brother, Dick Christon. He wore a gray suit and the bridegroom wore a light brown suit. Ushering were John Thonin, of Neligh, and Warren Cronk. Both wore dark business suits and all men in the bridal party wore white carnation boutonnieres.

Miss Sandra Harper, cousin of the bride, was the soloist and sang, "On This Day," "I Place My Trust in Thee," "O Lord, I Am Not Worthy" and "O Sanctissima."

The bride's mother was attired in a navy blue dress. The bridegroom's mother wore a powder blue dress. Both wore red rose corsages. The bride's and bridegroom's grandmothers wore blue and grey print dresses, respectively.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held for 43 guests at the Town House. Miss Evelyn Bartak cut the cake; Miss Leona Troshynski and Deritha Smith, of Boise, had charge of the gifts and Miss Sally Christon was in charge of the guest book.

The bride is a 1950 graduate of St. Mary's academy. She has been employed in Norfolk since her graduation. The bridegroom graduated from Page high school in 1948. He is serving in the Marines and at present is stationed in Rockford, Ill.

Following their return from a trip June 20, the bride and bridegroom will reside in Rockford.

Their wedding date also marks the 22nd wedding anniversary for the bride's parents.
